TITLE: Master Plan for Arts and Culture

DISCUSSION:

City Council has tasked the City Arts Commission to develop goals and a long-term vision in the implementation of the Master Plan for Arts and Culture. In an effort to garner increased public engagement, the Newport Beach City Arts Commission is holding a series of study sessions to serve as an open forum for the public to weigh in on the master plan. In order to focus public discussion, the City Arts Commission poses the question, "What is your vision for the arts in Newport Beach?"
