VII. CURRENT BUSINESSA. SCHEDULE DATE OF CLOSED TERMINATION APPEAL HEARING (CIVIL SERVICE EMPLOYEE) – TERRI L. CASSIDY, SECRETARY TO THE BOARD

Ms. Cassidy informed the Board Members that this is a new request for an appeal hearing from a Sworn Police Officer, not the request (Non-Sworn Police Employee) brought to the Board at the September 9, 2013, Regular Meeting. She then deferred to Assistant City Attorney Jason Guyser for a report.

Mr. Guyser reported that outside counsel will represent the City in this matter. He stated that outside counsel has not received a response from employee's attorney for availability and suggested that the Board provide dates of availability over a two- to three-month span, after May 2014, which is when the other hearing is to be completed.

Ms. Cassidy added that it appears this hearing will take approximately five (5) days, as it is a complicated hearing. She requested that the Board review their calendar and obligations for June and July, 2014.

Board Member Dunlap reported that he is available the entire month of June.

Board Member Logan reported that the last two (2) weeks in June would be good, as well as the entire month of July.

Vice Chairperson Coulter reported that the last two (2) weeks of June would be good.

Board Member Allen reported that she will not be available June 25, June 26 and July 24.

Chairperson Talbot reported that he is available the weeks of June 8 and 15, but that he may have a conflict with the week of June 22. Also, he will be available the last two (2) weeks in July.

Ms. Cassidy stated that she will advise the attorneys of the Board Members' availability and discuss the outcome at the next CSB Regular Meeting, April 7, 2014. Additionally, she is scheduling a prehearing meeting for the Non-Sworn Police Employee appeal and will let the Board know the details when solidified.

Chairperson Talbot reported who will be involved in the prehearing meeting and explained that it will streamline the process, scheduled dates and possible stipulations.

In response to an inquiry from the Board, Ms. Cassidy reported that the appeal hearing dates for the Non-Sworn Police Employee matter are May 27, 28 and 29, 2014.
