Policeman Pleads for Gun

Twenty-nine-year-old Jerry Ellington held police at bay 90 minutes Friday in Chicago's Cook County Hospital, after seizing a gun from the holster of a policeman on duty there and threatening to kill himself because a girlfriend rejected him. Police Sgt. Jess Valle tried to no avail to get Ellington to hand over the gun. Police finally subdued him by rolling tear gas canisters into the room.

2 Killed, 2 Wounded In Robbery

TOWSON, Md. (UPI) — A gunman shot two persons to death and wounded two others early today in the holdup of a sandwich shop in a suburban Baltimore shopping center.

Police said the gunman, a neatly dressed man about 30 years old, forced two employes and two customers to lie in a heap on the floor and fired at least six bullets into the tightly packed bodies.

He apparently walked out the door and blended into a crowd leaving a late movie.

Joseph B. Reilly, 18, a summer employe, died at the scene. His friend, James Burns, who had stopped in the shop to wait for Reilly, died seven hours later at St. Joseph's Hospital in Towson.

Treated at the hospital for gunshot wounds and released were Mrs. Vanzula Cooper, 30, a waitress, and Baltimore County police cadet David Storf.

Police said the gunman walked into Harley's sandwich shop in the York Road shopping center about 1 a.m., ordered a cup of coffee, and waited for several customers to leave.

Then he drew a .38 caliber revolver, took $169.49 from the cash register and cash box and ordered his four victims to lie down.

Reds Threatening New Offensives

SAIGON (AP) — Savage fighting between U.S. Marines and North Vietnamese near the demilitarized zone pointed up Monday the threat of a new enemy offensive in the far north.

In addition to enemy pressure near the zone dividing Vietnam, the possibility of new attacks on Saigon raised the prospects that the allies may face heavy fighting on two fronts.

President Nguyen Van Thieu announced he was postponing again a visit to the United States because of the threat of a new enemy offensive.

U.S. and South Vietnamese officials are known to feel the enemy will try to make good on warnings of new and more intensive attacks in South Vietnam.

A U.S. military spokesman reported Marines killed 201 North Vietnamese in two battles Sunday and one last Friday.

All the fighting centered around Gio Linh, an allied combat base near the eastern end of the demilitarized zone and about three miles south of the zone.

Backed by planes, artillery and tanks, the Marines reported they killed 67 North Vietnamese in the Sunday fighting. Marine losses were given as five killed and 17 wounded.

Fighting near Gio Linh raged all day Friday and the Marines said they killed 134 North Vietnamese while taking losses of five dead and 64 wounded.

Planes and Navy ships have been pounding the northern three miles of the zone, where the North Vietnamese are dug in, and communications leading down from the north in an effort to check the flow of men and weapons.

In the past eight days, U.S. Air Force B52 Stratofortresses alone have dumped 5,000 tons of bombs in the zone and just to the north.

There was little action elsewhere except around Saigon, where South Vietnamese troops launched another of the sweeps that officers believe have been a factor in stalling off new enemy attacks on Saigon.

Striking 25 miles northwest of Saigon, the South Vietnamese uncovered a weapons cache containing a bazooka-type rocket launcher, 130 pounds of rockets, ammunition and claymore mines.

Less than three miles from this operation, the Viet Cong sent 12 mortar rounds into Khien Cuong, capital of Hau Nghia Province, wounding nine civilians.

'Beard' Figure Quits Faculty

A Cal State Fullerton assistant professor of drama connected with performance of "The Beard" and appearance of the San Francisco Mime Troupe on campus has resigned from the faculty.

A college spokesman said Dr. George C. Forest was offered reappointment but left the college to study guerrilla theater.

An Associated Press wire story said Forest's resignation was demanded months ago by State Sen. James Whetmore (R-Fullerton), but the college spokesman said he doesn't believe that is true.

Whetmore called for the resignation of Drama Department Chairman Dr. James Young and faculty advisor of "The Beard" Edwin Duerr, he said.

CDM SWIMMER SETS NEW MARK

Toni Hewitt of Corona del Mar shattered her American record for the 200-meter butterfly with a 2:22.0 clocking over the weekend at the Santa Clara International swim meet.

Miss Hewitt was one second off the world standard held by Ada Kok of Holland and lowered her U.S. mark by 1.6 seconds. She scored a double victory in the prestigious international affair, coming back Sunday to win the 100 fly with a lifetime best of 1:05.8. See sports, page 21, for complete details.

Mesa Teen-ager Dies in Newport Cycle Accident

Funeral arrangements were pendin, today for a Costa Mesa motorcyclist, 17, who died of head injuries after colliding with a car in Newport Beach Friday night.

A passenger on the motorcycle luckily escaped with only a cut finger and injured knee, according to a Hoag Memorial Hospital spokesman.

The dead youth was identified as Thomas Sturges Blackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blackman, 212 Wellesley Lane, Costa Mesa.

Police said the teen-ager was riding the cycle westbound on E. Coast Highway about 9:30 p.m. when he attempted to make a left turn onto Jamboree Road.

He collided with a car driven by Linda Jean Delaney, 21, of Narcissus Ave., Newport Beach.

The woman driver and a baby in her car were treated for minor injuries at Hoag and released to their home for an observation period, the hospital said.

Police said the woman was not cited.

The motorcycle passenger who escaped with only a cut was identified as Robert E. Wagner, 17, of 2001 Kewamee Drive. He also was treated and released from Hoag.

A family spokesman said the dead youth would have been a senior this fall at Costa Mesa High School. The boy was admitted to Hoag with critical head injuries, and died the next evening.

Sailor Cyclist Jailed After 100 MPH Pursuit

By ARTHUR R. VINSEL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A sailor who apparently feared getting a traffic citation in Costa Mesa led police on a siren-screaming chase through five cities Sunday at nearly 100 miles per hour before wrecking his motorcycle in Orange.

Ralph M. Herron, 23, of the USS Canberra, based in San Diego, was booked into Orange County Jail on a variety of traffic charges after being treated for minor injuries.

Costa Mesa Officer Matt Collett lost the suspect in homeward-bound beach traffc on the Newport Freeway when his engine apparently blew a valve during the pursuit.

California Highway Patrol Officer Gerald King was almost matching speeds with the fleeing sailor, but was diverted in the opposite direction by confusing radio traffic describing the chase.

Officer Collett said the chase began about 5 p.m., when he saw Herron swerve onto the dirt shoulder of Newport Boulevard at 21st Street and pass three cars on the right.

Flipping on the red lights and siren, Officer Collett gunned the engine of the new patrol car, at which time Herron looked over his shoulder and sped off, northbound on the boulevard.

Handicapped by traffic while Herron was able to weave in, out and around the slower cars, the patrolman finally lost Herron at the Dyer Road offramp, but units spotted along the freeway ahead where ready to pick up the chase.

The patrol car's engine had also apparently blown a valve during the high speed maneuvering.

Marine Kidnaps Baby Girl

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — A two-year-old girl was abducted at gunpoint from her mother's arms today by a man who said he would use the child as a hostage to aid his escape from the United States.

Sheriff Gary Miller of Yuba County said an all points bulletin has been issued for Thomas F. Scofield, a 22-year-old AWOL Marine.

Miller said Scofield and his 20-year-old wife, Loretta, kidnaped little Vicki Lynn West after telling her mother, Ellen Murle West, "We need the baby for safe conduct out of the country."

The sheriff said Mrs. West knew Scofield and identified him as the kidnaper.

Mrs. West said Scofield told her that he killed a man in San Francisco. But San Francisco police said they had no report of such a killing.

There were reports that Scofield may be headed for Canada but Miller said: "We don't know where he might be."

Scofield was reported armed with a rifle and .22-caliber pistol and was considered dangerous.

California Highway Patrol headquarters in Sacramento said Scofield was wanted for armed robbery, kidnaping and auto theft. The patrol said CHP stations throughout Northern California had been alerted but that no roadblocks were erected.

A patrol spokesman said Scofield also took $2 from the purse of Vicki's mother.

The pair was reported traveling in a blue 1965 Dodge Dart two-door sedan with a slightly damaged right front fender and a missing gasoline cap.

Scofield was described as about 5-11, brown haired and with the name "Tom" tattooed on his left shoulder.

All Facts Now in on Huntington Freeway

By WILLIAM REED
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Three weeks remain before the state Highway Commission comes to Huntington Beach to hear of the future Huntington Beach Freeway but few are sitting idly by awaiting the day.

Several years of studies by the highway engineers and months of research and study by citizens groups and by the cities of West Orange County culminate on July 26 with the public hearing at Huntington Beach High School auditorium.

The facts are in. Reports on factual data concerning three study routes and an alternate line have been submitted to the various city councils and to the commission by the state highway engineer.

The results of the reports show that from an engineering standpoint any of the three main routes under study could be buildable and all would be of about equal price and service to the motorist.

The entire issue could well boil down now to one of community effects and the opinion of homeowners on where the freeway should go.

The political bodies have taken their stands. Huntington Beach, Fountain Valley and Garden Grove stand for adoption of the Red (Central) Line.

Westminster is for the Orange (eastern) Line. So are the County Road Department and state highway engineer John Legarra who has recommended adoption of the line to the commission.

Stanton wishes first of all that no line be adopted until the route to the north of Lampson Avenue (the northern boundary of the present study section) is determined. If a line must be selected now, Stanton will join Westminster in asking adoption of the Orange (Eastern) Line.

In the battle of petitions, all forces seem about evenly divided now. The Concerned Citizens Council, picking up where the old Huntington Beach Citizens Freeway Association left off, has gathered somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000 signatures asking that the Orange Line not be adopted and recommending the Red Line (which has the fewest number of homes to be taken).

In Westminster, where the Red (Central) Line takes more homes than does the Orange (Eastern) Line the petition signing has produced somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000 signatures urging adoption of the Orange (Eastern) Line.

Both groups claim they have signatures from the other cities and likely both will have about equal arguments on why the freeway should go one place or another.

The commission will hear the arguments and receive the petitions beginning at 10 a.m. on July 26. Within a couple of months the commission likely will select one of the lines, thus touching off appeals to the governor and to the Legislature, or it will wait until a line is selected for the next segment to the north of Lampson Avenue, hoping that selection will be virtually unanimous so that a pattern can be set for the southern segment.

Johnson Ends Successful 'Little Summit'

SAN SALVADOR (UPI) — President Johnson left for home today winding up a weekend "Little Summit" meeting with the presidents of the five Central American republics.

Aboard the presidential jetliner with Johnson, his wife and daughter Lucy were the presidents of Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala who will travel to their respective capitals aboard Air Force 1 as Johnson's guests.

The presidential plane lifted into the air from San Salvador's International Airport at 9:59 a.m. (EDT), after brief protocol ceremonies.

The host of the summit meeting, President Fidel Sanchez Hernandez of El Salvador, bade goodbye to each of the presidents. There were no airport speeches.

First stop of Johnson's "shuttlerun" home will be Managua, Nicaragua, where President Anastasio Somoza Jr., will leave the party. There will be brief airport ceremonies.

Other stops will be made at San Jose, Costa Rica; San Pedro Sula, Honduras; and Guatemala City, Guatemala to drop off the presidents of those countries. Brief airport ceremonies are scheduled at each.

Johnson left San Salvador with the cheers of tens of thousands of Salvadoreans still ringing in his ears after a weekend considered by observers to be a triumph of personal diplomacy for the president.

A few in the crowds of El Salvador tossed eggs, paint and curses of "Johnson assassin!"

But tens of thousands of citizens of this tiny coffee-producing nation — including women in rags and children with hunger-swollen bellies — poured into the streets in a weekend of love and reached out a forest of hands for a brief touch of Johnson's fingers.

In the official part of a first U. S. presidential trip to Central America, Johnson told the presidents of El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala Sunday night, "Our meeting has been fruitful because it has been responsible." He had lent them $65 million for development and education and pushed their economic cooperation.

The six-nation summit had gone so well that Johnson shocked all their security forces by announcing he was flying them home, capital by capital, in his Air Force One, en route to the LBJ ranch in Texas.

But amid the candlelit glitter of a Sunday night farewell party, it was not the leaders but the people who Johnson recalled when telling a friend:

"These are wonderful people. You can see it in their eyes and feel it in their hands.

"Talk about 'simpatico!' That's what the word means."

Francine Nelson, 18, of Florida, and Thomas King, 22-year-old Californian, led a group of hippie-clad friends through Haight-Ashbury to the wedding scene, where the Rev. Leon P. Harris, pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church, bound them in holy matrimony, which he called "reverent and dignified." After sealing the rites with a kiss, the couple ran, dancing, through the grass.

Aussie Gunman Smashes Furniture to Heat Food

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — A gunman besieged by police for six days today smashed furniture into kindling to heat food for himself, his shotgun teenaged bride and her baby.

The crash and bang of splintering chairs and tables flooded through the windows of the suburban house surrounded by police.

Down the street 100 yards Police Chief Norman Allan and aides huddled in a trailer and tried to figure a way to separate Wallace "Wally" Mellish, 23, his shotgun, automatic rifle, pistols and hand grenades from his wife Beryl, 19, and her son, Leslie, 12 weeks old. Mellish has threatened to kill them if police come any nearer.

Critics who argued police should charge in lest other gunmen get similar ideas got ammunition for their plea. In Auckland, New Zealand, a woman painted her face black, slung a bandolier of bullets around her chest and, waving a shotgun, defied police surrounding her house. Her husband and two young children were believed in the house, police in Auckland said.

In Sydney, police said that maybe they could only wait to telephone Beryl and ask her once more to help them subdue Mellish. A phone call hardly helped Sunday.

Mrs. Mellish, forced to marry at gunpoint at the start of the siege, told the Sydney Daily Mirror by phone: "I didn't know he was like this when I married him."

Mellish underwent psychiatric treatment during imprisonment for burglary. The siege began when police went to the house of Beryl's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Mick Muddle, to question Mellish about some burglaries.

Mellish consolidated his hold on the household after driving off the first policemen with shots. Using his threat to kill Beryl and Leslie, he even forced the police chief to witness the shotgun wedding (Mr. and Mrs. Mick Muddle gave their consent to the match) and later forced Allan to hand over the automatic rifle and 200 armor-piercing bullets.

Paterson Calm

PATERSON, N. J. (UPI) — Police cut back the size of patrols in the Puerto Rican section of Paterson during the night as the area calmed for the first time since disorders erupted five nights ago, leading to 107 arrests.

Two investigations into charges of police brutality during the week of firebombings and vandalism were ordered to begin today.

CHASE . . .

King said he picked up Herron's trail at 17th Street in Santa Ana, but the suspect's burly Harley-Davidson bike was pulling away fast.

"I gave pursuit wide open, periodically giving my location and a description of the suspect," said Officer King.

Herron turned off the Newport Freeway onto the Santiago Boulevard offramp out of King's sight, at which time a patrol car officer radioed that Herron was southbound.

Thinking he meant southbound on the freeway, Officer King slowed, roared through a center aisle opening and sped south again until hearing a new broadcast of Herron's location.

Pursuing officers said the Navyman tried to turn off Santiago Boulevard onto Taft Avenue at too high a speed and the big motorcycle careened off the roadway, spilling him in the dirt.

Herron — who had clutched a wad of weekend clothing between his knees during the chase — was treated for cuts and brusies at Orange County Medical Center and booked into jail.

He is charged with excessive speed., many unsafe lane changes, and reckless driving and was issued a CHP citation for the same offenses when Officer King arrived at the scene.

The chase passed through Costa Mesa, Santa Ana, Tustin, Orange, Villa Park and back into Orange again.

Holiday Traffic Death Toll Far Below Forecasts

By United Press International

At least 616 persons died in traffic accidents during the long Independence Day weekend, but the toll fell far below preholiday estimates of 700 to 800 fatalities. California led the nation with 45 traffic deaths.

The 102-hour holiday period, which began at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, ended officially last midnight but processing of reports of fatalities slowed the holiday death count.

One of the worst holiday smashups occurred Sunday night as millions of motorists across the nation hurried home from their long weekend. Six persons died in a head-on collision near Winfield, Mo., when one auto attempted to pass a line of cars on an incline.

A National Safety Council spokesman, although encouraged by a casualty toll below last year's, pointed out that last year's Fourth of July holiday death toll of 732 set a record for any summer holiday.

He said the fact the tolls for the past three holiday periods have been below the prediction suggests "perhaps there may be a general reaction to various safety campaigns under way."

A United Press International count showed at least 616 persons killed in traffic accidents during the holiday.

The breakdown of accidental deaths:

Traffic 616
Drownings 208
Planes 19
Miscellaneous 112
Total 955

California led the nation with 45 traffic deaths. Ohio reported 42 and Texas 39.

Only Alaska, Hawaii, Vermont and the District of Columbia escaped the holiday period without a traffic death.

Wheeler's Estimate

U.S. Could Survive 1st Nuclear Strike by Russ

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Growing Soviet strategic nuclear forces" pose the biggest threat to the United States. But this country could survive a first strike and destroy Soviet cities and industrial centers.

On the other hand, if the United States struck the first blow, it could not knock out sufficient missiles and planes to prevent large-scale retaliation.

That is the assessment of Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as given to the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee in April and released, in heavily censored form, during the weekend.

Summing up this country's posture, Wheeler said: "We have the military capability for any level of warfare which, if applied fully, could today destroy any nation as a viable society."

He said the joint chiefs "do not consider that the deliberate initiation of the strategic nuclear attack by the Soviets is likely; however, the possibiltiy of nuclear war through escalation or miscalculation cannot be dismissed."

"Further," Wheeler said, "the United States cannot safely discount the possibility that Soviet leaders might launch a pre-emptive strike if they consider themselves inextricably involved in a major confrontation over critical objectives."

Discussing what might happen if the United States was hit first with nuclear weapons, the general said: "We could not prevent the Soviets from launching their own missiles and getting at least a certain number of their aircraft off the fields and en route to the United States.

"We have, of course, the same and even a greater capability to retaliate in the event of a Soviet first strike. So we are talking here in terms of relative damage, I think. . .

"One of the reasons that I have supported the antiballistic missile as strongly as I have is in order to lower the levels of damage against the United States, faced with this situation, where it is literally impossible to buy sufficient forces at the present level of the arms to destroy the enemy strike capability before it is launched against the United States."

Public debate over the advisability of beginning an ABM system — estimated to cost upwards of 340 million depending on the kind built — has resulted in a tentative decision to proceed.

In releasing Wheeler's testimony, subcommittee chairman John Stennis (D-Miss.), said in a statement:

"Despite the agony and immediate urgency of the war in Southeast Asia, in the long run the balance of strategic nuclear power is the defense problem which is of the greatest and most overriding importance to this country.

"If we should lose an engagement in South Vietnam, we lose a battle; if we should lose the entire campaign, we lose a war; but if we fall hopelessly behind in the strategic nuclear field, we can lose our national existence."

Three weeks remain before the state highway Commission comes to Huntington Beach to hear of the future Huntington Beach Freeway but few are sitting idly by awaiting the day.

Several years of studies by the highway engineers and months of research and study by citizens groups and by the cities of West Orange County culminate on July 26 with the public hearing at Huntington Beach High School auditorium.

The facts are in. Reports on factual data concerning three study routes and an alternate line have been submitted to the various city councils and to the commission by the state highway engineer.

The results of the reports show that from an engineering standpoint any of the three main routes under study could be buildable and all would be of about equal price and service to the motorist.

The entire issue could well boil down now to one of community effects and the opinion of homeowners on where the freeway should go.

The political bodies have taken their stands. Huntington Beach, Fountain Valley and Garden Grove stand for adoption of the Red (Central) Line.

2 Killed, Four Wounded By Neat Hood in Holdup

TOWSON, Md. (UPI) — A gunman shot two persons to death and wounded two others early today in the holdup of a sandwich shop in a suburban Baltimore shopping center.

Police said the gunman, a neatly dressed man about 30 years old, forced two employes and two customers to lie in a heap on the floor and fired at least six bullets into the tightly packed bodies.

He apparently walked out the door and blended into a crowd leaving a late movie.

Joseph B. Reilly, 18, a summer employe, died at the scene. His friend, James Burns, who had stopped in the shop to wait for Reilly, died seven hours later at St. Joseph's Hospital in Towson.

Treated at the hospital for gunshot wounds and released were Mrs. Vanzula Cooper, 30, a waitress, and Baltimore County police cadet David Storf.

Police said the gunman walked into Harley's sandwich shop in the York Road shopping center about 1 a.m., ordered a cup of coffee, and waited for several customers to leave.

Then he drew a .38 caliber revolver, took $169.49 from the cash register and cash box and ordered his four victims to lie down.

Development Unit Sets First Meet

A 15-man committee charged with implementation of a policy plan for development of the mid-beach area of Huntington Beach meets for the first time Wednesday night.

The new committee is to be composed of the nine-member Urban Land Institute Citizens Steering Committee, three councilmen and three planners.

Councilmen Henry Kaufman, Jack Green and George McCracken have been named to the committee by Mayor Alvin M. Coen. Planners Robert Bazil, Richard Tom and Roger Slates represent the Planning Commission.

The 7:30 p.m. session will be held in the administrative annex of City Hall, Main Street and Pecan Avenue.

The mid-beach area includes the old commercial area downtown and takes in much of the old city. The plan adopted by the City Council calls for a combination of commercial, residential and municipal development.

Police Jail 15 After Youths Report Beatings

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Fifteen persons were in police custody today after four youths told police they were held prisoner at the Black Congress Hall in south central Los Angeles and beaten by members of a militant black power group.

Officers were taken to the hall by Jerva Harris, who said a bullet fired from the building missed his car as he fled the meeting.

Three youths who said they had been held prisoner for two hours by members of the organization headed by black militant Ron Karenga were found beaten, Tyrone Washington, 18, Felix Pullum, 19, and Gregory Sewell, 19, were treated and released at Morningside Hospital. Harris, who also was beaten, said he would see a private physician.

The four said members of the sect had pistolwhipped them and used them as Karate "dummies."

Police Arrest Westminster Man On Assault Rap

A Westminster man was jailed early today after the severe beating of a frail, mentally retarded mechanic who wondered what the suspect was doing, tampering with a car at his employer's garage.

Louis P. Michaels, 39, of 13752 Milton St., was booked into Orange County Jail on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder after investigators found him in a bar.

The victim is in satisfactory condition at Westminster Community Hospital today with serious injuries.

Police said he was literally beaten to a pulp.

"He was unconscious and in severe shock when we arrived," said Westminster Police Lt. Jack Essex.

The victim stumbled to a nearby tavern after the beating and police later received a tip that Michaels was at the same bar and arrested him there without resistance.

Michaels was scheduled for arraignment in West Orange County Municipal Court today.

Investigators said the victim found Michaels tampering with a car at Smith's garage and said he was going to call police, at which time he was attacked.

Police said the victim was beaten only with fists and that no other weapon was used.

Nuclear Strength Compared

Wheeler Says U.S., Russia Could Survive 1st Strike

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Growing Soviet strategic nuclear forces" pose the biggest threat to the United States. But this country could survive a first strike and destroy Soviet cities and industrial centers.

On the other hand, if the United States struck the first blow, it could not knock out sufficient missiles and planes to prevent large-scale retaliation.

That is the assessment of Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as given to the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee in April and released, in heavily censored form, during the weekend.

Summing up this country's posture, Wheeler said: "We have the military capability for any level of warfare which, if applied fully, could today destroy any nation as a viable society."

He said the joint chiefs "do not consider that the deliberate initiation of the strategic nuclear attack by the Soviets is likely; however, the possibiltiy of nuclear war through escalation or miscalculation cannot be dismissed."

"Further," Wheeler said, "the United States cannot safely discount the possibility that Soviet leaders might launch a pre-emptive strike if they consider themselves inextricably involved in a major confrontation over critical objectives."

Discussing what might happen if the United States was hit first with nuclear weapons, the general said: "We could not prevent the Soviets from launching their own missiles and getting at least a certain number of their aircraft off the fields and en route to the United States.

"We have, of course, the same and even a greater capability to retaliate in the event of a Soviet first strike. So we are talking here in terms of relative damage, I think. . .

"One of the reasons that I have supported the antiballistic missile as strongly as I have is in order to lower the levels of damage against the United States, faced with this situa-

Sex Education Course Studied

A course of study plan for a proposed course in family life and sex education comes before the board of the Huntington Beach Union High School District for adoption tonight.

Trustees meet at 7:30 p.m. at district headquarters, 1902 17th St., Huntington Beach.

Trustees will hear also a report from the district's Citizens Advisory Committee which is making a study of the district's building needs with an eye to recommending a bond issue election for November.

Planning Board Meets Tonight

A proposed "adults only" 225 unit apartment complex to be constructed between Garden Grove Boulevard and Springdale Street east of Melanie Lane, in what is now a local business (C-1) zoning, highlights tonight's agenda of the Westminster Planning commission.

Planners also consider a conditional use permit for Forrest Schikendanz to operate a rest home for four elderly persons in an existing single family type (R-1) residence at 7561 Benton Ave.

The commission meets at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

Orange Coast Weather

Although the Lilliputian rain storm over the weekend failed to dampen the spirits of beach invasionary force there is still possibility early morning sprinkle accompanied by sunny afternoons. Highs today near 75.

13 Studying New System Of Learning

Thirteen Golden West instructors are being paid $675 each this summer to experiment with a systems approach to learning.

Systems approach, Dean of Instruction William Shawl explained, means to set learning objectives and then devise a course of study to achieve them.

The programs developed by the instructors will be tried out with students in the fall. The instructors and what they are doing are:

Miss Edith Freligh and Miss Ruth Hunter — a self-taught remedial English course.

Roscoe Lancaster — a self-taught general chemistry course.

Mrs. Peggy Staggs — supplemental enrichment course in American history.

Lee Rosch — supplemental enrichment course in political science.

John North and Eldon Durham — independent study in technical drafting.

Robert Schiffner — supplemental film exposure to reinforce art history study.

Warren Peterkin — supplemental audio exposure to reinforce music appreciation study.

John Wordes — supplemental exposure to reinforce fine arts study.

Angelo Segalla and John Wadhams — computer use for mathematics.

Policeman Pleads With Distraught Suitor

Twenty-nine-year-old Jerry Ellington held police at bay 90 minutes Friday in Chicago's Cook County Hospital, after seizing a gun from the holster of a policeman on duty there and threatening to kill himself because a girlfriend rejected him. Police Sgt. Jess Valle tried to no avail to get Ellington to hand over the gun. Police finally subdued him by rolling tear gas canisters into the room.

AWOL Marine Kidnaps Girl

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — A two-year-old girl was abducted at gunpoint from her mother's arms today by a man who said he would use the child as a hostage to aid his escape from the United States.

Sheriff Gary Miller of Yuba County said an all points bulletin has been issued for Thomas F. Scofield, a 22-year-old AWOL Marine.

Miller said Scofield and his 20-year-old wife, Loretta, kidnaped little Vicki Lynn West after telling her mother, Ellen Murle West, "We need the baby for safe conduct out of the country."

The sheriff said Mrs. West knew Scofield and identified him as the kidnaper.

Mrs. West said Scofield told her that he killed a man in San Francisco. But San Francisco police said they had no report of such a killing.

There were reports that Scofield may be headed for Canada but Miller said: "We don't know where he might be."

Scofield was reported armed with a rifle and .22-caliber pistol and was considered dangerous.

California Highway Patrol headquarters in Sacramento said Scofield was wanted for armed robbery, kidnaping and auto theft. The patrol said CHP stations throughout Northern California had been alerted but that no roadblocks were erected.

A patrol spokesman said Scofield also took $2 from the purse of Vicki's mother.

The pair was reported traveling in a blue 1965 Dodge Dart two-door sedan with a slightly damaged right front fender and a missing gasoline cap.

Scofield was described as about 5-11, brown haired and with the name "Tom" tattooed on his left shoulder.,

'Beard' Figure Quits Faculty At Cal, Fullerton

A Cal State Fullerton assistant professor of drama connected with performance of "The Beard" and appearance of the San Francisco Mime Troupe on campus has resigned from the faculty.

A college spokesman said Dr. George C. Forest was offered reappointment but left the college to study guerrilla theater.

An Associated Press wire story said Forest's resignation was demanded months ago by State Sen. James Whetmore (R-Fullerton), but the college spokesman said he doesn't believe that is true.

Whetmore called for the resignation of Drama Department Chairman Dr. James Young and faculty advisor of "The Beard" Edwin Duerr, he said.

A sex act was simulated during performance of the controversial one-act play. Forest was in "The Beard" audience and defended the play in a letter.

He later served as contact man for the Mime Troupe, originally barred by court order from appearing on campus.

OV Board Slates Meeting Tonight

Trustees of Ocean View School District meet tonight in the first of two special sessions called this month to replace the regular sessions.

The meeting is at 7:30 p.m. in the boardroom, Warner Avenue and Beach Boulevard, Huntington Beach. The agenda calls for the annual elections of officers and may call for discussions of plans for double sessions or relocation of students in crowded schools.

Trustees normally meet the first and third Mondays, but have elected to meet the second and fourth Mondays this month only. Next meeting is July 22.

CDM SWIMMER SETS NEW MARK

Toni Hewitt of Corona del Mar shattered her American record for the 200-meter butterfly with a 2:22.0 clocking over the weekend at the Santa Clara International swim meet.

Miss Hewitt was one second off the world standard held by Ada Kok of Holland and lowered her U.S. mark by 1.6 seconds. She scored a double victory in the prestigious international affair, coming back Sunday to win the 100 fly with a lifetime best of 1:05.8. See sports, page 21, for complete details.

tion, where it is literally impossible to buy sufficient forces at the present level of the arms to destroy the enemy strike capability before it is launched against the United States."

Public debate over the advisability of beginning an ABM system — estimated to cost upwards of 340 million depending on the kind built — has resulted in a tentative decision to proceed.

In releasing Wheeler's testimony, subcommittee chairman John Stennis (D-Miss.), said in a statement:

"Despite the agony and immediate urgency of the war in Southeast Asia, in the long run the balance of strategic nuclear power is the defense problem which is of the greatest and most overriding importance to this country.

"If we should lose an engagement in South Vietnam, we lose a battle; if we should lose the entire campaign, we lose a war; but if we fall hopelessly behind in the strategic nuclear field, we can lose our national existence."

Chamber Calls Special Meeting

The city-chamber economic development committee meets tonight in the new offices of the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce to take a close look at a resolution asking the City Council for positive support of industrial development and tourism.

The meeting will be held at the chamber office, 18582 Beach Blvd. and begins at 7:30 p.m. The council committee is composed of Councilmen George McCracken, Ted Bartlett and Mayor Alvin M. Coen.

Chamber directors are Howard Matheny, C. E. "Bill" Woods and Steve Holden. The committee is formulating a policy statement designed to put the City Council and Chamber in accord on industrial and tourism development.

FREEWAY...

(eastern) Line. So are the County Road Department and state highway engineer John Legarra who has recommended adoption of the line to the commission.

Stanton wishes first of all that no line be adopted until the route to the north of Lampson Avenue (the northern boundary of the present study section) is determined. If a line must be selected now, Stanton will join Westminster in asking adoption of the Orange (Eastern) Line.

In the battle of petitions, all forces seem about evenly divided now. The Concerned Citizens Council, picking up where the old Huntington Beach Citizens Freeway Association left off, has gathered somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000 signatures asking that the Orange Line not be adopted and recommending the Red Line (which has the fewest number of homes to be taken).

In Westminster, where the Red (Central) Line takes more homes than does the Orange (Eastern) Line the petition signing has produced somewhere between 5,000 and 10,000 signatures urging adoption of the Orange (Eastern) Line.

Both groups claim they have signatures from the other cities and likely both will have about equal arguments on why the freeway should go one place or another.

The commission will hear the arguments and receive the petitions beginning at 10 a.m. on July 26. Within a couple of months the commission likely will select one of the lines, thus touching off appeals to the governor and to the Legislature, or it will wait until a line is selected for the next segment to the north of Lampson Avenue, hoping that selection will be virtually unanimous so that a pattern can be set for the southern segment.

Fountain Valley Couple Hurt in Beach Crash

Dominic and Elizabeth Garofalo of 16351 Rosewood St., Fountain Valley, are in serious condition at Huntington Intercommunity Hospital today after suffering multiple injuries when the couple's small car collided with a larger vehicle Sunday night in the intersection of Warner Avenue and Magnolia Street in Huntington Beach.

Driver of the second automobile Carl P. Writer, 47, of 1861 Simon Ranch Rd., Santa Ana, was uninjured. Writer's wife, Mrs. Rita V. Writer ,43, was treated for minor injuries at Huntington Intercommunity and then released.

In another Sunday accident Joe Contreras, 17, and Robert Mancha, 18, of Norwalk suffered serious head injuries when Mancha's car apparently went out of control on Goldenwest Street near Mansion Avenue and crashed into a telephone pole.

Contreras and Mancha were taken to Huntington Intercommunity Hospital.

Two others in the car, Gilbert Bresulla of La Mirada, and Abelando Berroterran of Anaheim, were given emergency treatment and released.

Weekend Beach Turnout Small

"Bonnie" lies over the ocean. That is tropical storm Bonnie which was centered this weekend some 300 miles off of Baja California.

And there was little love lost between disappointed Huntington Beach sun bathers and the weather that darkened coastal skies.

City lifeguards reported one of the smallest turnouts of the summer season, 28,000 beach goers on Saturday and 48,000 on Sunday.

The combined rescue total for city and state lifeguards for both days was 19. Three pairs of parents got separated from their offspring, said city guards.

"There were no major incidents what so ever on the state beach," added state lifeguard supervisor Jack Buck.

Coin Suspect A Piggy Bank?

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. (UPI) — The Secret Service is watching Dennis L. Uranis, 37. They think he's a human piggy bank.

Uranis was arrested Saturday, Ozaukee County authorities said, after trying to sell a man 11 defaced pennies for $250. That's a federal offense.

He put a mint mark on the copper coins to make them look more valuable to collectors, authorities said, but apparently swallowed them before they could get a good look.

X rays disclosed a "metallic object," something like a roll of pennies, in Uranis' stomach, officials said.

The patrol car's engine had also apparently blown a valve during the high speed maneuvering.

California Highway Patrol officer King said he picked up Herron's trail at 17th Street in Santa Ana, but the suspect's burly Harley-Davidson bike was pulling away fast.

"I gave pursuit wide open, periodically giving my location and a description of the suspect," said Officer King.

Herron turned off the Newport Freeway onto the Santiago Boulevard offramp out of King's sight, at which time a patrol car officer radioed that Herron was southbound.

Thinking he meant southbound on the freeway, Officer King slowed, roared through a center aisle opening and sped south again until hearing a new broadcast of Herron's location.

Pursuing officers said the Navyman tried to turn off Santiago Boulevard onto Taft Avenue at too high a speed and the big motorcycle careened off the roadway, spilling him in the dirt.

Herron — who had clutched a wad of weekend clothing between his knees during the chase — was treated for cuts and brusies at Orange County Medical Center and booked into jail.

He is charged with excessive speed., many unsafe lane changes, and reckless driving and was issued a CHP citation for the same offenses when Officer King arrived at the scene.

The chase passed through Costa Mesa, Santa Ana, Tustin, Orange, Villa Park and back into Orange again.

Wreck Ends 100 mph Chase

Sailor Leads Law Over Five Cities

By ARTHUR R. VINSEL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A sailor who apparently feared getting a traffic citation in Costa Mesa led police on a siren-screaming chase through five cities Sunday at nearly 100 miles per hour before wrecking his motorcycle in Orange.

Ralph M. Herron, 23, of the USS Canberra, based in San Diego, was booked into Orange County Jail on a variety of traffic charges after being treated for minor injuries.

Costa Mesa Officer Matt Collett lost the suspect in homeward-bound beach traffc on the Newport Freeway when his engine apparently blew a valve during the pursuit.

California Highway Patrol Officer Gerald King was almost matching speeds with the fleeing sailor, but was diverted in the opposite direction by confusing radio traffic describing the chase.

Officer Collett said the chase began about 5 p.m., when he saw Herron swerve onto the dirt shoulder of Newport Boulevard at 21st Street and pass three cars on the right.

Flipping on the red lights and siren, Officer Collett gunned the engine of the new patrol car, at which time Herron looked over his shoulder and sped off, northbound on the boulevard.

Handicapped by traffic while Herron was able to weave in, out and around the slower cars, the patrolman finally lost Herron at the Dyer Road offramp, but units spotted along the freeway ahead where ready to pick up the chase.

The patrol car's engine had also apparently blown a valve during the high speed maneuvering.

California Highway Patrol officer King said he picked up Herron's trail at 17th Street in Santa Ana, but the suspect's burly Harley-Davidson bike was pulling away fast.

ENTERTAINMENT, TOO — Along with all great restaurants comes great entertainment. The "free people" of Laguna Beach have also supplied entertainment as well as food. A guitar and flute prove to be the backbone of the mini-music festival. Hips expect 10,000 fellow hippies to show up for a July 20 love-in on the beach.

Free Folk Fill Up at Feed-in

Laguna's 'Establishment' Eyes Hippies From Above

By TOM GORMAN
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

The Establishment looked down from above.

The Free People looked back up.

It was the feed-in at the Main Beach in Laguna. More than 140 hungry people came for some free food. They ate asparagus, cabbage, tomatoes, carrots, corn, rice, watermelon and other fruits.

While they ate, a number of the "Establishment" gathered above, on the bluff of Heisler Park, and observed proceedings.

The hippies didn't mind. In fact, some took out binoculars and looked back at them, 50 feet above.

The feed-in started two weeks ago by four hungry people, according to 24-year-old James Edward Martin III, going by the name Hermes Trysmagiftus.

"There were four hungry people, they got together, pooled their money and this feed-in thing began," he said.

It has since then compounded to a 140-person event. On July 4, they had a holiday crowd of 250.

Hermes and his associate, Kurt Reed, 21, proprietor of Things, a Laguna hippie shop, financed the feed-in through contributions they have "found" in a glass jar on the counter.

It reads, "All money found in this jar will help to feed the hungry people of Laguna Beach."

For their July 4 crowd, they spent $35. Usually $6 can do for a group of 70.

Are they worried about freeloaders? Said Hermes, "This is my duty to my fellow man. This is original Christianity. We're here to help the hungry people."

What does the feed-in mean to hippies, besides free food? Rick Larsson, a resident of Laguna for seven years, told the DAILY PILOT that the feed-ins are a means of unifying the hippie community.

"We're trying to make a paradise out of Laguna, not a Haight-Ashbury. My parents think the way we're thinking. They see we're on the right track. Now if we had a little organization, a little unity, it would be a lot better.

"The purpose of this feed-in is to form a nucleus, so we can have organization, unity, and communication with other people."

Mike Schulman, from New York, is 25 years old. He's been to San Francisco, but, according to him, "I've been nowhere until I've been here." He explained that the police "harassment" in the Bay City was much worse than treatment in Laguna.

"I heard about Laguna from another guy in Frisco. He talked about how great it was down there."

BUCKET BRIGADE — With the "free people" holding a feed-in at the Main Beach in Laguna, they have one main problem — sandy food. But some of the eager eaters are quick to explain that the sand is full of nourishing minerals.

Lifeguards Have Easy Weekend

The Pacific Ocean was renamed "Lake Laguna" this past weekend by local lifeguards.

There were only 5 rescues in the combined two day crowd of 14,000. Calm surf and no rips accounted for the few rescues. Water temperature was a chilly 62, while the air was a muggy 75 degrees.

The only major incident occurred Sunday when a Tustin boy fell through a carport roof on Moss Street. Bill Hutchins, 11, of 1872 B Ave. suffered a broken arm in the fall.

3 Women Hurt In 2 Separate Laguna Wrecks

Three women were injured in two separate Laguna Beach auto accidents Sunday.

The weekend traffic toll in the Art Colony also included two dead deer that had ventured onto Laguna Canyon Road.

Police Lt. Robert McMurray said Darlene L. Nottingham, 31, of Garden Grove and Gail C. Carey, 28, of Santa Ana were injured at 3:17 a.m. Sunday when their car left a curve in the Big Bend of Laguna Canyon Road.

McMurray said the car apparently struck a boulder after leaving the road and flew through the air. Both women were treated at Hoag Memorial Hospital and later released, said hospital authorities.

Patricia Ann Wilson, 29, of Pomona suffered minor injury Sunday afternoon, McMurray said, after her car struck the rear of a car driven by Roy W. Olsen, 61 of Santa Ana. She was to see her own doctor.

Both cars were eastbound on Laguna Canyon Road. McMurray said Mrs. Wilson apparently glanced away from the road and struck Olsen's car.

McMurray said the two deer were struck by cars a little before 2 a.m. Sunday when they darted onto the canyon road.

Thieu Asks Johnson Meet

Vietnam Chief Wants to Find Out What's Going On

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam today announced he wants to meet President Johnson somewhere in the Pacific in the next few weeks.

Thieu said he wants to talk with Johnson about military matters and "problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

He gave no details but South Vietnamese leaders have not disguised their skepticism about the value of the U.S.-North Vietnamese talks in Paris, sessions aimed at cooling down the war enough to permit a peace conference.

Thieu said in a communique he wants to meet Johnson for "a few days" to discuss "important and urgent matters."

Thieu also said he is postponing a two-week visit to the United States he had planned for later this month.

The communique said the threat of fresh Communist attacks on Saigon and other points in South Vietnam made the U.S. visit inadvisable now.

In a weekend interview with United Press International, Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky said he believes the Communists will launch the major attack on the capital within the next two months.

Ky predicted the battle would be won against what he called intense guerrilla use of snipers and one and two man bands lodged throughout Saigon.

Thieu's communique said: "There are many important problems which necessitate a direct exchange of views between the national leaders, and cannot suffer a long delay, especially problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

The Saigon regime has been less than avid in its support for American negotiators going into preliminary peace talks with North Vietnamese officials in Paris. Ky said in the weekend interview that the main condition Saigon insists upon in any settlement is a total North Vietnamese withdrawal from South Vietnam. He predicted any agreement would take a long, long time.

Dozer Ends Building

Structure Giving Way to New Playhouse

No longer is there a building at 608 Laguna Canyon Road.

The city-owned Burt Building fell to the ground Friday morning under the pressuring of an indiscriminate bull-bulldozer.

The Burt Building was used as storage and/or office space by the Festival of Arts, the Laguna Beach School of Art and Design, and the Lyric Opera Association of Orange County.

The three organizations were at one time on a 30 day notice. Two months ago, according to city manager James D. Wheaton, the groups were put on 24 hour notice, in order that construction could begin as soon as possible on the new Laguna Beach Playhouse.

Alexandra Churchill, chairman of the board of the School of Art and Design, told the DAILY PILOT, "The school is glad to hear the playhouse is going to start construction after four years of false starts."

In the meantime, the School has no where to go. It has lost space for one class and has found "inconvenient" locations for two other classes. But school officials and students will have to put up with what they have until they can begin construction on their own new hillside building, which the city has indicated will be a part of the Irvine Park Complex. And, construction can't begin until they have the money to finance it.

NO DATE SET

As of right now, the date for the beginning of construction is not in sight.

While the Festival of Arts did lose storage space within the building because of the demolition, their main concern has to do with the loss of parking.

Don Williamson, the producer of the Pageant, commented, "The Pageant depends on volunteers. The least we can do is to supply parking facilities."

Moving costumes and equipment, according to Williamson, was "quite a trial. We couldn't do it very logically." He said that after the Festival, they will undertake a "logical assessment of the situation."

Edward Fernsten, board president of the Festival, told the DAILY PILOT, "We didn't expect this to happen at the beginning of the Pageant." But he added, "We have no complaints."

The Festival is hoping to use the city parking lot across the street for its parking needs.

USED BOTH

The Lyric Opera Association of Orange County used both office quarters and storage. The opera has since moved its stored items to a warehouse in the Canyon. The new office is temporarily located at 222 Forest Ave. Mrs. Velma Sun, executive director of the Opera Association, said that the move came as a "surprise." "But," she continued, "we have not missed a step in the operations."

The Opera Association, which employs one full time worker and accepts the services of up to 10 volunteers, has made no permanent relocation plans.

The Laguna Beach Playhouse knows where they are going to go, though. There seems to be some construction going on at 608 Laguna Canyon Road.

DESTRUCTION FOR PROGRESS — This was how the old Burt's Cleaners building looked like from the inside peering out after bulldozers when to work Friday to destroy the old structure and make way for the new Laguna Moulton Playhouse. Site is at 608 Laguna Canyon Road.

'Safe' Fireworks Spark Brush Fire

"Safe and sane" fireworks in the hands of a nine-year-old boy started a 1½ acre brush fire in Laguna Beach Friday, afternoon.

Fire Marshal James Presson said the blaze burned grass and brush on the downhill side of Madison Place between 1008 and 1034. No houses caught fire. Presson said it was fortunate that ice plant was growing below the houses.

The fire marshal said the youngster was lectured and turned over to his parents.

207 Art Works Chosen For All State Exhibit

Three art judges are breathing a lot easier this week.

From 850 works of art submitted by artists all over California, they had the formidable task of choosing 207 to be displayed at the 14th Annual All-California Art Exhibit at the Laguna Beach Art Association Gallery.

The All-California show, sponsored jointly by the Festival of Arts and the Laguna Beach Art Association, will run concurrently with the Festival, from July 12 through August 25.

The three jurors for this major art event were Jason Wong, director of the Long Beach Museum of Art; Adele Bednarz, a La Cienega gallery owner; and Los Angeles artist Richard Haines.

An acrylic "EOS" won a $500 purchase award for Lewis Beken of Los Angeles; the $350 purchase award went to Ronald Pusich of Hollywood for his acrylic "Mary"; and the $200 purchase award went to Jay Maddox of Anaheim for his untitled sculpture of resin and chrome.

Honorable mention awards of $50 apiece went to Lester Henry of Norwalk for his ceramic "Growth"; Robert Partin of Orange for his oil "Voyage"; and Winifred W. Smith of Newport Beach for her acrylic "4 Squares in a Surface."

The Gallery, 307 Cliff Drive, is open from noon to 10 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students with I.D. cards. There is no charge for children if accompanied by an adult.

Weekend Rain Dampens Coast

In case you missed it, it rained during the weekend. Just enough in most places along the Orange Coast to spot-up all the dirt on your car or get the dog's paws wet when he's put out in the morning, but rain all the same and in July yet.

Laguna Beach residents were hardest hit with a deluge of .13 of an inch during the last 24 hours. Second wettest was San Clemente with .11 of an inch. Huntington Beach recorded only .01 of an inch during the same period. Meanwhile, the Newport Harbor area remained dry, no rain at all was recorded during the last 24 hours.

Banker Reports Theft From Auto

A Glendale banker returned to his car in a Laguna Beach municipal parking lot Saturday evening and discovered that about $1,100 worth of clothing and other personal possessions had been stolen. Police Lt. Robert McMurray said the thief forced open a windowing to enter the car of Everett D. Tate in an Ocean Avenue parking lot.

Taken were suitcases, clothing, cameras, a telescope, a stereo record player, a radio and diamond ear rings.

Lagunan Files Assault Charge

A Laguna Beach man complained to police Saturday that he was knocked to the floor by another man and his throat stepped on.

Police are investigating the complaint of Warren H. Yeakel, 47 an interior decorator of 590 N. Coast Highway, apartment 1.

Lt. Robert McMurray said a witness cried, "leave or you may kill him" and the assailant, who was at the time stepping on Yeakel's throat walked out.

McMurray said the attack apparently followed an earlier disagreement about the price of material that Yeakel had sold. McMurray said Yeakel is seeking a complaint against the alleged assailant.

C.A. Haskins, Former Laguna Banker, Dies

Retired banker Charles A. Haskins, 86, died Saturday after an apparent heart attack at his Laguna Beach home.

A former vice president and board chairman of Security First National Bank in Laguna, Mr. Haskins, 183 Crescent Bay Drive, had been a resident of Laguna Beach since 1948.

Born in Zumbrota, Minn., Mr. Haskins had been a resident of California for 46 years. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 137, the Shrine and the Scottish Rite in Havre, Mont. He was also a board member for South Coast Community Hospital.

A past president of the Glendale Optimist Club, he was a member of the Laguna Beach Optimist Club and the Executives Club.

Survivors include his widow, LeEtta of the family home; two sons, Charles and William, both of Newport Beach; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Howell of Newport Beach, and Miss Virginia Haskins of Glendale; and five grandchildren.

Laguna Company Wins Ballet Honor

The Laguna Beach Civic Ballet Company has been named a National Honor Company by the National Association for Regional Ballet.

The Laguna group is the only one in Southern California thus honored, despite attempts by the other ballet groups in the area to win such recognition.

William Habich, president of the national organization, said the Laguna Company has "distinguished itself in artistry, and in consistently good work toward our highest ideals for regional ballet."

Students Told to Check Fall High School Classes

Even though the first day of school is still more than two months away, it's not too early for the high school students to confirm their schedules.

The reminder was issued by the Laguna Beach Unified School District, in anticipation of the last minute rush by students to change their courses.

In order to avoid the last hectic days before school begins, the Laguna Beach High School is going to make available a counselor every Tuesday and Wednesday during July and August, for both new students and students wishing to make program changes.

New counselor Richard Hollister reports many students taking summer school classes will need to make changes in their fall schedules, and this should be done before school begins September 10. Any seniors in doubt about graduation requirements, students who wish to make changes in their programs or new students coming into the district are asked to take advantage of summer counseling.

In late August, completed fall schedules will be mailed to all high school students. Hollister asked that any questions or conflicts discovered then be brought to the office before September.

Pair Arrested On Drug Charge

Two 21-year-old men were arrested on suspicion of marijuana possession Friday after Laguna Beach police responded to a complaint that a rifle was being brandished at Cress Street and Glenneyre.

Police arrested Larry Paul Sturges, 21, of 1826 Tradewind Lane, Newport Beach, and John Roni Wakula, 21, of 648 Beach St., Costa Mesa.

Lt. Robert McMurray said officers alleged they found two plastic bags of marijuana in the pocket of a coat lying in the men's car and found a .22 caliber rifle on the back seat.

2 Killed, 2 Wounded In Robbery

TOWSON, Md. (UPI) — A gunman shot two persons to death and wounded two others early today in the holdup of a sandwich shop in a suburban Baltimore shopping center.

Police said the gunman, a neatly dressed man about 30 years old, forced two employes and two customers to lie in a heap on the floor and fired at least six bullets into the tightly packed bodies.

He apparently walked out the door and blended into a crowd leaving a late movie.

Joseph B. Reilly, 18, a summer employe, died at the scene. His friend, James Burns, who had stopped in the shop to wait for Reilly, died seven hours later at St. Joseph's Hospital in Towson.

Treated at the hospital for gunshot wounds and released were Mrs. Vanzula Cooper, 30, a waitress, and Baltimore County police cadet David Storf.

Police said the gunman walked into Harley's sandwich shop in the York Road shopping center about 1 a.m., ordered a cup of coffee, and waited for several customers to leave.

Then he drew a .38 caliber revolver, took $169.49 from the cash register and cash box and ordered his four victims to lie down.

'Beard' Figure Quits Faculty At Cal, Fullerton

A Cal State Fullerton assistant professor of drama connected with performance of "The Beard" and appearance of the San Francisco Mime Troupe on campus has resigned from the faculty.

A college spokesman said Dr. George C. Forest was offered reappointment but left the college to study guerrilla theater.

An Associated Press wire story said Forest's resignation was demanded months ago by State Sen. James Whetmore (R-Fullerton), but the college spokesman said he doesn't believe that is true.

Whetmore called for the resignation of Drama Department Chairman Dr. James Young and faculty advisor of "The Beard" Edwin Duerr, he said.

A sex act was simulated during performance of the controversial one-act play. Forest was in "The Beard" audience and defended the play in a letter.

He later served as contact man for the Mime Troupe, originally barred by court order from appearing on campus.

Police Arrest Westminster Man On Assault Rap

A Westminster man was jailed early today after the severe beating of a frail, mentally retarded mechanic who wondered what the suspect was doing, tampering with a car at his employer's garage.

Louis P. Michaels, 39, of 13752 Milton St., was booked into Orange County Jail on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder after investigators found him in a bar.

The victim is in satisfactory condition at Westminster Community Hospital today with serious injuries.

Police said he was literally beaten to a pulp.

"He was unconscious and in severe shock when we arrived," said Westminster Police Lt. Jack Essex.

The victim stumbled to a nearby tavern after the beating and police later received a tip that Michaels was at the same bar and arrested him there without resistance.

Michaels was scheduled for arraignment in West Orange County Municipal Court today.

Investigators said the victim found Michaels tampering with a car at Smith's garage and said he was going to call police, at which time he was attacked.

Police said the victim was beaten only with fists and that no other weapon was used.

After sealing the rites with a kiss, the couple ran, dancing, through the grass.

2 New Red Offensives Feared

Fighting Breaks Out Along DMZ; Saigon Awaits Attack

SAIGON (AP) — Savage fighting between U.S. Marines and North Vietnamese near the demilitarized zone pointed up Monday the threat of a new enemy offensive in the far north.

In addition to enemy pressure near the zone dividing Vietnam, the possibility of new attacks on Saigon raised the prospects that the allies may face heavy fighting on two fronts.

President Nguyen Van Thieu announced he was postponing again a visit to the United States because of the threat of a new enemy offensive.

U.S. and South Vietnamese officials are known to feel the enemy will try to make good on warnings of new and more intensive attacks in South Vietnam.

A U.S. military spokesman reported Marines killed 201 North Vietnamese in two battles Sunday and one last Friday.

All the fighting centered around Gio Linh, an allied combat base near the eastern end of the demilitarized zone and about three miles south of the zone.

Backed by planes, artillery and tanks, the Marines reported they killed 67 North Vietnamese in the Sunday fighting. Marine losses were given as five killed and 17 wounded.

Fighting near Gio Linh raged all day Friday and the Marines said they killed 134 North Vietnamese while taking losses of five dead and 64 wounded.

Planes and Navy ships have been pounding the northern three miles of the zone, where the North Vietnamese are dug in, and communications leading down from the north in an effort to check the flow of men and weapons.

In the past eight days, U.S. Air Force B52 Stratofortresses alone have dumped 5,000 tons of bombs in the zone and just to the north.

There was little action elsewhere except around Saigon, where South Vietnamese troops launched another of the sweeps that officers believe have been a factor in stalling off new enemy attacks on Saigon.

Striking 25 miles northwest of Saigon, the South Vietnamese uncovered a weapons cache containing a bazooka-type rocket launcher, 130 pounds of rockets, ammunition and claymore mines.

Less than three miles from this operation, the Viet Cong sent 12 mortar rounds into Khien Cuong, capital of Hau Nghia Province, wounding nine civilians.

Thieu's statement announcing his postponement of a trip to Washington reported "reliable information on the preparation by the Communist aggressors for the renewal of their offensives in various areas."

Some thought Thieu was reluctant to leave the country for fear that his rival, Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky might pull off a coup while he is gone.

The statement said, however, that Thieu "has proposed to the president of the United States a meeting for a few days somewhere in the Pacific in forthcoming weeks" to discuss "many important problems."

Informants said the meeting probably will be held in Honolulu some time before the end of July. Thieu had planned to visit President Johnson in June, then had postponed the trip until this month.

Johnson Ends Successful 'Little Summit'

SAN SALVADOR (UPI) — President Johnson left for home today winding up a weekend "Little Summit" meeting with the presidents of the five Central American republics.

Aboard the presidential jetliner with Johnson, his wife and daughter Lucy were the presidents of Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala who will travel to their respective capitals aboard Air Force 1 as Johnson's guests.

The presidential plane lifted into the air from San Salvador's International Airport at 9:59 a.m. (EDT), after brief protocol ceremonies.

The host of the summit meeting, President Fidel Sanchez Hernandez of El Salvador, bade goodbye to each of the presidents. There were no airport speeches.

First stop of Johnson's "shuttlerun" home will be Managua, Nicaragua, where President Anastasio Somoza Jr., will leave the party. There will be brief airport ceremonies.

Other stops will be made at San Jose, Costa Rica; San Pedro Sula, Honduras; and Guatemala City, Guatemala to drop off the presidents of those countries. Brief airport ceremonies are scheduled at each.

Johnson left San Salvador with the cheers of tens of thousands of Salvadoreans still ringing in his ears after a weekend considered by observers to be a triumph of personal diplomacy for the president.

A few in the crowds of El Salvador tossed eggs, paint and curses of "Johnson assassin!"

But tens of thousands of citizens of this tiny coffee-producing nation — including women in rags and children with hunger-swollen bellies — poured into the streets in a weekend of love and reached out a forest of hands for a brief touch of Johnson's fingers.

In the official part of a first U. S. presidential trip to Central America, Johnson told the presidents of El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Guatemala Sunday night, "Our meeting has been fruitful because it has been responsible." He had lent them $65 million for development and education and pushed their economic cooperation.

'Aussie Gunman Smashes Chair To Heat Food

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — A gunman besieged by police for six days today smashed furniture into kindling to heat food for himself, his shotgun teenaged bride and her baby.

The crash and bang of splintering chairs and tables flooded through the windows of the suburban house surrounded by police.

Down the street 100 yards Police Chief Norman Allan and aides huddled in a trailer and tried to figure a way to separate Wallace "Wally" Mellish, 23, his shotgun, automatic rifle, pistols and hand grenades from his wife Beryl, 19, and her son, Leslie, 12 weeks old. Mellish has threatened to kill them if police come any nearer.

Critics who argued police should charge in lest other gunmen get similar ideas got ammunition for their plea. In Auckland, New Zealand, a woman painted her face black, slung a bandolier of bullets around her chest and, waving a shotgun, defied police surrounding her house. Her husband and two young children were believed in the house, police in Auckland said.

In Sydney, police said that maybe they could only wait to telephone Beryl and ask her once more to help them subdue Mellish. A phone call hardly helped Sunday.

Mrs. Mellish, forced to marry at gunpoint at the start of the siege, told the Sydney Daily Mirror by phone: "I didn't know he was like this when I married him."

Mellish underwent psychiatric treatment during imprisonment for burglary. The siege began when police went to the house of Beryl's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Mick Muddle, to question Mellish about some burglaries.

Oregon Blazes Under Control

PRINEVILLE, Ore. (UPI) — Weary firefighters who trailed thousands of acres of fires in the tinder dry central Oregon timberlands during the weekend faced the threat today of more outbreaks.

Two large blazes continued to burn on privately-owned and state-protected pine forests on Squaw Back Ridge near Sisters.

A fire on the north side of the mountain was trailed at 2,200 acres, the state forestry department said. Another blaze had covered 1,800 acres on the south side of the mountain and was burning out of control at last report.

Spokesmen for both the state and U.S. forest service said temperatures climbed into the 90's this morning with humidity going below 15 percent.

More dry lightning strikes were expected to raise the toll of scorched pine stands.

More than 800 men fought fires in ponderosa timber stands and grazing lands in the Ochoco National Forest during the weekend after hundreds of dry lightning strikes ignited the timber.

But fire trails held during the night, a U.S. forestry service spokesman said. The largest blaze covered 3,500 acres about 20 miles east of here. Two other fires covered 380 acres and 315 acres, respectively.

In the Deschutes National Forest, where more than 200 lightning strikes hit during the weekend, all the fires were reportedly in the mop-up stage.

A spokesman said all the fires were either controlled or out.

The 850 acre Pine Mountain blaze, which for a period Saturday threatened the University of Oregon astronomical observatory, near Bend, was trailed and only 10 men were patrolling today.

There were a total of 24 fires at one time in the Ochoco National Forest, a spokesman said, four of them mancaused.

The largest, the Snow Basin fire, crowned in 200-foot jumps Sunday and fire fighters were evacuated from its path. It was reported under control at 3,500 acres today.

Russian Court Gives Oakland Man 5 Years

MOSCOW (UPI) — An American was sentenced today to five years imprisonment for smuggling hashish and currency into the Soviet Union.

Dale Reed Warren, 32, of Oakland was found guilty and sentenced by a court in Tashkent, capital of the Uzbekistan Republic, an American embassy spokesman said.

Warren was expected to appeal.

The court found Warren guilty of smuggling 2189 grams (5.25 pounds) of hashish into the Soviet Union, as well as bringing in 100 roubles ($111) in Soviet currency without declaring it.

Police officials testified Warren had admitted the drug-smuggling charge.

Conviction carries a sentence of three to 10 years.

American consul Samuel Fry flew to Tashkent from Moscow to act as an observer at the trial. A Soviet lawyer hired by Fry represented Warren.

An embassy spokesman said the court specified Warren's imprisonment was to be served in a penal colony for foreigners.

It was the first time such a phrase has been used by a court in the Soviet Union and its meaning was not immediately clear.

Warren has five days in which to appeal.

Gun Law Backers Slated to Testify

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House backers of a ban on all interstate gun sales were going before the House Rules Committee today in an effort to set their measure up for floor action this week.

Some opponents also were among the 15 Congressmen scheduled to testify on the legislation this session.

With this in mind, Democratic leaders tentatively programmed the bill for House floor action later in the week. Meantime, the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee planned a resumption of its own hearings on Gun Legislation today. And the full Senate Judiciary Committee, which has twice deferred action on the administration bill, scheduled another try at a Wednesday meeting.

With Congress seeking to adjourn before the political conventions in August, many more delays would be fatal.

Youth Kills Man After Reported Sexual Assault

CLINTONDALE, N. Y. (AP) — A man State Police identified as a Cub Scout leader in Manhattan was shot to death near this Ulster County community by one of five boys he allegedly lured to his cabin and sexually molested, the State Police reported today.

A State Police spokesman at the South Glens Falls station identified the victim as Carmine DiBiase, who he said was a Scoutmaster for Troop 45 in Manhattan.

A scout spokesman said he was unable to check the information immediately. State Police at Kingston said DiBiase was employed as a printer in White Plains.

The South Glens Falls Station said DiBiase was wanted for attempted sodomy and sexual abuse charges involving a 10-year-old and two 11-year-olds near Warrensburg in Warren County on July 2 and 3.

DiBiase picked up the five boys in New York's Van Courtlandt Park Saturday State Police said, and told them he was a scoutmaster on his way to pick up equipment here.

At his cabin, about a mile and a half from here, DiBiase took out a .22-caliber rifle and fired a shot to frighten the boys, police said.

Police said DiBiase then took clothesline and bound the five boys — four are 13 and one 14 — and then sexually molested them.

Then, according to police, DiBiase untied the 14-year-old and told him to cook dinner. The boy picked up the rifle and shot DiBiase in the stomach, police said, and DiBiase died wrestling for the gun.

Jet Rips Peace of Suburb

Skyhawk Crashes Into Elegant Home Killing Girl, 13

CHICAGO (UPI) — Benjamin Masters and his son Billy, 11, had left the house early in the morning to play golf at the country club. Mrs. Masters was mowing the lawn of their north suburban home in Glenview.

The Masters' daughter Cynthia, 13, was the only one in the house, a $78,000 two-story brick-and-frame structure, when the jet smashed to earth Sunday.

It was a little after 9 o'clock. About a mile southeast of the Masters home at the Glenview Naval Air Base, Reserve Lt. William T. Reinders, 32, on a routine monthly flight, lifted his A4B Skyhawk jet into the air.

Within minutes, the plane began losing power. Reinders, attached to the VA-727 Attack Squadron, radioed the base that he would try to return. But he could not handle the single-engine craft. He ejected and in an instant the plane fell from the sky and into part of the Masters' home in the soft, rich, peaceful suburb.

Cynthia, who had just completed the 7th grade at Glenview Junior High School, was killed. Her charred body was found on the first floor near the sun porch, where the jet hit before landing against an embankment in the back yard and exploding in flames.

Reinders, whose parachute did not open, was thrown into a weeping willow tree near the house and suffered a broken arm and leg. He was taken to the Great Lakes Naval Hospital in serious condition.

A neighbor, Mrs. Thomas Roupas, said she and her husband were having coffee.

"We heard a plane," she said. "I said to him, 'My God, that plane's flying low.' It came right down over our house. Then a loud boom.

"We ran out and saw the whole house in flames. I ran into the yard and heard Mrs. Masters screaming that her daughter was still inside the house. Several neighbors tried to get inside, but the flames drove them off."

"Did the plane hit a house?" the pilot asked one of the dozens of neighbors who had gathered at the Masters' home.

"No," a man replied, sparing the dazed lieutenant the tragic news. But it was not long until he knew what had happened.

The plane, which was destroyed, ripped off several limbs of a tree before crashing. The sun porch and garage were destroyed, and all eight rooms in the house were heavily damaged by fire and water.

U.S. Summary

Hot weather and dry lightning storms threaten timber stands in central Oregon. After thousands of acres of valuable virgin forest have been burned in previous years special attention is paid to the fire watch during this season every year.

Warm, sunny weather favored most of the nation today as temperatures approached the 100 mark in the desert Southwest and parts of the Northwest.

A few scattered thundershowers dampened the western Rockies, the Mississippi Valley and the northern Great Lakes.

Winds up to 51 miles per hour pushed hailstorms across North Dakota Sunday night. Hailstones an inch in diameter broke many car windows in Lubbock, Tex., just before midnight.

After several days of rain in the El Paso area, the Rio Grande spilled over its banks, causing some persons to evacuate their homes and ruining cantaloupe and cotton crops.

Youngsters interested in the program are urged to sign up on Tuesday July 9 at the Main Beach. It is emphasized that prior experience is not a prerequisite for the Sea Cubs.

Urban Crisis Meet Topic

BERKELEY — A working committee was formed today to plan a major conference of California educators on how to deal with the urban crisis and its rural counterpart and to assure equal access to education at all levels.

The meeting, called by UC President Charles J. Hitch, included representatives from 13 educational associations and from nearly all of the state's public and private schools and colleges.

The committee will confer at length with leaders of minority groups and seek nationally prominent experts to join in the three day conference planned for the fall.

Hoag Aide At Meeting

Steven D. Schumacher, supervisor of the department of radiology at Hoag Memorial Hospital in Newport Beach will attend the 40th annual convention the American Society of Radiologic Technologists this month in Los Angeles.

If the car isn't as sharp as the deal, why bother?

See your Chevrolet dealer. He'll give you both. You save not only on the car, but on the extra equipment too. Pick an Impala, say, equipped with a 250-hp V8, Powerglide and whitewalls. You get year-end savings on every car, extra savings on all kinds of extras—now at your Chevrolet dealer's. CHEVROLET

GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE

Here's why our competition is happy the model year is almost over.

It's been awfully tough on other cars in Impala's field this year. You can understand that. What can other dealers say when somebody wants the roomiest car? (That's an Impala 4-Door Sedan. According to the Automotive News Study, the big Chevrolet is roomier than any other car in its field.)

What can they say to questions like "Where's the ignition warning buzzer; the Hide-A-Way windshield wipers; the flush-and-dry rocker panels; the Magic-Mirror acrylic lacquer finish; the Body by Fisher quality?" (Only Impala's got them in its field.)

And what can they say when somebody specifies a speed warning indicator, or light monitoring system? Or wants the lowest priced full-size sport coupe, for instance? (You see, putting you first keeps us first.)

What else can they say? Help!

Nobody can help you like your Chevrolet dealer. CHEVROLET

You get the biggest year-end savings just where you'd expect to.

How to Minimize Tax

Editor's NOTE: Now that the income tax surcharge has become a fact of life, it's time to learn just how much you will have to pay and how to avoid overpayment. Financial columnist Sylvia Porter, working in cooperation with Leon Gold, chief tax expert of the Research Institute of America, answers these questions in a three-part series titled "How to Minimize Your Tax Increase." It begins today.

Of course you are thoroughly aware that your paycheck and profits soon will be hit by a 10 percent income tax surcharge, to be applied from April 1, 1968 for individuals and from Jan. 1, 1968 for corporations and to last through June 30, 1969.

This means that the surcharge for the millions of calendar year individual taxpayers will actually be only 7½ percent for 1968.

BUT YOU'RE the rare exception indeed if you know the fine points of the new law at this stage and have even the vaguest notions about how to minimize the impact of the tax increase on your pocketbook or cash register.

Here, therefore, are key facts and guides for you, compiled in collaboration with Leon Gold, chief tax expert of the Research Institute of America.

— If, as an individual, your regular income tax for 1968 comes to less than $734 on your 1968 tax return which you will file next April, you must find your surcharge in official tables supplied by the Treasury and add it onto your regular tax. You are required to use the tables even though a separate multiplication of your tax by 7½ percent for 1968 might come out to a few pennies less.

— IF YOU ARE among the calendar year individuals with regular taxes of $734 or more, when you prepare your 1968 return, you must figure out your surcharge for yourself by multiplying your regular tax by 7½ percent for '68, and add that onto your regular tax.

As an illustration, say you file a 1968 joint return and show a tax of $673 before figuring the surcharge. A surcharge of 7½ percent of $673 would be $50.48. But since your regular tax is below $734, you must use the tables. The Treasury table applying to you is no. 3 (married persons or surviving spouse filing a joint return). This shows a surcharge of $51 applicable to a tax of $673, giving you a final tax of $724.

But you say you are a married man with a regular tax for 1968 of $2,500. Your surcharge is 7½ percent of $2,500 or $187.50. You must do the multiplying yourself because your tax is at the $734 or more limit.

— IF YOU ARE a low bracket individual taxpayer, you are either exempt from this surcharge or you pay less than the full amount. There is no surcharge for single individuals with $1,000 or less of taxable income; married couples with $2,000 or less; heads of household with $1,500 or less.

— If you have an income just above these amounts, a special transition provision will prevent a sudden tax hike for you. This provision gradually removes the exemption as your income rises beyond the exempt level. It applies to a single taxpayer with a taxable income between $1,000 and $1800; a married taxpayer with an income between $2,000 and $3,760; a head of household with a taxable income between $1,500 and $2,780.

You will find these limitations and the "notch" provision worked into the official tax tables so that you won't have to do your own figuring to arrive at your surcharge.

AS AN illustration, say you are single and your tax from the regular optional tax tables — and before the surcharge — comes to $211. Your surcharge is in the new surcharge table 1 (single person, other than head of household, and married person filing a separate return). This will show a surcharge due of $10 instead of the $15.83 which would be due on a straight 7½ percent. Your final tax is $221.

— If your pay is subject to withholding, your withheld amount will generally be increased by roughly 10 percent.

As an illustration, say you are married, earn $200 a week and have four exemptions. Your weekly withholding will be increased from $23.20 to $25.60, cutting your take-home pay by $2.40.

MANY OF YOU may be under-withheld for 1968 and have to pay an additional final tax or get a smaller-than-expected refund when you file your 1968 return in 1969. The reason is that while your withholding is increased by about 10 percent, it applies for only about half of 1968. This produces roughly a 5 percent increase in taxes prepaid through withholding this year — or 2½ points less than than 7½ percent surcharge for the year 1968.

— If you are an individual who files a declaration of estimated tax, you will have to reflect the surcharge in your payments or declarations due on or after Sept. 16, 1968.

If you are basing your estimate on your prior year's taxes, you must increase it to reflect the surcharge in order to avoid penalty for underpayment of tax.

Next: More key guides on applying the surcharge.

Javelin Keeps Pace With Race Champion

By CARL CARSTENSEN

Keeping pace with a well established competitor, especially a defending champion, is no easy assignment in any area of sports.

Yet this precisely is what American Motors Corporation's new Javelin has accomplished since going racing in the 1968 Trans-American Sedan Championship series.

In the five races since its competitive debut at Sebring, Fla., in March, Javelin has matched defending Trans-Am titlist Mustang in piling up manufacturer's championship points.

Dating from Sebring's 12-hour endurance run, Javelin and Mustang each have accumulated 22 points on the basis of a 9-6-4-3-2-1- point-formula for finishes in each event.

Javelin's racing team, as does its factory-supported competitors, enters two cars in each Trans-Am race. Yet only the car highest in the standings at the finish is awarded points.

George Follmer, of Arcadia, who finished second at the recent Trans-Am at Bridgehampton, N.Y., and Peter Revson, of New York City, are the Havelin team drivers.

The season Follmer and Revson have placed Javelins second on two occasions, third in two other events and fifth in the Trans-Am group at Sebring.

Since the three-hour Trans-Am race at Tulsa, Okla., May 12, Javelin has finished no lower than third among the factory sedans in the over 2-liter category.

That span covers four races and Javelin has totaled 20 manufacturers points to 18 for Mustang. In the overall seasonal standings, Camaro tops the list witth 51 points to 31 for Mustang and 22 for Javelin. Both Camaro and Mustang have run one more race than Javelin.

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT, SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

One out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you – or some beloved member of your family tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have tripled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do with your pay check stopped, but living expenses still going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Presidential Extra Cash Plan that

... Pays you $100.00 a week tax-free cash when you go to the hospital.

Now, Presidential's economy plan enables you to enjoy this protection. Mail the Enrollment Form. We will send you the actual policy to look over at home. No rush. No agent will call or phone you. Take 15 days to decide. Show the policy to a friend, a family adviser first. You lose nothing if you don't want the policy. But if you do want it, you're entitled to Presidential's special low rates described below. So low, you'll find you get protection at a price that's just a fraction of what you'd expect to pay.

Your cash benefits increase each year — at no extra cost to you!

Your cash benefits automatically rise year after year. You get peace of mind so you don't have to worry about rising costs. Your protection automatically increases $3.00 a week each year. The first year you get $100.00 a week. You get $103.00 a week in the second year. $106.00 a week in the third year. $109.00 a week in the fourth year. By the eleventh year, your policy will be worth a full $130.00 a week in benefit payments... at no increase in cost to you! This generous cash reserve protection will belong to you for as long as you keep the policy. You can see that your insurance will be worth much more than the present "face value" of the policy. Certainly, our increased payments to you will help keep pace with rising costs – and best of all...

...The increasing benefits come to you at no extra cost. You still pay the regular low Presidential premium!

What other Plan protects you like this today? What other Plan keeps protecting you against rising living costs in the years ahead without increasing your premiums? And that's not all. This special Presidential Extra Cash Plan (#HP 18L-1067)...

PAYS Up to $10,000.00 CASH for each accident or illness, starting the very first day in the hospital.

PAYS $100.00 A WEEK CASH – if you need a full-time registered nurse when you come home from the hospital – up to 50 weeks.

PAYS $1,000.00 EXTRA CASH for accidental death.

PAYS Up to $2,000.00 CASH for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

PAYS $100.00 A WEEK CASH for each pregnancy, when you go to the hospital, assuming both husband and wife have been enrolled in the Family Plan With Maternity.

PAYS Up to $5,000.00 when a child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness when you are enrolled in the Family Plan.

PAYS you cash benefits that increase each year... to a maximum of $130.00-A-WEEK... at no extra cost to you

NO age limit – no medical examination required

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with the Presidential Extra Cash Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to what you receive from Medicare – or any other health insurance you may have. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to what you receive from Medicare, Presidential pays you $70.00 a week... EVEN FOR 100 WEEKS if necessary! You can receive as much as $7,000.00 for each illness or injury when hospitalized!

... Pays you $100.00 a week CASH for a registered nurse at home.

Yes, in addition to the $100.00 weekly checks we send you during your hospital stay, we pay you an extra $100.00 a week if the doctor says you need a full-time registered nurse to take care of you at home.

How comforting it is to know that – after your stay in the hospital, if you've been there three days or more, you can return home to recuperate and yet not be a burden to your loved ones. Yes, if your doctor says you need a registered nurse full time within 5 days after you come home, we'll send you checks for $100.00 a week – for as long as you need the nurse – even up to 50 weeks. It's like having a reserve of $5,000.00 cash to draw on when you need it. These benefits also increase each year by $3.00 a week. Another exceptional feature you have with Presidential...

... Pays you $100.00 a week cash maternity benefits

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured in the wonderful Family Plan With Maternity for the entire period of the pregnancy, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days – as long as necessary – you get $100.00 a week for every day of your confinement, up to 100 weeks.

All these added cash benefits.

Yes, in addition to $100.00 a week for hospitalization or $100.00 a week maternity benefits and $100.00 a week for a registered nurse at home... you get all this:

Added cash benefits: $1,000.00 cash to your family if death occurs within 90 days from any accidental injury. Think of how handy the cash can be in time of loss. It can take care of burial expenses without burdening your loved ones.

Added cash benefit: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 will bring greater peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefit: Choose either Family Plan... and your children will be covered too! Presidential pays up to $5,000.00 any time your youngster goes to the hospital... for tonsils, appendicitis, or any other illness or injury! Yes, you will receive $50.00 cash, week after week – for as many as 100 weeks, if necessary.

We pay your premiums when you are not able

As a special consideration to you – if you are hospitalized just 6 weeks or more, all premiums that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by Presidential. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, Presidential will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL – TO A MAXIMUM OF 100 WEEKS per confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force – you collect up to $10,000.00 for each confinement!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON

Amazing Low Rates — Money-Back Guarantee

You can now have your first month's protection at the special low rates listed below! But you must act immediately. Your request for this wonderful Income Protection Plan must be mailed on the convenient form below NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT of the date in the Enrollment Form.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your Presidential policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by war or any act of war; mental disorders; intoxicants and narcotics; pregnancy except as provided under the maternity benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will still be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Of course, meanwhile every new condition is immediately covered.

How can these bargain low rates buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But Presidential can now provide you and your entire family with $100.00 a week tax-free Income Protection at special low rates only because we enroll a large number of people at one time – direct by mail! This highly efficient "Mass Enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone – and the savings are passed on to you!

Make your decision carefully

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable x-rays, doctor bills, medicines and drugs that are not covered by your present insurance.

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the deadline date shown in the enrollment form – just a few days from today

Why must you act before the deadline? Because, as mentioned above, we must receive your Enrollment Form the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time.

We mail you the policy as soon as we receive the Enrollment Form. When the policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then – show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant, or banker. Better still – show it to your own insurance man... even though he may very well be working for another insurance company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere – at any price!

Money back guarantee—in case you change your mind

Even after you mail your Enrollment Form below... even after you examine the policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish... even after all this you are still free to return the policy within 15 days and every penny you paid will be refunded at once. There will be no obligation whatever.

Meanwhile, all during the 15 days you are making up your mind—you'll be protected by $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash benefits just as if you had already said "yes." That's right, you will be fully covered all this time for any accident which puts you in the hospital, even if you finally decide to return the policy.

However, after you've seen the policy for yourself, you will surely agree that this is a tremendous value and you'll want to continue this $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash protection under the Plan that's best for you.

THESE 22 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how Presidential's COST OF LIVING INCOME REPLACEMENT HEALTH AND ACCIDENT PLAN gives you the protection you need – at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will my policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
The full amount! You are paid $100.00-A-WEEK cash every single week. And it starts the very first day you are in the hospital. (If you are over 65, you are paid $70.00 a week, in addition to any Medicare benefits you receive.)
2. Will I be paid if I am hospitalized for less than a full week?
You certainly will... regardless of whether you are in the hospital for as short a time as one day... or as long a time as a week, month, year or more.
3. Does this Plan pay me from the first day of hospitalization?
Yes! You receive full cash benefits of $100.00 a week starting the very first day you enter the hospital. The coverage begins when we receive your first premium – that is the day you are covered for any accidents. Sickness coverage begins 30 days after the effective date of the policy.
4. How much do I receive for a Registered Nurse at Home?
$100.00-A-WEEK for up to $5,000.00 after you have been hospitalized for 3 days or more, and your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within 5 days after you leave the hospital. Ten years from now it will have increased to $130.00 a week in benefits... at no extra cost to you!
5. Are there any accidental death benefits?
Yes. $1,000.00 cash is paid to your estate when death occurs any time within 90 days of an accident.
6. Will I be paid extra if I lose a limb or eyesight?
Yes. Presidential pays $1,000.00 for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye; $2,000.00 for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes... when dismemberment occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident.
7. How much do we receive for pregnancies?
If you have the Family Plan With Maternity, you receive $100.00-A-WEEK for each pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in hospital confinement when both husband and wife are enrolled under this plan for the entire period of pregnancy.
8. Suppose I am paid benefits for any sickness or accident. What happens if I am again hospitalized for the same condition?
Don't worry. You still collect $100.00-A-WEEK for a total of 100 weeks. And if you have already resumed full normal activities for just 90 days, it's considered a new confinement, and you can collect for an additional 100 weeks. Of course, any new condition is covered immediately for a full 100 weeks.
9. How may I use these benefit payments?
You may use them in any way you wish – for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses, or anything else. This is entirely up to you.
10. May I apply if I am over 65?
Yes, you may. Folks any age are welcome to apply—there is no age limit! Members over 65 are paid $70.00 a week plus all Medicare benefits.
11. Can I collect from Presidential even if I carry other insurance?
Of course. This plan will pay you in addition to whatever you may receive from any other policies, including Medicare for folks over 65.
12. Why do I need this Presidential Plan in addition to my other hospital and health insurance?
While hospital costs have tripled in recent years, very few people have tripled their insurance. The chances are one in seven that you will need money to take care of all your other expenses, as well as your hospital bills. Your Presidential checks are rushed to you by air mail to use as you see fit.
13. What benefits do my eligible, dependent children get?
If you choose a Family Type Plan, your dependent eligible children, ages 3 months to under 19 years, would receive 50% of all the cash benefits of the Plan (excluding Waiver of Premium).
14. May I add future dependent children to my policy after it is in force?
Yes, indeed, if you have the FAMILY PLAN WITH MATERNITY. Just notify us when they are 3 months old and they will be covered without evidence of insurability and without any additional charge.
15. Will my protection be cancelled because I have too many claims?
No, definitely not! Presidential guarantees never to cancel your protection because you have too many claims or because of advanced age. We also guarantee never to refuse to renew your policy unless the premium is not paid before the end of the 31-day grace period, or unless renewal is declined on all policies of this type in your entire state. (Of course, if deception is used in making application, the policy may be ineffective.)
16. Will my rates be raised as I grow older or if I have too many claims?
No matter how many claims you have, or regardless of how long you keep your policy, your rate will remain the same as it was for your age when you applied. Presidential guarantees never to adjust this rate unless the rates are adjusted on all policies of this type in your entire state.
17. What is not covered by this policy?
The only conditions not covered are those caused by: mental disorders; intoxicants and narcotics; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy Effective Date (during the first 2 years only); act of war. EVERYTHING ELSE IS COVERED—including pregnancy when both husband and wife have been enrolled in the FAMILY PLAN WITH MATERNITY for the entire period of pregnancy.
18. What are the requirements for membership in one of the Presidential Plans?
You must not have been refused any health, hospital or life insurance; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must enroll before midnight of the date in the coupon.
19. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
Because, by enrolling a large number of people at the same time, underwriting, processing and policy issuance costs can be kept at a minimum—and we can pass these savings on to you.
20. Besides the savings, are there other advantages to joining Presidential during this enrollment period?
Yes, there certainly are. A very important one is that you do not need to complete a regular application – just your brief form in the lower left hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no other requirements for eligibility – and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
21. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
Yes, as long as they can meet the few requirements listed under Question 18.
22. How do I get the policy for examination with money-back guarantee?
Just fill out your brief enrollment form and mail it with your first month's premium to The Presidential Life Insurance Company of America, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

Chase Ends in Crash

Cyclist Leads Police Through 5 Cities

By ARTHUR R. VINSEL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A sailor who apparently feared getting a traffic citation in Costa Mesa led police on a siren-screaming chase through five cities Sunday at nearly 100 miles per hour before wrecking his motorcycle in Orange.

Ralph M. Herron, 23, of the USS Canberra, based in San Diego, was booked into Orange County Jail on a variety of traffic charges after being treated for minor injuries.

Costa Mesa Officer Matt Collett lost the suspect in homeward-bound beach traffc on the Newport Freeway when his engine apparently blew a valve during the pursuit.

California Highway Patrol Officer Gerald King was almost matching speeds with the fleeing sailor, but was diverted in the opposite direction by confusing radio traffic describing the chase.

Officer Collett said the chase began about 5 p.m., when he saw Herron swerve onto the dirt shoulder of Newport Boulevard at 21st Street and pass three cars on the right.

Flipping on the red lights and siren, Officer Collett gunned the engine of the new patrol car, at which time Herron looked over his shoulder and sped off, northbound on the boulevard.

Handicapped by traffic while Herron was able to weave in, out and around the slower cars, the patrolman finally lost Herron at the Dyer Road offramp, but units spotted along the freeway ahead where ready to pick up the chase.

The patrol car's engine had also apparently blown a valve during the high speed maneuvering.

California Highway Patrol officer King said he picked up Herron's trail at 17th Street in Santa Ana, but the

Electronic Age

Top Students Use Computers

Balding theoreticians are not the only ones able to use a computer.

Eleven and twelve year olds are being introduced to the electronic marvel in a summer course given by Newport-Mesa Unified School District.

Top mathematics students from throughout Newport Beach and Costa Mesa are brought together at Lincoln Intermediate School, Corona del Mar, where today they used the computer to verify answers to problems.

This mathematics elite is of students who have only completed fifth, sixth or seventh grade.

They never get to see the computer, located in Los Angeles, but it talks to them through a "magic typewriter."

The students ring up the computer in Los Angeles by telephone and then teletype instructions to it. The computer searches its memory for the correct problem solving procedure and types back the answer.

The computer course is paid for by federal grant, part of the $72,762 space science learning program. The grant, which runs through next Jan. 31, is renewable for another two years if federal funds remain available.

Eighth grade science and mathematics students at Lincoln used the computer during the spring.

The Newport-Mesa District, through its federal grant, is one of many users buying time on the central computer. Cost is about $300 per month.

Paul McGillicuddy, who teaches the summer course, says in another 10 or 12 years he believes school districts will own their own computers. It will be used for instruction in the daytime and payroll and other accounting procedures at night, he predicts.

He said students normally tire of sheer computation but using the computer they get a tremendous understanding of a formula by plugging in various quantities for variables and getting instant answers.

"We now have a waiting list for classes next semester," he said. "Lab classes are being scheduled during lunch periods."

Newport Store Figurine Taken

She was no sooner hired, than somebody else snatched her away.

Store manager Donald E. Bridges complained to Newport Beach police that a $100 figurine of an attractive female was stolen from the front of his shop at 110 W. Coast Highway over the weekend.

The almost life-sized figurine was holding a placard which read, "Enter." She was dressed in a short skirt and yachting cap.

Bridges said his cut-out model vanished after someone undid two steel binding straps holding her to concrete stanchions.

Newport's Lifeguard Eyes Mexico

By BRUCE BENSON
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Newport Beach city councilmen tonight may ask their chief lifeguard to pick up his beach towel and slip off to Mexico for a week.

The Mexican seacoast town of Altata is booming with weekend tourists, and they need someone to help them set up a lifeguard service.

Bob Reed, Newport's Marine Safety Director, is being eyed for the job.

The request for Reed's services came from Newport Beach physician Raul Rodriguez, a member of the California Partners for the Alliance for Progress.

The Partners are business and professional men who work privately on projects that complement government development programs.

Rodriguez and the Partners have asked Reed to help set up some kind of modern lifeguard program. It would include the teaching of first-aid and resuscitative methods.

Newport Beach City Manager Harvey L. Hurlburt tonight will recommend to councilmen that Reed be granted a week's leave with pay for the project.

Altata is a town of 2 or 3,000 whose weekend tourist population soars to as many as 15,000 in the summer season.

The great majority of the beachgoers are Mexican tourists, Rodriguez said. The nearest doctor is located in the Sinaloa state capital of Cualican, some 30 miles away.

Reed told the DAILY PILOT he is interested in the challenge.

"I would hope that eventually, we could have them send up some of their personnel, at their expense of course, for training here with our department. Two or three a year would give them a good nucleus of personnel," he said.

Rodriguez said he sought out Reed's services after meeting him about a year ago, and visiting Newport Beach lifeguard headquarters.

"It was on the strength of that, knowing how well organized they are, that we contacted him," Rodriguez said.

CDM SWIMMER SETS NEW MARK

Toni Hewitt of Corona del Mar shattered her American record for the 200-meter butterfly with a 2:22.0 clocking over the weekend at the Santa Clara International swim meet.

Miss Hewitt was one second off the world standard held by Ada Kok of Holland and lowered her U.S. mark by 1.6 seconds. She scored a double victory in the prestigious international affair, coming back Sunday to win the 100 fly with a lifetime best of 1:05.8. See sports, page 21, for complete details.

Legion Lease

Newport Council To Study Action

An American Legion lease on bayfront property and the much discussed tidelands fee proposal are expected to be sent to special committees at tonight's Newport Beach City Council session.

Legionnaires of Post 291 at 215 15th St. are seeking renewal from the city for their waterfront property at 215 15th St.

Councilmen are expected to defer action and refer the matter to a newly formed Goals and Objectives Committee.

Mayor Doreen Marshall noted that the lease "has several years to run and there's no urgency about making a decision."

Also on the agenda is the proposed tidelands fee plan. A specially appointed City Council committee appointed to study the matter will seek council permission to continue their probe.

Councilman Lindsley Parsons, a member of the tidelands committee, has only recently returned from an extended business leave.

The committee is expected to confer sometime soon with marine gasoline operators and others potentially affected by a levy on tidelands users.

Other tidelands committee members are Ed Hirth and Robert Shelton.

Mesa Motorcycle Victim Succumbs to Injuries

Funeral arrangements were pending today for a Costa Mesa motorcyclist, 17, who died of head injuries after colliding with a car in Newport Beach Friday night.

A passenger on the motorcycle luckily escaped with only a cut finger and injured knee, according to a Hoag Memorial Hospital spokesman.

The dead youth was identified as Thomas Sturges Blackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blackman, 212 Wellesley Lane, Costa Mesa.

Police said the teen-ager was riding the cycle westbound on E. Coast Highway about 9:30 p.m. when he attempted to make a left turn onto Jamboree Road.

He collided with a car driven by Linda Jean Delaney, 21, of Narcissus Ave., Newport Beach.

The woman driver and a baby in her car were treated for minor injuries at Hoag and released to their home for an observation period, the hospital said.

Police said the woman was not cited.

The motorcycle passenger who escaped with only a cut was identified as Robert E. Wagner, 17, of 2001 Kewamee Drive. He also was treated and released from Hoag.

A family spokesman said the dead youth would have been a senior this fall at Costa Mesa High School. The boy was admitted to Hoag with critical head injuries, and died the next evening.

Showers Keep Visitors Away

Showers and overcast skies kept the weekend beach crowd to a sparse 98,000 people, Newport Beach lifeguards reported today.

No rescues were logged either day as a flat surf lapped the shores.

The air temperature rose to about 66 degrees both days, equaling the warm 66-degree ocean temperature. The crowd breakdown was an estimated 40,000 people Saturday, and 48,000 Sunday.

Holiday Death Figures Drop

By United Press International

At least 616 persons died in traffic accidents during the long Independence Day weekend, but the toll fell far below preholiday estimates of 700 to 800 fatalities. California led the nation with 45 traffic deaths.

The 102-hour holiday period, which began at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, ended officially last midnight but processing of reports of fatalities slowed the holiday death count.

One of the worst holiday smashups occurred Sunday night as millions of motorists across the nation hurried home from their long weekend. Six persons died in a head-on collision near Winfield, Mo., when one auto attempted to pass a line of cars on an incline.

A National Safety Council spokesman, although encouraged by a casualty toll below last year's, pointed out that last year's Fourth of July holiday death toll of 732 set a record for any summer holiday.

Red Nuclear Advances Pose Threat

WASHINGTON (UPI) — "Growing Soviet strategic nuclear forces" pose the biggest threat to the United States. But this country could survive a first strike and destroy Soviet cities and industrial centers.

On the other hand, if the United States struck the first blow, it could not knock out sufficient missiles and planes to prevent large-scale retaliation.

That is the assessment of Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as given to the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee in April and released, in heavily censored form, during the weekend.

Summing up this country's posture, Wheeler said: "We have the military capability for any level of warfare which, if applied fully, could today destroy any nation as a viable society."

He said the joint chiefs "do not consider that the deliberate initiation of the strategic nuclear attack by the Soviets is likely; however, the possibiltiy of nuclear war through escalation or miscalculation cannot be dismissed."

"Further," Wheeler said, "the United States cannot safely discount the possibility that Soviet leaders might launch a pre-emptive strike if they consider themselves inextricably involved in a major confrontation over critical objectives."

Discussing what might happen if the United States was hit first with nuclear weapons, the general said: "We could not prevent the Soviets from launching their own missiles and getting at least a certain number of their aircraft off the fields and en route to the United States.

"We have, of course, the same and even a greater capability to retaliate in the event of a Soviet first strike. So we are talking here in terms of relative damage, I think. . .

"One of the reasons that I have supported the antiballistic missile as strongly as I have is in order to lower the levels of damage against the United States, faced with this situation, where it is literally impossible to buy sufficient forces at the present level of the arms to destroy the enemy strike capability before it is launched against the United States."

Public debate over the advisability of beginning an ABM system — estimated to cost upwards of 340 million depending on the kind built — has resulted in a tentative decision to proceed.

Held as Hostage

Marine Kidnaps Baby Girl

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — A two-year-old girl was abducted at gunpoint from her mother's arms today by a man who said he would use the child as a hostage to aid his escape from the United States.

Sheriff Gary Miller of Yuba County said an all points bulletin has been issued for Thomas F. Scofield, a 22-year-old AWOL Marine.

Miller said Scofield and his 20-year-old wife, Loretta, kidnaped little Vicki Lynn West after telling her mother, Ellen Murle West, "We need the baby for safe conduct out of the country."

The sheriff said Mrs. West knew Scofield and identified him as the kidnaper.

Mrs. West said Scofield told her that he killed a man in San Francisco. But San Francisco police said they had no report of such a killing.

There were reports that Scofield may be headed for Canada but Miller said: "We don't know where he might be."

Scofield was reported armed with a rifle and .22-caliber pistol and was considered dangerous.

California Highway Patrol headquarters in Sacramento said Scofield was wanted for armed robbery, kidnaping and auto theft. The patrol said CHP stations throughout Northern California had been alerted but that no roadblocks were erected.

A patrol spokesman said Scofield also took $2 from the purse of Vicki's mother.

The pair was reported traveling in a blue 1965 Dodge Dart two-door sedan with a slightly damaged right front fender and a missing gasoline cap.

Scofield was described as about 5-11, brown haired and with the name "Tom" tattooed on his left shoulder.

4th Party Ruled Out

But McCarthy Could Support Someone Else

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says flatly he would not become an independent presidential candidate if he loses the Democratic nomination — but that he could support a fourth party drive by someone else.

McCarthy also indicated Sunday he may abandon his announced hopes of going to Paris to learn first-hand from North Vietnamese diplomats the prospects for settlement of the Vietnam war.

"If I thought that my going was going to interrupt or interfere with current peace negotiations," he said, "I wouldn't go."

The Minnesota senator again refused to say he could support Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as the Democratic presidential nominee and said he could support a fourth party drive under specific conditions.

Such support would be possible, he said, if the independent ticket "was substantial, had good leadership and was presenting the right choice to the people, and if neither of the other two parties was presenting what I thought was a choice that anywhere from a third to a half of the people of this country want to make in 1968."

But McCarthy said with no reservations he would not be the candidate heading such a ticket. Earlier he had said he would not "lead" a fourth party effort.

Humphrey, meanwhile, said he would support McCarthy if the senator became the Democratic presidential nominee. But the vice president said he believes he and Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the candidates on the November ballot.

"If it's Mr. McCarthy, if I have the choice between Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Nixon," Humphrey said, "there isn't any doubt that I will support Mr. McCarthy."

McCarthy was interviewed on NBC's "Meet the Press" and Humphrey on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

Republican Nixon said he will have the edge in November because the Democratic convention "will go the way of the bosses" and Humphrey will be nominated "over the objection of a majority of the Democratic voters."

Nixon said the Democratic majority sentiment was shown in heavy primary votes for McCarthy and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy — and said he, Nixon, outpolled all the Democrats in the primaries.

The former Republican vice president made the comments in a Miami Herald interview.

In other political developments:

—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, GOP presidential bidder, said the Johnson administration's "lack of a national transportation policy is a drag on the economy and an aggravation to everyone. As president I would deal with this mess as a matter of the highest urgency."

—Third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace said it now appears he will be on the November ballot in every state except Ohio, and said he will continue to fight to get on Ohio's ballot.

Policeman Pleads With Distraught Suitor

Twenty-nine-year-old Jerry Ellington held police at bay 90 minutes Friday in Chicago's Cook County Hospital, after seizing a gun from the holster of a policeman on duty there and threatening to kill himself because a girlfriend rejected him. Police Sgt. Jess Valle tried to no avail to get Ellington to hand over the gun. Police finally subdued him by rolling tear gas canisters into the room.

Thieu Asks Johnson Meet

Vietnam Chief Wants to Find Out What's Going On

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam today announced he wants to meet President Johnson somewhere in the Pacific in the next few weeks.

Thieu said he wants to talk with Johnson about military matters and "problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

He gave no details but South Vietnamese leaders have not disguised their skepticism about the value of the U.S.-North Vietnamese talks in Paris, sessions aimed at cooling down the war enough to permit a peace conference.

Thieu said in a communique he wants to meet Johnson for "a few days" to discuss "important and urgent matters."

Thieu also said he is postponing a two-week visit to the United States he had planned for later this month.

The communique said the threat of fresh Communist attacks on Saigon and other points in South Vietnam made the U.S. visit inadvisable now.

In a weekend interview with United Press International, Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky said he believes the Communists will launch the major attack on the capital within the next two months.

Ky predicted the battle would be won against what he called intense guerrilla use of snipers and one and two man bands lodged throughout Saigon.

Thieu's communique said: "There are many important problems which necessitate a direct exchange of views between the national leaders, and cannot suffer a long delay, especially problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

The Saigon regime has been less than avid in its support for American negotiators going into preliminary peace talks with North Vietnamese officials in Paris. Ky said in the weekend interview that the main condition Saigon insists upon in any settlement is a total North Vietnamese withdrawal from South Vietnam. He predicted any agreement would take a long, long time.

Police Jail 15 After Youths Report Beatings

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Fifteen persons were in police custody today after four youths told police they were held prisoner at the Black Congress Hall in south central Los Angeles and beaten by members of a militant black power group.

Officers were taken to the hall by Jerva Harris, who said a bullet fired from the building missed his car as he fled the meeting.

Three youths who said they had been held prisoner for two hours by members of the organization headed by black militant Ron Karenga were found beaten. Tyrone Washington, 18, Felix Pullum, 19, and Gregory Sewell, 19, were treated and released at Morningside Hospital. Harris, who also was beaten, said he would see a private physician.

The four said members of the sect had pistolwhipped them and used them as Karate "dummies."

Fifteen suspects, one a juvenile, were arrested on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon.

Restaurant Robbed

The gods of fortune were smiling on one man and frowning on another over the weekend when a burglar tore open the rear door of Mei's Chinese restaurant at 1505 Mesa Verde Drive East but took nothing, owner Kam F. Yee told Costa Mesa police.

207 Art Works Chosen For All State Exhibit

Three art judges are breathing a lot easier this week.

From 850 works of art submitted by artists all over California, they had the formidable task of choosing 207 to be displayed at the 14th Annual All-California Art Exhibit at the Laguna Beach Art Association Gallery.

The All-California show, sponsored jointly by the Festival of Arts and the Laguna Beach Art Association, will run concurrently with the Festival, from July 12 through August 25.

The three jurors for this major art event were Jason Wong, director of the Long Beach Museum of Art; Adele Bednarz, a La Cienega gallery owner; and Los Angeles artist Richard Haines.

An acrylic "EOS" won a $500 purchase award for Lewis Beken of Los Angeles; the $350 purchase award went to Ronald Pusich of Hollywood for his acrylic "Mary"; and the $200 purchase award went to Jay Maddox of Anaheim for his untitled sculpture of resin and chrome.

Honorable mention awards of $50 apiece went to Lester Henry of Norwalk for his ceramic "Growth"; Robert Partin of Orange for his oil "Voyage"; and Winifred W. Smith of Newport Beach for her acrylic "4 Squares in a Surface."

The Gallery, 307 Cliff Drive, is open from noon to 10 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students with I.D. cards. There is no charge for children if accompanied by an adult.

Rites Planned For Daily Pilot Circulation Man

A military funeral service is scheduled Thursday for Alvin E. Hemmer, 46, a DAILY PILOT circulation department district manager who was fatally stricken Sunday with a heart attack.

The retired U. S. Army sergeant first class, of 2039 Continental Ave., Costa Mesa, died about 7 p.m. at Hoag Memorial Hospital, Newport Beach.

The Rev. Graham Smith, of Vista Community Church, Vista, will preside at the 10:30 a.m. rites at Westminster Memorial Park Thursday.

Mr. Hemmer spent 23½ years in the army, in the medical supply field, and had been employed by the DAILY PILOT for more than two years, working in the West Newport area.

Mr. Hemmer leaves his wife Virginia, a son Allen, 21, who is also a DAILY PILOT district manager, a daughter Kay Francis, 8, his mother, Mrs. Marie Hemmer, of Vista, and sisters Lily M. Benner, of Vista and Louise Hitchcock, of San Marcos.

The Hemmer family traveled widely during Mr. Hemmer's military career, in which he spent duty in Japan, Iran, Formosa and the Philippine Islands as well as in the United States.

He was wounded in South Pacific combat during World War II and held the Purple Heart, as well as many other awards and citations.

2 Youths Find Lost Propeller

The seven-foot long wooden propeller of a Costa Mesa resident was returned to its owner today after Newport Beach police found two teenage boys toting it down the street.

The propeller disappeared over the Fourth of July from a supermarket after Gunnar Haug, of 361 17th St., said he left it outside while he went inside to make a purchase.

He returned five minutes later, and found the $100 propeller gone, he told police.

Officers the next day said they saw two youths lugging the prop along the boulevard, headed in the general direction of Haug's residence.

They said they had read about the missing prop in the DAILY PILOT, and were winging their way to Gunnar's to return it.

Police dismissed the youths, and delivered the property themselves.

Crash Kills Six

WINFIELD, Mo. (UPI) — At least six persons were killed Sunday night in a head-on collision near here when a car attempted to pass a line of autos on a hill.

Two other persons were injured seriously in the crash. Police said all the victims were from St. Louis or nearby Illinois communities.

suspect's burly Harley-Davidson bike was pulling away fast.

"I gave pursuit wide open, periodically giving my location and a description of the suspect," said Officer King.

Herron turned off the Newport Freeway onto the Santiago Boulevard offramp out of King's sight, at which time a patrol car officer radioed that Herron was southbound.

Thinking he meant southbound on the freeway, Officer King slowed, roared through a center aisle opening and sped south again until hearing a new broadcast of Herron's location.

Pursuing officers said the Navyman tried to turn off Santiago Boulevard onto Taft Avenue at too high a speed and the big motorcycle careened off the roadway, spilling him in the dirt.

Herron — who had clutched a wad of weekend clothing between his knees during the chase — was treated for cuts and brusies at Orange County Medical Center and booked into jail.

He is charged with excessive speed., many unsafe lane changes, and reckless driving and was issued a CHP citation for the same offenses when Officer King arrived at the scene.

The chase passed through Costa Mesa, Santa Ana, Tustin, Orange, Villa Park and back into Orange again.

Cong to Seek Volunteers If U.S. Won't Quit War

PARIS (UPI) — The National Liberation Front (NLF), political arm of the Viet Cong, warned today it will ask help from international volunteers if the United States refuses to get out of Vietnam.

The warning by Le Quang Chanh, of the NLF's executive committee, was released in Paris today through North Vietnamese sources.

Quang Chanh delivered the statement in a speech to the International Congress of Jurists on Vietnam meeting in Grenoble Sunday night.

The statement was released as the North Vietnamese delegation to the Paris talks on Vietnam called a news conference, presumably for more propaganda against the United States.

A North Vietnamese spokesman said at the conference the Communists have captured four strategic hills in the Khe Sanh area and were besieging another where the North Vietnamese said privately several allied companies and possibly a battalion were surrounded.

The spokesman listed the captured hills as 845, 832, 471 and 552 and said hill 689 was encircled. The numbers are based on the altitude of the hills in meters above sea level since few if any have names.

Saigon dispatches have reported U.S. troops holding other hills in the area including 881 north and 881 south but military sources said they never heard of those mentioned by the Communists and said they seriously doubted any could be called "important strategic positions."

The next session of the Paris talks was scheduled for Wednesday.

On Drug Charge Pair Arrested

Two 21-year-old men were arrested on suspicion of marijuana possession Friday after Laguna Beach police responded to a complaint that a rifle was being brandished at Cress Street and Glenneyre.

Police arrested Larry Paul Sturges, 21, of 1826 Tradewind Lane, Newport Beach, and John Roni Wakula, 21, of 648 Beach St., Costa Mesa.

Lt. Robert McMurray said officers alleged they found two plastic bags of marijuana in the pocket of a coat lying in the men's car and found a .22 caliber rifle on the back seat.

Chase Ends in Crash

Cyclist Leads Police Through 5 Cities

By ARTHUR R. VINSEL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A sailor who apparently feared getting a traffic citation in Costa Mesa led police on a siren-screaming chase through five cities Sunday at nearly 100 miles per hour before wrecking his motorcycle in Orange.

Ralph M. Herron, 23, of the USS Canberra, based in San Diego, was booked into Orange County Jail on a variety of traffic charges after being treated for minor injuries.

Costa Mesa Officer Matt Collett lost the suspect in homeward-bound beach traffc on the Newport Freeway when his engine apparently blew a valve during the pursuit.

California Highway Patrol Officer Gerald King was almost matching speeds with the fleeing sailor, but was diverted in the opposite direction by confusing radio traffic describing the chase.

Officer Collett said the chase began about 5 p.m., when he saw Herron swerve onto the dirt shoulder of Newport Boulevard at 21st Street and pass three cars on the right.

Flipping on the red lights and siren, Officer Collett gunned the engine of the new patrol car, at which time Herron looked over his shoulder and sped off, northbound on the boulevard.

Handicapped by traffic while Herron was able to weave in, out and around the slower cars, the patrolman finally lost Herron at the Dyer Road offramp, but units spotted along the freeway ahead where ready to pick up the chase.

The patrol car's engine had also apparently blown a valve during the high speed maneuvering.

California Highway Patrol officer King said he picked up Herron's trail at 17th Street in Santa Ana, but the

Before Planners

Residents Slate Fight on Tract

Hundreds of residents opposed to a housing development which would bite into the Mesa Verde Country Club golf course are expected to turn out for the Costa Mesa Planning Commission meeting tonight.

Chances are slim for anything however, but a tabling of the zone change request and tentative tract maps submitted by the R. A. Watt Co., owners of the private club, in the 7:30 o'clock session.

Developer Wally Gayner and the Watt firm want to reconsider their planned 91-lot housing tract, based on bitter reaction by area homeowners and advice by the city Planning Department.

If the Planning Commission agrees to table the matter for the present time, dissidents may still speak against the 19.5 acre project if they wish.

Four primary points of concern are listed as reason for giving the owners and the developer a chance to revise the project in a staff report prepared to the commission:

—Traffic problems may arise, specifically on Lanai Drive, which is proposed for extension along with the development of one of two clumps of housing jutting into the golf course itself, perhaps carrying as much 500 cars per day.

—Quality, price and lot sizes in the proposed development are also questionable, compared to those in the surrounding area and could have a deleterious effect for the entire area.

—Location of the tract within the golf course could slow the pace of play, create a hazard due to wildly smacked balls, and could hamper the flow of the course itself.

—Size of the 6,000-square-foot lots versus the houses is also too small, which would leave too little play area and probably send children marauding out onto the course.

Flyers sent out to 3,000 area homes by the militant Mesa Verde Homeowners Association say the homes would bring in 273 children, to burden Balearic School, where double sessions are already set.

The property must be rezoned from I & R, institutional and recreational use, to R-1, for single family homes, before any possible development can take place.

This is the request submitted by Gayner and the Watt Co., but it is doubtful the Planning Commission will take action on a recommendation to the City Council tonight.

Police Await Test Results In Mesa Death

Results of laboratory tests on evidence in the murder case involving the wife of Costa Mesa City Councilman George A. Tucker should be in police hands sometime this week.

In the meantime, Mrs. Irene M. Tucker, 37, of 1642 Minorca Drive, is in the Orange County Medical Center psychiatric ward for examination by two state mental health experts.

Judge William Speirs last Friday appointed the psychiatrists, one from Fairview and one from Metropolitan state hospitals, to examine Mrs. Tucker and report their findings July 22 in Superior Court.

Mrs. Tucker is accused of the knife slaying of Mrs. Harriett Westphal, 68, of 1646 Minorca Drive, after an apparent next-door-neighbor incident 10 days ago.

The Orange County Sheriff's Crime Lab staff has so far been unable to pin down identify of the death weapon, although a tray of kitchen utensils from the Tucker home — including butcher knives — has been intricately examined for blood traces.

Electronic Age

Top Students Use Computers

Balding theoreticians are not the only ones able to use a computer.

Eleven and twelve year olds are being introduced to the electronic marvel in a summer course given by Newport-Mesa Unified School District.

Top mathematics students from throughout Newport Beach and Costa Mesa are brought together at Lincoln Intermediate School, Corona del Mar, where today they used the computer to verify answers to problems.

This mathematics elite is of students who have only completed fifth, sixth or seventh grade.

They never get to see the computer, located in Los Angeles, but it talks to them through a "magic typewriter."

The students ring up the computer in Los Angeles by telephone and then teletype instructions to it. The computer searches its memory for the correct problem solving procedure and types back the answer.

The computer course is paid for by federal grant, part of the $72,762 space science learning program. The grant, which runs through next Jan. 31, is renewable for another two years if federal funds remain available.

Eighth grade science and mathematics students at Lincoln used the computer during the spring.

The Newport-Mesa District, through its federal grant, is one of many users buying time on the central computer. Cost is about $300 per month.

Paul McGillicuddy, who teaches the summer course, says in another 10 or 12 years he believes school districts will own their own computers. It will be used for instruction in the daytime and payroll and other accounting procedures at night, he predicts.

He said students normally tire of sheer computation but using the computer they get a tremendous understanding of a formula by plugging in various quantities for variables and getting instant answers.

"We now have a waiting list for classes next semester," he said. "Lab classes are being scheduled during lunch periods."

Holiday Death Figures Drop

By United Press International

At least 616 persons died in traffic accidents during the long Independence Day weekend, but the toll fell far below preholiday estimates of 700 to 800 fatalities. California led the nation with 45 traffic deaths.

The 102-hour holiday period, which began at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, ended officially last midnight but processing of reports of fatalities slowed the holiday death count.

One of the worst holiday smashups occurred Sunday night as millions of motorists across the nation hurried home from their long weekend. Six persons died in a head-on collision near Winfield, Mo., when one auto attempted to pass a line of cars on an incline.

A National Safety Council spokesman, although encouraged by a casualty toll below last year's, pointed out that last year's Fourth of July holiday death toll of 732 set a record for any summer holiday.

Held as Hostage

Marine Kidnaps Baby Girl

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (UPI) — A two-year-old girl was abducted at gunpoint from her mother's arms today by a man who said he would use the child as a hostage to aid his escape from the United States.

Sheriff Gary Miller of Yuba County said an all points bulletin has been issued for Thomas F. Scofield, a 22-year-old AWOL Marine.

Miller said Scofield and his 20-year-old wife, Loretta, kidnaped little Vicki Lynn West after telling her mother, Ellen Murle West, "We need the baby for safe conduct out of the country."

The sheriff said Mrs. West knew Scofield and identified him as the kidnaper.

Mrs. West said Scofield told her that he killed a man in San Francisco. But San Francisco police said they had no report of such a killing.

There were reports that Scofield may be headed for Canada but Miller said: "We don't know where he might be."

Scofield was reported armed with a rifle and .22-caliber pistol and was considered dangerous.

California Highway Patrol headquarters in Sacramento said Scofield was wanted for armed robbery, kidnaping and auto theft. The patrol said CHP stations throughout Northern California had been alerted but that no roadblocks were erected.

A patrol spokesman said Scofield also took $2 from the purse of Vicki's mother.

The pair was reported traveling in a blue 1965 Dodge Dart two-door sedan with a slightly damaged right front fender and a missing gasoline cap.

Scofield was described as about 5-11, brown haired and with the name "Tom" tattooed on his left shoulder.

Mesa Motorcycle Victim Succumbs to Injuries

Funeral arrangements were pending today for a Costa Mesa motorcyclist, 17, who died of head injuries after colliding with a car in Newport Beach Friday night.

A passenger on the motorcycle luckily escaped with only a cut finger and injured knee, according to a Hoag Memorial Hospital spokesman.

The dead youth was identified as Thomas Sturges Blackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Blackman, 212 Wellesley Lane, Costa Mesa.

Police said the teen-ager was riding the cycle westbound on E. Coast Highway about 9:30 p.m. when he attempted to make a left turn onto Jamboree Road.

He collided with a car driven by Linda Jean Delaney, 21, of Narcissus Ave., Newport Beach.

The woman driver and a baby in her car were treated for minor injuries at Hoag and released to their home for an observation period, the hospital said.

Police said the woman was not cited.

The motorcycle passenger who escaped with only a cut was identified as Robert E. Wagner, 17, of 2001 Kewamee Drive. He also was treated and released from Hoag.

A family spokesman said the dead youth would have been a senior this fall at Costa Mesa High School. The boy was admitted to Hoag with critical head injuries, and died the next evening.

4th Party Ruled Out

But McCarthy Could Support Someone Else

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says flatly he would not become an independent presidential candidate if he loses the Democratic nomination — but that he could support a fourth party drive by someone else.

McCarthy also indicated Sunday he may abandon his announced hopes of going to Paris to learn first-hand from North Vietnamese diplomats the prospects for settlement of the Vietnam war.

"If I thought that my going was going to interrupt or interfere with current peace negotiations," he said, "I wouldn't go."

The Minnesota senator again refused to say he could support Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as the Democratic presidential nominee and said he could support a fourth party drive under specific conditions.

Such support would be possible, he said, if the independent ticket "was substantial, had good leadership and was presenting the right choice to the people, and if neither of the other two parties was presenting what I thought was a choice that anywhere from a third to a half of the people of this country want to make in 1968."

But McCarthy said with no reservations he would not be the candidate heading such a ticket. Earlier he had said he would not "lead" a fourth party effort.

Humphrey, meanwhile, said he would support McCarthy if the senator became the Democratic presidential nominee. But the vice president said he believes he and Republican Richard M. Nixon will be the candidates on the November ballot.

"If it's Mr. McCarthy, if I have the choice between Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Nixon," Humphrey said, "there isn't any doubt that I will support Mr. McCarthy."

McCarthy was interviewed on NBC's "Meet the Press" and Humphrey on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

Republican Nixon said he will have the edge in November because the Democratic convention "will go the way of the bosses" and Humphrey will be nominated "over the objection of a majority of the Democratic voters."

Nixon said the Democratic majority sentiment was shown in heavy primary votes for McCarthy and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy — and said he, Nixon, outpolled all the Democrats in the primaries.

The former Republican vice president made the comments in a Miami Herald interview.

In other political developments:

—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, GOP presidential bidder, said the Johnson administration's "lack of a national transportation policy is a drag on the economy and an aggravation to everyone. As president I would deal with this mess as a matter of the highest urgency."

—Third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace said it now appears he will be on the November ballot in every state except Ohio, and said he will continue to fight to get on Ohio's ballot.

Policeman Pleads With Distraught Suitor

Twenty-nine-year-old Jerry Ellington held police at bay 90 minutes Friday in Chicago's Cook County Hospital, after seizing a gun from the holster of a policeman on duty there and threatening to kill himself because a girlfriend rejected him. Police Sgt. Jess Valle tried to no avail to get Ellington to hand over the gun. Police finally subdued him by rolling tear gas canisters into the room.

Thieu Asks Johnson Meet

Vietnam Chief Wants to Find Out What's Going On

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam today announced he wants to meet President Johnson somewhere in the Pacific in the next few weeks.

Thieu said he wants to talk with Johnson about military matters and "problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

He gave no details but South Vietnamese leaders have not disguised their skepticism about the value of the U.S.-North Vietnamese talks in Paris, sessions aimed at cooling down the war enough to permit a peace conference.

Thieu said in a communique he wants to meet Johnson for "a few days" to discuss "important and urgent matters."

Thieu also said he is postponing a two-week visit to the United States he had planned for later this month.

The communique said the threat of fresh Communist attacks on Saigon and other points in South Vietnam made the U.S. visit inadvisable now.

In a weekend interview with United Press International, Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky said he believes the Communists will launch the major attack on the capital within the next two months.

Ky predicted the battle would be won against what he called intense guerrilla use of snipers and one and two man bands lodged throughout Saigon.

Thieu's communique said: "There are many important problems which necessitate a direct exchange of views between the national leaders, and cannot suffer a long delay, especially problems relating to the peace explorations and joint defense efforts in the present struggle."

The Saigon regime has been less than avid in its support for American negotiators going into preliminary peace talks with North Vietnamese officials in Paris. Ky said in the weekend interview that the main condition Saigon insists upon in any settlement is a total North Vietnamese withdrawal from South Vietnam. He predicted any agreement would take a long, long time.

Wails in Mails Over Mailing Of Post Cards

There were wails in the mails at the Costa Mesa Civic Center today.

One came on one of 200,000 color postcards purchased by the city and community groups, to commemorate Costa Mesa's 15th Crystal Anniversary celebrated the last weekend in June.

"This has got to be the most ridiculous squandering of our tax dollars you've thought of yet," wrote Guy L. Bennett, of 1180 Atlanta Way, in a heavy, firm hand.

The City Council some weeks ago allocated funds for its share of the approximately $5,000 total tab, placing a $1,600 limit on the expenditure.

The other beef concerned the Costa Mesa Golf and Country Club, pictured prominently on the postcards, which were mailed five-in-a-packet, to 16,000 city residents.

Norval W. Craig, of 574 Joann St., which lies adjacent to the course, said stray golf balls have broken three windows in one week and asked for recompense.

Restaurant Robbed

The gods of fortune were smiling on one man and frowning on another over the weekend when a burglar tore open the rear door of Mel's Chinese restaurant at 1505 Mesa Verde Drive East but took nothing, owner Kam F. Yee told Costa Mesa police.

Cong to Seek Volunteers If U.S. Won't Quit War

PARIS (UPI) — The National Liberation Front (NLF), political arm of the Viet Cong, warned today it will ask help from international volunteers if the United States refuses to get out of Vietnam.

The warning by Le Quang Chanh, of the NLF's executive committee, was released in Paris today through North Vietnamese sources.

Quang Chanh delivered the statement in a speech to the International Congress of Jurists on Vietnam meeting in Grenoble Sunday night.

The statement was released as the North Vietnamese delegation to the Paris talks on Vietnam called a news conference, presumably for more propaganda against the United States.

A North Vietnamese spokesman said at the conference the Communists have captured four strategic hills in the Khe Sanh area and were besieging another where the North Vietnamese said privately several allied companies and possibly a battalion were surrounded.

The spokesman listed the captured hills as 845, 832, 471 and 552 and said hill 689 was encircled. The numbers are based on the altitude of the hills in meters above sea level since few if any have names.

Saigon dispatches have reported U.S. troops holding other hills in the area including 881 north and 881 south but military sources said they never heard of those mentioned by the Communists and said they seriously doubted any could be called "important strategic positions."

The next session of the Paris talks was scheduled for Wednesday.

Fullerton Barber Arrested in Mesa

A Fullerton barber was arrested early Sunday after police who checked why he was rummaging in the trunk of his car at a Costa Mesa bowling alley claimed they discovered marijuana and a gun in the vehicle.

James W. Mee, 21, was spotted outside Kona Lanes, at 2699 Harbor Blvd., and patrolmen checked to see if the vehicle was his own, due to a large number of car burglaries in the area.

The vehicle did belong to him, said officers John Stoneback and Frank Jordan but — they believe — so did a .38 caliber revolver and two marijuana cigarettes found inside.

CHASE . . .

suspect's burly Harley-Davidson bike was pulling away fast.

"I gave pursuit wide open, periodically giving my location and a description of the suspect," said Officer King.

Herron turned off the Newport Freeway onto the Santiago Boulevard offramp out of King's sight, at which time a patrol car officer radioed that Herron was southbound.

Thinking he meant southbound on the freeway, Officer King slowed, roared through a center aisle opening and sped south again until hearing a new broadcast of Herron's location.

Pursuing officers said the Navyman tried to turn off Santiago Boulevard onto Taft Avenue at too high a speed and the big motorcycle careened off the roadway, spilling him in the dirt.

Herron — who had clutched a wad of weekend clothing between his knees during the chase — was treated for cuts and brusies at Orange County Medical Center and booked into jail.

He is charged with excessive speed., many unsafe lane changes, and reckless driving and was issued a CHP citation for the same offenses when Officer King arrived at the scene.

The chase passed through Costa Mesa, Santa Ana, Tustin, Orange, Villa Park and back into Orange again.

In the Wind

The Fourth of July is always a work day around my home because usually it's an extra day to get done some of the chores which remain from last weekend.

Thursday the work went on as usual and after a long day of digging and laying bricks there was the traditional barbeque and later the fireworks.

Actually working on this holiday is a tradition handed down for a few generations in the family and one I detested as a youngster. Thursday, remembering how I hated to work on this holiday as a youngster, I asked the boys if they knew why we work at home on Independence Day.

"It's because this is how we became independent and free," my son George said without hesitation. George is 10-years-old. "If the pioneers and the people who fought in the Revolution had not worked so hard we might not be free and independent today."

"Flags are fine and wonderful, but it took sweat to build this country and by working on our home on the Fourth, we are reminded that it will take a lot of work in the future for us to keep our country free and strong," chimed in Steve who is three years older than George.

"Christopher, who at 7 is not too interested in working at any time," said that he didn't know about all this country and freedom business, but he did know that a fellow could eat twice as much chicken and pie after working hard all day." As usual, the girls were busy cooking.

I've never bothered to explain to the youngsters why working on our home is a family tradition for the Fourth, but there are some things I guess you don't need to tell the youngsters.

It's sort of as George pointed out, "If a guy grows up proud of his home because he worked to make it nice, he's not afraid to be proud of his country and is willing to do what he can to make it better — every day, not just on a holiday."

Oregon Blazes Under Control

PRINEVILLE, Ore. (UPI) — Weary firefighters who trailed thousands of acres of fires in the tinder dry central Oregon timberlands during the weekend faced the threat today of more outbreaks.

Two large blazes continued to burn on privately-owned and state-protected pine forests on Squaw Back Ridge near Sisters.

A fire on the north side of the mountain was trailed at 2,200 acres, the state forestry department said. Another blaze had covered 1,800 acres on the south side of the mountain and was burning out of control at last report.

Spokesmen for both the state and U.S. forest service said temperatures climbed into the 90's this morning with humidity going below 15 percent.

More dry lightning strikes were expected to raise the toll of scorched pine stands.

More than 800 men fought fires in ponderosa timber stands and grazing lands in the Ochoco National Forest during the weekend after hundreds of dry lightning strikes ignited the timber.

But fire trails held during the night, a U.S. forestry service spokesman said. The largest blaze covered 3,500 acres about 20 miles east of here. Two other fires covered 380 acres and 315 acres, respectively.

In the Deschutes National Forest, where more than 200 lightning strikes hit during the weekend, all the fires were reportedly in the mop-up stage.

A spokesman said all the fires were either controlled or out.

The 850 acre Pine Mountain blaze, which for a period Saturday threatened the University of Oregon astronomical observatory, near Bend, was trailed and only 10 men were patrolling today.

There were a total of 24 fires at one time in the Ochoco National Forest, a spokesman said, four of them man-caused.

The largest, the Snow Basin fire, crowned in 200-foot jumps Sunday and fire fighters were evacuated from its path. It was reported under control at 3,500 acres today.

Russian Court Gives Oakland Man 5 Years

MOSCOW (UPI) — An American was sentenced today to five years imprisonment for smuggling hashish and currency into the Soviet Union.

Dale Reed Warren, 32, of Oakland was found guilty and sentenced by a court in Tashkent, capital of the Uzbekistan Republic, an American embassy spokesman said.

Warren was expected to appeal.

The court found Warren guilty of smuggling 2189 grams (5.25 pounds) of hashish into the Soviet Union, as well as bringing in 100 roubles ($111) in Soviet currency without declaring it.

Police officials testified Warren had admitted the drug-smuggling charge.

Conviction carries a sentence of three to 10 years.

American consul Samuel Fry flew to Tashkent from Moscow to act as an observer at the trial. A Soviet lawyer hired by Fry represented Warren.

An embassy spokesman said the court specified Warren's imprisonment was to be served in a penal colony for foreigners.

It was the first time such a phrase has been used by a court in the Soviet Union and its meaning was not immediately clear.

Warren has five days in which to appeal.

Gun Law Backers Slated to Testify

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House backers of a ban on all interstate gun sales were going before the House Rules Committee today in an effort to set their measure up for floor action this week.

Some opponents also were among the 15 Congressmen scheduled to testify on the legislation this session.

With this in mind, Democratic leaders tentatively programmed the bill for House floor action later in the week. Meantime, the Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee planned a resumption of its own hearings on Gun Legislation today. And the full Senate Judiciary Committee, which has twice deferred action on the administration bill, scheduled another try at a Wednesday meeting.

With Congress seeking to adjourn before the political conventions in August, many more delays would be fatal.

Youth Kills Man After Reported Sexual Assault

CLINTONDALE, N. Y. (AP) — A man State Police identified as a Cub Scout leader in Manhattan was shot to death near this Ulster County community by one of five boys he allegedly lured to his cabin and sexually molested, the State Police reported today.

A State Police spokesman at the South Glens Falls station identified the victim as Carmine DiBiase, who he said was a Scoutmaster for Troop 45 in Manhattan.

A scout spokesman said he was unable to check the information immediately. State Police at Kingston said DiBiase was employed as a printer in White Plains.

The South Glens Falls Station said DiBiase was wanted for attempted sodomy and sexual abuse charges involving a 10-year-old and two 11-year-olds near Warrensburg in Warren County on July 2 and 3.

DiBiase picked up the five boys in New York's Van Courtlandt Park Saturday State Police said, and told them he was a scoutmaster on his way to pick up equipment here.

At his cabin, about a mile and a half from here, DiBiase took out a .22-caliber rifle and fired a shot to frighten the boys, police said.

Police said DiBiase then took clothesline and bound the five boys — four are 13 and one 14 — and then sexually molested them.

Then, according to police, DiBiase untied the 14-year-old and told him to cook dinner. The boy picked up the rifle and shot DiBiase in the stomach, police said, and DiBiase died wrestling for the gun.

Jet Rips Peace of Suburb

Skyhawk Crashes Into Elegant Home Killing Girl, 13

CHICAGO (UPI) — Benjamin Masters and his son Billy, 11, had left the house early in the morning to play golf at the country club. Mrs. Masters was mowing the lawn of their north suburban home in Glenview.

The Masters' daughter Cynthia, 13, was the only one in the house, a $78,000 two-story brick-and-frame structure, when the jet smashed to earth Sunday.

It was a little after 9 o'clock. About a mile southeast of the Masters home at the Glenview Naval Air Base, Reserve Lt. William T. Reinders, 32, on a routine monthly flight, lifted his A4B Skyhawk jet into the air.

Within minutes, the plane began losing power. Reinders, attached to the VA-727 Attack Squadron, radioed the base that he would try to return. But he could not handle the single-engine craft. He ejected and in an instant the plane fell from the sky and into part of the Masters' home in the soft, rich, peaceful suburb.

Cynthia, who had just completed the 7th grade at Glenview Junior High School, was killed. Her charred body was found on the first floor near the sun porch, where the jet hit before landing against an embankment in the back yard and exploding in flames.

Reinders, whose parachute did not open, was thrown into a weeping willow tree near the house and suffered a broken arm and leg. He was taken to the Great Lakes Naval Hospital in serious condition.

A neighbor, Mrs. Thomas Roupas, said she and her husband were having coffee.

"We heard a plane," she said. "I said to him, 'My God, that plane's flying low.' It came right down over our house. Then a loud boom.

"We ran out and saw the whole house in flames. I ran into the yard and heard Mrs. Masters screaming that her daughter was still inside the house. Several neighbors tried to get inside, but the flames drove them off."

"Did the plane hit a house?" the pilot asked one of the dozens of neighbors who had gathered at the Masters' home.

"No," a man replied, sparing the dazed lieutenant the tragic news. But it was not long until he knew what had happened.

The plane, which was destroyed, ripped off several limbs of a tree before crashing. The sun porch and garage were destroyed, and all eight rooms in the house were heavily damaged by fire and water.

U.S. Summary

Hot weather and dry lightning storms threaten timber stands in central Oregon. After thousands of acres of valuable virgin forest have been burned in previous years special attention is paid to the fire watch during this season every year.

Warm, sunny weather favored most of the nation today as temperatures approached the 100 mark in the desert Southwest and parts of the Northwest.

A few scattered thundershowers dampened the western Rockies, the Mississippi Valley and the northern Great Lakes.

Winds up to 51 miles per hour pushed hailstorms across North Dakota Sunday night. Hailstones an inch in diameter broke many car windows in Lubbock, Tex., just before midnight.

After several days of rain in the El Paso area, the Rio Grande spilled over its banks, causing some persons to evacuate their homes and ruining cantaloupe and cotton crops.

AFTERMATH OF FLOOD — El Paso resident starts to clean up after record flood over the weekend. Thousands of residents were forced from their homes with damage running into millions of dollars. Some 40 homes were destroyed and hundreds of persons were evacuated in Juarez. At last count, five deaths were reported.

Paris Police Seize School

PARIS (UPI) — Police before dawn today seized the University of Paris medical school, the last major Paris building held by rebel students since May.

Police also seized three occupied university buildings at Toulouse. Only a few scattered university buildings around Paris and the provinces still remained occupied.

The four-story marble-fronted medical building on the Rue Des Saint-Peres in the heart of the Paris Latin Quarter fell without a struggle.

Young doctors and medical students in the building had vowed they would hold out there throughout the summer, or until major changes were made in the policies of the school.

The new seizures followed the fall of the Sorbonne to police and ousting of students from most other university buildings they had occupied during the May revolt.

The government appeared anxious to head off the start of a "critical university" summer school — which was designed to serve as a forum for discussion of educational and political reform.

Medical school occupants had awaited the arrival of the police since Friday. A plan to put up a stiff fighting resistance was abandoned during the weekend, school sources said.

At one point, students were making molotov cocktails and fashioning other weapons to defend the medical school.

However, armed police took the building without a struggle.

They arrested 17 youths, including four girls.

$4 Million in Damage

Five Dead in Texas Floods

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Torrential weekend downpours of up to 6.25 inches—almost as much as the average annual rainfall—claimed five lives and caused widespread flooding in El Paso and Juarez just across the Rio Grande in Mexico.

An estimated 40 homes were swept away by floodwaters in Juarez and 125 persons were evacuated. The rainstorms, termed the worst since 1913, caused an estimated $4 million in damage at Juarez.

Flood waters temporarily halted the international street car line which runs between El Paso and Juarez. Several cars were stranded on El Paso streets and the car barns were under water.

El Paso City Engineer Charles Davis said it will be several days before an assessment can be made of flood damages in the city.

Rafael Reyes, 41, of Canutillo, died when his car skidded on a wet El Paso street and overturned. Four others died in Juarez during the downpours — one youth was killed by a bolt of lightning and three other persons drowned.

Asst. Police Chief Ted Vogel said 45 persons were evacuated from their homes in El Paso by police Saturday. Trucks from nearby Ft. Bliss evacuated several dozen more.

Dozens of homes were damaged as flood waters three feet deep swept low sections of El Paso and rocks and silt rolled down from Mt. Franklin.

Silt piled up two feet deep in some stores and the El Paso fire department was kept busy Sunday pumping water from store and home basements.

"If we don't get any more rain, we'll be in real good shape," Police Lt. R. C. Moeller said late Sunday night. "We are pretty well cleaned up now. We still have some people who haven't returned home because their houses are still waterlogged. Quite a few streets have been blocked by mud and debris but we have them all open now."

Skies were still cloudy over El Paso and Juarez today although the rains had stopped. The Texas Experimental Station near El Paso during the three-day period recorded 6.25 inches — only one inch less than El Paso's annual rainfall.

"The ground here just can't absorb 3½ inches in 24 hours," El Paso Mayor Judson Williams said.

The heavy rains caused heavy flooding downstream on the Rio Grande in the vicinity of Presidio.

"The Rio Grande is way out of its banks around Presidio," Sheriff Rogelio Brito said. "Most of the overflow water is in about three miles of good farm land growing cotton and cantaloupe."

The sheriff said the flood was causing a $1-million loss to crops around Presidio.

The Rio Grande reached five feet above flood stage at Presidio Sunday afternoon but no homes were in danger and highways remained open.

U.N. Charges North Korea With 22 Truce Violations

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UPI) — The United Nations command today accused Communist North Korea of violating the truce line with South Korea 22 times since June 26 and said it was "a premeditated plan of violence and intrusion."

Maj. Gen. Gilbert Woodward, the U. S. Army's senior UNC delegate to the Korean Armistice Commission, made the charge at the 272nd meeting of the commission at the truce village of Panmunjom.

Woodward also accused North Vietnam of equipping its armed forces "far out of proportion to that required for defense."

Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-Kuk, the Communists' chief delegate, rejected the charge and had some of his own. He said UNC troops fired 6,500 rounds of ammunition into Communist territory on nine occasions in the past 10 days.

He also said a UNC agent he identified as Yoon Yong-Shik, a South Korean, sneaked into North Korea and was captured June 28.

Woodward told Pak all the North Korean intrusions were thwarted.

"A close look at the pattern of recent North Korean acts of violence along the Demilitarized Zone indicates that North Korea is possibly following a premeditated plan of violence and intrusion," Woodward said.

Woodward also said North Korea has an army of 345,000 men equipped with sophisticated weapons that are "far out of proportion to that required for defense."

Woodward accused the Communists of building up their military strength in violation of the armistice agreement.

Red China's Nuclear Force Ready by 1972

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — By 1972 Communist China will be deploying nuclear armed missiles targeted on U.S. cities, a detailed study for the government indicates.

Paradoxically, this nuclear war capability might reduce the chances of a confrontation, according to the report, prepared by a group of leading China experts.

A draft of the unpublished report has been circulated among government officials and made available to UPI Sunday. It was prepared by a 13-member team of researchers at the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace at Stanford University for the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.

The group included top ranking experts on the military, political and economic affairs of Red China. Dr. Yuan-Li Wu, author of a number of books on the Chinese economy, was the project director.

The experts said the capability of waging nuclear war against U.S. cities will persuade the Chinese that they are safe from attack. Thus, they may be willing to agree to some arms control steps such as a "no first use" pact with neighboring countries.

Having to devise controls for their own widely dispersed nuclear missile system, they will be aware of the risk of accidental war. This could lead to establishment of a Peking-Washington "hot line" to avoid unintentional encounter, the report said.

The "high feasibility scenario" predicts that 1972 will be "a year of crisis in domestic and foreign relations for Communist China. The new great leap, like its predecessor, ends in a shambles. Feelings of frustration in domestic affairs and an oppressive sense of inescurity in foreign affairs run high."

Viet Cong Murders Army Major

SAIGON (UPI) — A U. S. Army major was captured and murdered by the Viet Cong Saturday on a road 135 miles northeast of Saigon, a military spokesman said today

The name of the major, a senior U. S. army adviser to the South Vietnamese forces in the province of Binh Thuan, was withheld until relatives have been notified.

The spokesman said the major and his interpreter were driving along Route 2 on their way to the scene of a battle when their jeep was ambushed about 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

The interpreter was wounded, escaped and returned to the nearest village where a search team of Vietnamese and American troops was sent to the scene of the ambush.

The search team found the major's body. He had been shot in the back of the head.

Assembly Votes Aid To Summer Job Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblymen have voted $50 million in aid for students in poor California school districts, and $5 million they hope will put big city youngsters into jobs this summer instead of riots.

Both measures were sent to the Senate from the Assembly in a session which lasted more than six hours Sunday and even found the lawmakers voting against a lunch break.

The unusual weekend meeting helped clear the lower house file and enhanced chances of adjourning the session — now in its 27th week — by the target of July 19.

Most attention Sunday focused on the emergency job program sponsored by Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh of Inglewood, although the education bill was larger and likely to have more impact in coming years.

Unruh's bill would allocate $5 million to be spent between now and Sept. 15 when the summer heat will have cooled and schools reopened. Only youths 15 to 25 would be eligible and the programs would be under strict state and local supervision.

The aim, Unruh said, is to keep off the streets "these ... shock troops for the conflagrations which have swept American cities." He noted the state spends millions of dollars to help build yacht harbors used almost completely by well off white people, and that it is time to help "the people who are not beautiful people, who cannot raise funds to send a lobbyist to Sacramento."

A bipartisan coalition of 58 Democrats and Republicans pushed the bill through, while 16 Republicans opposed it. A foe, GOP Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan of Tracy, said it probably wouldn't help the young people, and all the act amounted to was "trying to buy them off for a few weeks in the summer."

No Trials In Minor Road Cases?

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Those determined people who demand and get a jury trial for minor traffic offenses such as overtime parking would lose that right under major legislation overwhelmingly endorsed by the Assembly.

Proponents say the legislation would speed up and improve the judicial process where it really is needed — in major cases — and eliminate thousands of court cases a year which basically amount to harassment of the judicial system.

Opponents say it is the first step toward eroding a basic American right, that of a trial by a citizen's peers in criminal cases.

Proponents had the better of it Sunday, as the Assembly voted 59-13 in favor of the bill, sending it to the Senate for the first time after several years of efforts by backers.

Row Boils On Recall Petitions

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Secretary of State Frank Jordan has been accused of playing politics for statements he made pertaining to the efforts of a statewide organization to recall Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Nancy L. Parr, San Francisco, chairman of the Recall Reagan Committee, Sunday wrote Jordan a strongly worded letter responding to his statement that some persons had been tricked into signing petitions to recall the governor.

Miss Parr demanded Jordan retract the statement.

"You represent the people, Mr. Jordan, not Ronald Reagan," Miss Parr's letter said.

The Recall Reagan Committee is seeking 1.6 million signatures on petitions in order to force a special election to test Reagan's support. If he lost the election, a new governor would take office. About 750,000 signatures already have been obtained, close to the 780,414 minimum required by state law.

Jordan last week said he had received "numerous" complaints from persons who said they had been tricked into signing the petitions after allegedly being told they were a request for lower taxes.

Rodgers Leaves LA Hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jimmie Rodgers, released from St. Vincent's Hospital after a third brain operation for injuries suffered in a controversial accident Dec. 1, says he will try to find out "exactly what happened that night."

The latest operation, to install a steel plate in his skull, was a complete success, Rodgers said Sunday.

Meat Unions Plan to Merge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two meat-processing unions, representing about 500,000 members, convened in separate Southern California meetings today to consider a merger officials say is needed to strengthen each union and eliminate infighting.

The merger of the United Packinghouse Workers meeting in San Diego, and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters, meeting here has been approved by union officers and tentatively has been scheduled to go into effect Friday, pending approval at the two conventions.

The new Mercedes-Benz 220 Diesel: so "over-engineered" you may still be driving it in 1988.

Foreground: the world's first Diesel passenger car (1936). Background: the world's best Diesel sedan (1968). Both by Mercedes-Benz.

Some Mercedes-Benz Diesels just won't quit. In the 32 years since Mercedes-Benz invented the Diesel-powered passenger car, over 500,000 Diesels have been made, and 87% are still running! One owner in Stockholm recently started his second million miles.

The newest Mercedes-Benz Diesel is the 220 (so-called because its engine displaces 2.2 liters). It costs $4,580,* and from the million-dollar way it looks and rides, many people believe it should be classified as a luxury car.

An unconventional economy car

Mercedes-Benz says the 220 Diesel is an economy car. Yes, an economy car, because it could save you more money in the long run (say, 100,000 miles or more) than the flimsiest little economy car you could buy.

The 220 Diesel is so economical it doesn't even use gasoline. It sips inexpensive Diesel fuel at a miserly rate, yet has enough power to cruise at 80 (where the law allows). This amazing power plant does away with carburetors, spark plugs, and other paraphernalia of the conventional gasoline engine.

But the engine is not the only unconventional thing about the new Mercedes-Benz 220 Diesel. The whole car is "over-engineered." That's the way one critic put it. He was right. By conventional standards, it is built to far more exacting standards than ordinary motor cars.

What else "over-engineering" can mean to you

The remarkable longevity of the Diesel engine is one good example of how "over-engineering" works for the man who buys a Mercedes-Benz. But by no means does it tell the whole story. Here are some more examples:

A superior braking system

Many ordinary cars still use old-fashioned drum brakes.

Today's 180-mph Grand Prix racing cars use disc brakes. So does the Mercedes-Benz 220 Diesel. And not just on the front wheels, but on every wheel. Drum brakes are cheaper, but tests prove that disc brakes provide the most precise braking possible—at any speed. So Mercedes-Benz engineers insist on 4-wheel disc brakes as standard equipment. With 421.1 square inches of braking area, it's virtually impossible to outrun the 220 Diesel's brakes.

10,000 body welds

Most conventional cars have a separate body and chassis, held together with bolts. After a while, the bolts can work loose. On a washboard road, the rattles can be deafening.

Mercedes-Benz eliminated the body bolts. In their place are over 10,000 individual welds. Result: a structure of immense strength and rigidity. After 50,000 miles or so, you'll wonder if your 220 Diesel will ever rattle.

A patented suspension

Conventional sedans usually have a little device called an "anti-sway bar" nestled in the front suspension. It prevents the car from leaning on hard turns. Without it, the car would wallow (or the springs would have to be made so stiff that the ride would be ruined).

Mercedes-Benz engineers took this idea one step further. They added a second anti-sway bar at the rear, part of the 220 Diesel's new—and patented—independent rear suspension. This allowed the Mercedes-Benz engineers to make the rear springs softer, too. Result: a vastly superior ride, but still no mush, sway or wallow—even in hairpin turns.

"Fatigue-proof" seats

Take a day-long trip in some cars and you'll wind up feeling like a damp washrag.

The Mercedes-Benz 220 Diesel is engineered as much for human comfort as it is for mechanical efficiency. Orthopedic physicians were consulted in the design of the 220 Diesel's seats so you'll have proper support on cross-country tours as well as short hops to the supermarket. When you first slip into one of the 220 Diesel's carefully contoured seats, it may seem firm, but once you get used to it, you'll never settle for "marshmallow" seats again. Mercedes-Benz engineers have respect for your backbone.

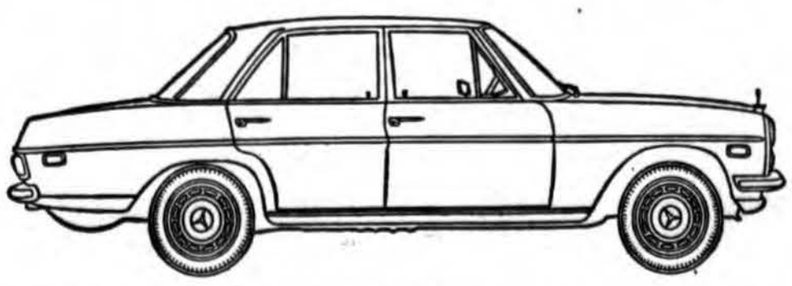
Better yet, visit our showroom. See and drive the new 220 Diesel. Find out how it feels to drive a car built to be the best—not just the best seller.



The Mercedes-Benz 220 Diesel was designed around people—not a marketing scheme. Result: a car that looks like a car—not a styling exercise.

14 gasoline-powered models from $25,785* to $4,446*

The legend of Mercedes-Benz Diesels has grown to Brobdingnagian proportions. There are some people who firmly believe Mercedes-Benz makes nothing but Diesels. Not true. In fact, Mercedes-Benz builds a wide range of gasoline-powered models, from the awesome 600 to the thrifty 220 (a car very much like the 220 Diesel, but with a regular gasoline engine—for people who are diffident about the virtues of the Diesel engine). They include:

600 Grand Mercedes	$22,472*
300SEL Limousine	9,489*
280SE Coupe	9,262*
280SL Roadster	6,568*
280SE Sedan	6,336*
250 Sedan	5,150*
230 Sedan	4,631*
220 Sedan	4,446*

'I Was Forced To Face Truth About Myself'

EXCLUSIVE:

By MRS. ANN LEVY
N. Curson Ave., Los Angeles
As told to Gloria Marshall in an exclusive copyrighted letter

"When my husband jokingly referred to me as his 'plush pony' I was forced to face the real truth. It has been just ten weeks since I walked into your Beverly Hills salon and weighed in at 172½ pounds. My latest progress check showed a total loss of 30 pounds and 40 inches, but you have given me much more . . . a warm and friendly atmosphere with people who are genuinely interested in helping me with my program."

★

"Your reducing program is the easiest and fastest way to lose those extra pounds and unwanted inches. I've tried dieting many times, but just couldn't seem to keep the weight off. In eight weeks I lost 25¼ inches and 15¼ pounds. Everyone at the salon has been very helpful and encouraging, and have helped make reducing fun. I look forward to my visits and feel better every time I leave the salon."

Mrs. Mardell Doty, Wyngate Ave., Tujunga

★

"Your method is the quickest way to lose weight I have ever tried . . . I know, because I've been on many of them. When I had to buy a size 18 dress a couple of months ago, I decided to stop in at your salon on the way home. You guaranteed me to not only lose weight but inches too! I've lost 20 pounds and 35 inches—from a size 18 to a size 11! The best money I ever spent. P.S.: My husband stopped playing cards Friday nights and is taking me out again!"

Mrs. Gladys Heath, Rathburn Ave., Northridge

Urban Crisis Meet Topic

BERKELEY — A working committee was formed today to plan a major conference of California educators on how to deal with the urban crisis and its rural counterpart and to assure equal access to education at all levels.

The meeting, called by UC President Charles J. Hitch, included representatives from 13 educational associations and from nearly all of the state's public and private schools and colleges.

The committee will confer at length with leaders of minority groups and seek nationally prominent experts to join in the three day conference planned for the fall.

Impala Sport Coupe

Here's why our competition is happy the model year is almost over.

It's been awfully tough on other cars in Impala's field this year. You can understand that. What can other dealers say when somebody wants the roomiest car? (That's an Impala 4-Door Sedan. According to the Automotive News Study, the big Chevrolet is roomier than any other car in its field.)

What can they say to questions like "Where's the ignition warning buzzer; the Hide-A-Way windshield wipers; the flush-and-dry rocker panels; the Magic-Mirror acrylic lacquer finish; the Body by Fisher quality?" (Only Impala's got them in its field.)

And what can they say when somebody specifies a speed warning indicator, or light monitoring system? Or wants the lowest priced full-size sport coupe, for instance? (You see, putting you first keeps us first.)

What else can they say? Help!

Nobody can help you like your Chevrolet dealer. CHEVROLET

You get the biggest year-end savings just where you'd expect to.

History on March

POLICE CHOPPER—Aircraft Division of Hughes Tool Co. lent helicopter to patrol beach and parade route.

The annual Huntington Beach Fourth of July Parade is nearly as old as the century is long.

In the 64 years since the first block long march of Independence Day celebrants dragged balking horses up muddy Main Street from muddy Ocean Avenue, the festivity has thrilled millions of oldsters, youngsters and everyone in between.

The 1968 parade, the largest so far with over 2,700 participants, treated 150,000 Beach residents and visitors to a three dimensional picture page of American History.

Gaily decorated floats brimming with chanting Indians or perhaps courtly ladies and gentlemen from America's colonial period inched along the two-mile downtown route.

Spaced among the eight divisions were military and civilian bands, equestrians bridled or bedecked in silver or Spanish lace, the clowns, the fire engines, drill teams, celebrities and a police chief.

John Seltzer, Huntington Beach Police Department chief, has been in 31 consecutive Independence Day parades.

"You should have seen my first," he said slyly. "It was 1937 and we had only 7 men in the department." Now, Seltzer added, he feels understaffed with a 1968 department total of 127.

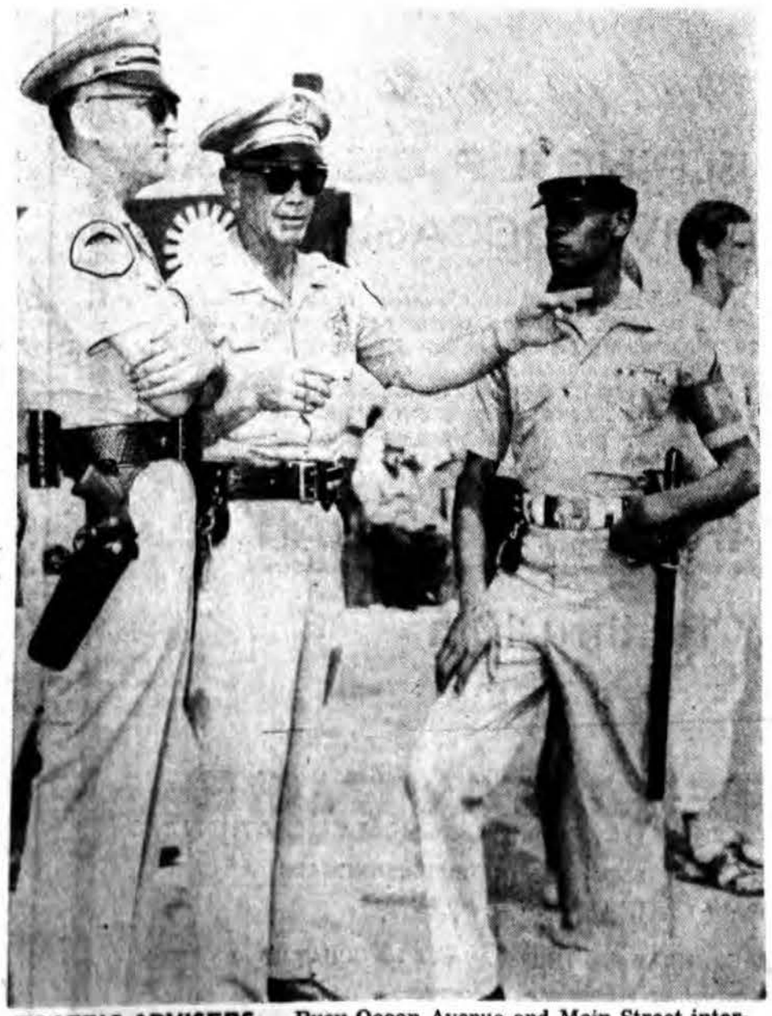
FIFTY CENTS EACH — New Yorker Mrs. Mary Rich buys helium filled balloons for her grandchildren from street vendor Irvin Grace at 64th Independence Day parade.

YOUNG FLY FLAGS — Youngsters with a big dose of patriotism are (front row) Gordon Lawitzke, 6; Geri, 6, Becky, 3, and Marcie Cox, 7, who think it's a great day to wave the Flag.



TRAFFIC ADVISERS — Busy Ocean Avenue and Main Street intersection is directed by Lt. Paul Darden (left), Officer Marty O'Reilley and Marine Sgt. Joseph Funckes.

JOHN BIRCH PARADERS — Approximately 1,000 members of the John Birch Society, dressed in mourning, startle paradegoers with their silent procession. Crosses bear the names of U.S. servicemen killed in action in South Vietnam.

Your Money's Worth

How to Minimize Tax

Editor's NOTE: Now that the income tax surcharge has become a fact of life, it's time to learn just how much you will have to pay and how to avoid overpayment. Financial columnist Sylvia Porter, working in cooperation with Leon Gold, chief tax expert of the Research Institute of America, answers these questions in a three-part series titled "How to Minimize Your Tax Increase." It begins today.

Of course you are thoroughly aware that your paycheck and profits soon will be hit by a 10 percent income tax surcharge, to be applied from April 1, 1968 for individuals and from Jan. 1, 1968 for corporations and to last through June 30, 1969.

This means that the surcharge for the millions of calendar year individual taxpayers will actually be only 7½ percent for 1968.

BUT YOU'RE the rare exception indeed if you know the fine points of the new law at this stage and have even the vaguest notions about how to minimize the impact of the tax increase on your pocketbook or cash register.

Here, therefore, are key facts and guides for you, compiled in collaboration with Leon Gold, chief tax expert of the Research Institute of America.

— If, as an individual, your regular income tax for 1968 comes to less than $734 on your 1968 tax return which you will file next April, you must find your surcharge in official tables supplied by the Treasury and add it onto your regular tax. You are required to use the tables even though a separate multiplication of your tax by 7½ percent for 1968 might come out to a few pennies less.

— IF YOU ARE among the calendar year individuals with regular taxes of $734 or more, when you prepare your 1968 return, you must figure out your surcharge for yourself by multiplying your regular tax by 7½ percent for '68, and add that onto your regular tax.

As an illustration, say you file a 1968 joint return and show a tax of $673 before figuring the surcharge. A surcharge of 7½ percent of $673 would be $50.48. But since your regular tax is below $734, you must use the tables. The Treasury table applying to you is no. 3 (married persons or surviving spouse filing a joint return). This shows a surcharge of $51 applicable to a tax of $673, giving you a final tax of $724.

But you say you are a married man with a regular tax for 1968 of $2,500. Your surcharge is 7½ percent of $2,500 or $187.50. You must do the multiplying yourself because your tax is at the $734 or more limit.

— IF YOU ARE a low bracket individual taxpayer, you are either exempt from this surcharge or you pay less than the full amount. There is no surcharge for single individuals with $1,000 or less of taxable income; married couples with $2,000 or less; heads of household with $1,500 or less.

— If you have an income just above these amounts, a special transition provision will prevent a sudden tax hike for you. This provision gradually removes the exemption as your income rises beyond the exempt level. It applies to a single taxpayer with a taxable income between $1,000 and $1800; a married taxpayer with an income between $2,000 and $3,760; a head of household with a taxable income between $1,500 and $2,780.

You will find these limitations and the "notch" provision worked into the official tax tables so that you won't have to do your own figuring to arrive at your surcharge.

AS AN illustration, say you are single and your tax from the regular optional tax tables — and before the surcharge — comes to $211. Your surcharge is in the new surcharge table 1 (single person, other than head of household, and married person filing a separate return). This will show a surcharge due of $10 instead of the $15.83 which would be due on a straight 7½ percent. Your final tax is $221.

— If your pay is subject to withholding, your withheld amount will generally be increased by roughly 10 percent.

As an illustration, say you are married, earn $200 a week and have four exemptions. Your weekly withholding will be increased from $23.20 to $25.60, cutting your take-home pay by $2.40.

MANY OF YOU may be under-withheld for 1968 and have to pay an additional final tax or get a smaller-than-expected refund when you file your 1968 return in 1969. The reason is that while your withholding is increased by about 10 percent, it applies for only about half of 1968. This produces roughly a 5 percent increase in taxes prepaid through withholding this year — or 2½ points less than than 7½ percent surcharge for the year 1968.

— If you are an individual who files a declaration of estimated tax, you will have to reflect the surcharge in your payments or declarations due on or after Sept. 16, 1968.

If you are basing your estimate on your prior year's taxes, you must increase it to reflect the surcharge in order to avoid penalty for underpayment of tax.

Next: More key guides on applying the surcharge.

Javelin Keeps Pace With Race Champion

By CARL CARSTENSEN

Keeping pace with a well established competitor, especially a defending champion, is no easy assignment in any area of sports.

Yet this precisely is what American Motors Corporation's new Javelin has accomplished since going racing in the 1968 Trans-American Sedan Championship series.

In the five races since its competitive debut at Sebring, Fla., in March, Javelin has matched defending Trans-Am titlist Mustang in piling up manufacturer's championship points.

Dating from Sebring's 12-hour endurance run, Javelin and Mustang each have accumulated 22 points on the basis of a 9-6-4-3-2-1- point-formula for finishes in each event.

Javelin's racing team, as does its factory-supported competitors, enters two cars in each Trans-Am race. Yet only the car highest in the standings at the finish is awarded points.

George Follmer, of Arcadia, who finished second at the recent Trans-Am at Bridgehampton, N.Y., and Peter Revson, of New York City, are the Havelin team drivers.

The season Follmer and Revson have placed Javelins second on two occasions, third in two other events and fifth in the Trans-Am group at Sebring.

Since the three-hour Trans-Am race at Tulsa, Okla., May 12, Javelin has finished no lower than third among the factory sedans in the over 2-liter category.

That span covers four races and Javelin has totaled 20 manufacturers points to 18 for Mustang. In the overall seasonal standings, Camaro tops the list witth 51 points to 31 for Mustang and 22 for Javelin. Both Camaro and Mustang have run one more race than Javelin.

Everything Rising

Economy Enters Into New Phase

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Speaking economically, this month may be remember as much more than the midway point in a booming but troubled year. A year or so from now we might also recall it as the beginning of a new economic phase.

As this economy enters the second half, or the new phase, consumers are spending heavily and debt is rising. Joblessness is only 3.5 percent of the labor force, but credit is costly, prices and wages are rising, and taxes are rising too.

Although the defects and needs of the urban economies are being exposed as never before, the problems and imbalances of the rural and farm economies are great also: farm expenses are high or rising, while prices received are slipping.

OUT OF BALANCE

In general, the economic boom, now more than seven years old, is so badly out of balance that prices are rising at the rate of four percent a year. And many of these rising household costs are where they can't be avoided: in rents, medical and dental care, food, clothing.

Already the economic indicators, those statistical arrows that point to future events, have begun to tilt downward, anticipating a slowdown because of a promised $6 billion cutback in government spending and a 10 percent surcharge on personal and corporate incomes, scheduled to begin this month.

Gradually, as money is taken out of the economy, the rate of unemployment should begin to rise, perhaps reaching more than 4 percent of the labor force in the next six months or so. This is one of the painful ironies of any slowdown.

SPENDING

Wage increases likely will continue at a rate of 6 percent or so for a matter of months but will become increasingly difficult to obtain. Consumer spending may drop even though, hopefully, price increases will moderate and credit costs drop.

By early next year it may well be a brand-new economy — perhaps even threatened with recession — one that will permit the new president to issue with some degree of credibility that old battlecry: Let us begin.

There is a good chance the new president will find his constituents clamoring for more expansiveness in the economy, for more jobs, for lower taxes and perhaps even for a bit more government spending.

Although this may be a new phase of the economic boom, or even the end of it, the excesses and defects of the past seven years aren't likely to be forgotten. Fundamental changes are being considered.

CRITICISM

As the great speculative binge in the stock market shows signs of ending, the stock market itself appears to be facing a long period of examination and criticism of its methods, in part the result of excesses.

Beginning this week investigators will probe into the commission system under which brokers are paid. Later the trading habits of mutual funds might be scrutinized. One result may be to expose to the public methods which the financial community long has felt to be private.

Actions of the Federal Reserve Board, a semi-independent agency of government that can raise or lower interest rates and therefore slow or spur the economy, seems also to be attracting critical attention.

RECESSIONS

The Fed, which played major roles in directing the economy over the length of the present boom, was accused this week by Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.), of deepending recessions for 30 years and with often fanning inflation.

Describing a forthcoming report by the Senate-House Economic Committee, Proxmire said "this report breaks sharply with Congress' traditional 'hands off the Fed.' It tells the Fed to adopt a constant and moderate monetary policy and instructs them to tell us whenever they depart from it."

Whatever the net results of economic policy over the next six months, or the examination of it over the past seven years, the signs are becoming clearer that a phase is ending.

Class Consumer Market New Bait for Companies

NEW YORK (UPI)—The first thing the head of a diversified company needs to know is that markets are composed of people who have more money to spend today than ever before in history, says John Hampton Hickman, new chairman of Seilon, Inc., of Toledo.

Hickman took over Seilon this spring from Edward Lamb, the Toledo industrialist who waged a spectacular proxy fight a few years ago to win control of Seiblering Rubber Co., then sold off the tire business and created Seilon out of the remainder of the company.

"The class market has become a mass market for the first time in history," said the youthful Hickman, who left a Wall Street career with McDonnell & Co. as a specialist in international financial operations (he studied Chinese at Yale as preparation to specialize in Asian finance and business) to take over Seilon.

"The manager of a diversified company should trim his sails and set his course in the light of this fact. He should put the company into operations to take advantage of this new high profit, rapid growth class consumer market, leaving the older, lower profit margin business to companies better able to handle them."

If this sounds as if Hickman is dubious about the long term prospects of many of the conglomerates being put together rapidly in American business today, he is.

"I don't believe in the conventional conglomerate theory, which is of European origin," he said. "I believe a diversified corporation ought to have a definite unity, either of product compatibility, technical and managerial capability or felicitous financial opportunities."

Hickman said James Ling's "redeployment" tactics by which a number of the companies acquired by Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc., subsequently are returned to autonomy with a substantial minority of public shares is a recognition of the fact that a tightly controlled conglomerate may soon run into dangerous managerial problems.

Hickman has moved very fast since taking over Seilon. He sold off the company's one-sixth interest in Copolymer Rubber & Chtmical Corp. of Baton Rouge for $5.5 million. Since Seilon no longer manufactures tires it no longer needs a big supply of synthetic rubber.

He merged two Canadian divisions in the wire and cable and metal fence business. He began arrangement to exchange common stock for outstanding preferred. He moved Seilon's Thomoson sugar harvesting machinery business from Louisiana to Nebraska and merged it with the very profitable Lockwood farm machinery division, which makes a potato harvester among other things.

He also has set in motion a "redeployment" of Lockwood, by which 20 percent of the company will be sold to the public. And he has completed some new financing arrangements.

What will Seilon buy from now on out?

"I'm not sure what business we'll buy but of one thing I am sure, we will think of customers in the high margin class market first of all," he said.

SPECIAL LOW RATES! EXAMINE POLICY IN YOUR OWN HOME—MONEY BACK IF NOT 100% SATISFIED!

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT, SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

One out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you – or some beloved member of your family tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have tripled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do with your pay check stopped, but living expenses still going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Presidential Extra Cash Plan that

... Pays you $100.00 a week tax-free cash when you go to the hospital.

Now, Presidential's economy plan enables you to enjoy this protection. Mail the Enrollment Form. We will send you the actual policy to look over at home. No rush. No agent will call or phone you. Take 15 days to decide. Show the policy to a friend, a family adviser first. You lose nothing if you don't want the policy. But if you do want it, you're entitled to Presidential's special low rates described below. So low, you'll find you get protection at a price that's just a fraction of what you'd expect to pay.

Your cash benefits increase each year — at no extra cost to you!

Your cash benefits automatically rise year after year. You get peace of mind so you don't have to worry about rising costs. Your protection automatically increases $3.00 a week each year. The first year you get $100.00 a week. You get $103.00 a week in the second year. $106.00 a week in the third year. $109.00 a week in the fourth year. By the eleventh year, your policy will be worth a full $130.00 a week in benefit payments... at no increase in cost to you! This generous cash reserve protection will belong to you for as long as you keep the policy. You can see that your insurance will be worth much more than the present "face value" of the policy. Certainly, our increased payments to you will help keep pace with rising costs – and best of all...

...The increasing benefits come to you at no extra cost. You still pay the regular low Presidential premium!

What other Plan protects you like this today? What other Plan keeps protecting you against rising living costs in the years ahead without increasing your premiums? And that's not all. This special Presidential Extra Cash Plan (#HP 18L-1067)...

PAYS Up to $10,000.00 CASH for each accident or illness, starting the very first day in the hospital.

PAYS $100.00 A WEEK CASH — if you need a full-time registered nurse when you come home from the hospital — up to 50 weeks.

PAYS $1,000.00 EXTRA CASH for accidental death.

PAYS Up to $2,000.00 CASH for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

PAYS $100.00 A WEEK CASH for each pregnancy, when you go to the hospital, assuming both husband and wife have been enrolled in the Family Plan With Maternity.

PAYS Up to $5,000.00 when a child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness when you are enrolled in the Family Plan.

PAYS you cash benefits that increase each year... to a maximum of $130.00-A-WEEK... at no extra cost to you

NO age limit — no medical examination required

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with the Presidential Extra Cash Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to what you receive from Medicare – or any other health insurance you may have. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to what you receive from Medicare, Presidential pays you $70.00 a week... EVEN FOR 100 WEEKS if necessary! You can receive as much as $7,000.00 for each illness or injury when hospitalized!

... Pays you $100.00 a week CASH for a registered nurse at home.

Yes, in addition to the $100.00 weekly checks we send you during your hospital stay, we pay you an extra $100.00 a week if the doctor says you need a full-time registered nurse to take care of you at home.

How comforting it is to know that – after your stay in the hospital, if you've been there three days or more, you can return home to recuperate and yet not be a burden to your loved ones. Yes, if your doctor says you need a registered nurse full time within 5 days after you come home, we'll send you checks for $100.00 a week – for as long as you need the nurse – even up to 50 weeks. It's like having a reserve of $5,000.00 cash to draw on when you need it. These benefits also increase each year by $3.00 a week. Another exceptional feature you have with Presidential...

... Pays you $100.00 a week cash maternity benefits

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured in the wonderful Family Plan With Maternity for the entire period of the pregnancy, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days – as long as necessary – you get $100.00 a week for every day of your confinement, up to 100 weeks.

All these added cash benefits.

Yes, in addition to $100.00 a week for hospitalization or $100.00 a week maternity benefits and $100.00 a week for a registered nurse at home... you get all this:

Added cash benefits: $1000.00 cash to your family if death occurs within 90 days from any accidental injury. Think of how handy the cash can be in time of loss. It can take care of burial expenses without burdening your loved ones.

Added cash benefit: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 will bring greater peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefit: Choose either Family Plan... and your children will be covered too! Presidential pays up to $5,000.00 any time your youngster goes to the hospital... for tonsils, appendicitis, or any other illness or injury! Yes, you will receive $50.00 cash, week after week – for as many as 100 weeks, if necessary.

We pay your premiums when you are not able

As a special consideration to you – if you are hospitalized just 6 weeks or more, all premiums that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by Presidential. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, Presidential will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL – TO A MAXIMUM OF 100 WEEKS per confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force – you collect up to $10,000.00 for each confinement!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON
Amazing Low Rates — Money-Back Guarantee

You can now have your first month's protection at the special low rates listed below! But you must act immediately. Your request for this wonderful Income Protection Plan must be mailed on the convenient form below NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT of the date in the Enrollment Form.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your Presidential policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by war or any act of war; mental disorders; intoxicants and narcotics; pregnancy except as provided under the maternity benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will still be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Of course, meanwhile every new condition is immediately covered.

How can these bargain low rates buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But Presidential can now provide you and your entire family with $100.00 a week tax-free Income Protection at special low rates only because we enroll a large number of people at one time – direct by mail! This highly efficient "Mass Enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone – and the savings are passed on to you!

Make your decision carefully

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable x-rays, doctor bills, medicines and drugs that are not covered by your present insurance.

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the deadline date shown in the enrollment form — just a few days from today

Why must you act before the deadline? Because, as mentioned above, we must receive your Enrollment Form the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time.

We mail you the policy as soon as we receive the Enrollment Form. When the policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then – show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant, or banker. Better still – show it to your own insurance man... even though he may very well be working for another insurance company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere – at any price!

Money back guarantee—in case you change your mind

Even after you mail your Enrollment Form below... even after you examine the policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish... even after all this you are still free to return the policy within 15 days and every penny you paid will be refunded at once. There will be no obligation whatever.

Meanwhile, all during the 15 days you are making up your mind—you'll be protected by $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash benefits just as if you had already said "yes." That's right, you will be fully covered all this time for any accident which puts you in the hospital, even if you finally decide to return the policy.

However, after you've seen the policy for yourself, you will surely agree that this is a tremendous value and you'll want to continue this $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash protection under the Plan that's best for you.

PLAN I — INDIVIDUAL(S) ONLY PLAN:

If you want to cover yourself – or yourself and one or more adult dependents (including your spouse) – then this is the Plan for you. Each person must be 18 or over, and shall pay (per person) the rate applicable to his or her age.

THESE ARE YOUR LOW RATES
Enclose first month's premium according to age and plan selected.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
18-39	only $3.95
40-49	only $4.95
50-59	only $5.95
60-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

SAVE EVEN MORE (up to 20%!) by paying at quarterly, half year or yearly rates, sent with policy.

PLAN II — FAMILY PLAN WITH MATERNITY

This plan is for the family that is still growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $5. This entitles you to all maternity benefits. It also covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and under 19 years who live at home. Future dependent children will be covered when they reach 3 months of age and without any additional charge.

PLAN III — FAMILY PLAN WITHOUT MATERNITY

This plan is for the family that is no longer growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $3. This covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and under 19 years who live at home.

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us – or because of advanced age – but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state.

Act now—"later" may be too late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly! (No salesman will call.) Get your enrollment form into the mail today with your first month's premium according to the plan you choose. Remember, you must be completely satisfied or your money will be refunded. But you must act right now. Remember, once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today – before anything unexpected happens.

THESE 22 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how Presidential's COST OF LIVING INCOME REPLACEMENT HEALTH AND ACCIDENT PLAN gives you the protection you need — at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will my policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
The full amount! You are paid $100.00-A-WEEK cash every single week. And it starts the very first day you are in the hospital. (If you are over 65, you are paid $70.00 a week, in addition to any Medicare benefits you receive.)
2. Will I be paid if I am hospitalized for less than a full week?
You certainly will... regardless of whether you are in the hospital for as short a time as one day... or as long a time as a week, month, year or more.
3. Does this Plan pay me from the first day of hospitalization?
Yes! You receive full cash benefits of $100.00 a week starting the very first day you enter the hospital. The coverage begins when we receive your first premium – that is the day you are covered for any accidents. Sickness coverage begins 30 days after the effective date of the policy.
4. How much do I receive for a Registered Nurse at Home?
$100.00-A-WEEK for up to $5,000.00 after you have been hospitalized for 3 days or more, and your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within 5 days after you leave the hospital. Ten years from now it will have increased to $130.00 a week in benefits... at no extra cost to you!
5. Are there any accidental death benefits?
Yes. $1,000.00 cash is paid to your estate when death occurs any time within 90 days of an accident.
6. Will I be paid extra if I lose a limb or eyesight?
Yes. Presidential pays $1,000.00 for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye; $2,000.00 for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes... when dismemberment occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident.
7. How much do we receive for pregnancies?
If you have the Family Plan With Maternity, you receive $100.00-A-WEEK for each pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in hospital confinement when both husband and wife are enrolled under this plan for the entire period of pregnancy.
8. Suppose I am paid benefits for any sickness or accident. What happens if I am again hospitalized for the same condition?
Don't worry. You still collect $100.00-A-WEEK for a total of 100 weeks. And if you have already resumed full normal activities for just 90 days, it's considered a new confinement, and you can collect for an additional 100 weeks. Of course, any new condition is covered immediately for a full 100 weeks.
9. How may I use these benefit payments?
You may use them in any way you wish — for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses, or anything else. This is entirely up to you.
10. May I apply if I am over 65?
Yes, you may. Folks any age are welcome to apply—there is no age limit! Members over 65 are paid $70.00 a week plus all Medicare benefits.
11. Can I collect from Presidential even if I carry other insurance?
Of course. This plan will pay you in addition to whatever you may receive from any other policies, including Medicare for folks over 65.
12. Why do I need this Presidential Plan in addition to my other hospital and health insurance?
While hospital costs have tripled in recent years, very few people have tripled their insurance. The chances are one in seven that you will need money to take care of all your other expenses, as well as your hospital bills. Your Presidential checks are rushed to you by air mail to use as you see fit.
13. What benefits do my eligible, dependent children get?
If you choose a Family Type Plan, your dependent eligible children, ages 3 months to under 19 years, would receive 50% of all the cash benefits of the Plan (excluding Waiver of Premium).
14. May I add future dependent children to my policy after it is in force?
Yes, indeed, if you have the FAMILY PLAN WITH MATERNITY. Just notify us when they are 3 months old and they will be covered without evidence of insurability and without any additional charge.
15. Will my protection be cancelled because I have too many claims?
No, definitely not! Presidential guarantees never to cancel your protection because you have too many claims or because of advanced age. We also guarantee never to refuse to renew your policy unless the premium is not paid before the end of the 31-day grace period, or unless renewal is declined on all policies of this type in your entire state. (Of course, if deception is used in making application, the policy may be ineffective.)
16. Will my rates be raised as I grow older or if I have too many claims?
No matter how many claims you have, or regardless of how long you keep your policy, your rate will remain the same as it was for your age when you applied. Presidential guarantees never to adjust this rate unless the rates are adjusted on all policies of this type in your entire state.
17. What is not covered by this policy?
The only conditions not covered are those caused by: mental disorders; intoxicants and narcotics; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy Effective Date (during the first 2 years only); act of war. EVERYTHING ELSE IS COVERED—including pregnancy when both husband and wife have been enrolled in the FAMILY PLAN WITH MATERNITY for the entire period of pregnancy.
18. What are the requirements for membership in one of the Presidential Plans?
You must not have been refused any health, hospital or life insurance; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must enroll before midnight of the date in the coupon.
19. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
Because, by enrolling a large number of people at the same time, underwriting, processing and policy issuance costs can be kept at a minimum—and we can pass these savings on to you.
20. Besides the savings, are there other advantages to joining Presidential during this enrollment period?
Yes, there certainly are. A very important one is that you do not need to complete a regular application – just your brief form in the lower left hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no other requirements for eligibility – and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
21. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
Yes, as long as they can meet the few requirements listed under Question 18.
22. How do I get the policy for examination with money-back guarantee?
Just fill out your brief enrollment form and mail it with your first month's premium to The Presidential Life Insurance Company of America, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

Fashion Goes To Festival

Staff Photos by Richard Koehler

PAGEANT OF FASHIONS —What to wear when visiting the Festival of Arts in Laguna Beach? This question is easily answered with the help of Buffum's, Fashion Island and three lovely models. Perhaps daytime art browsers will want to vie with exhibits for attention dressed in leather fashions like (above, left to right) Carol Cade of Huntington Beach and teenager Jan Rinaldi of Newport Beach. Carol is eye-catching in an antique leather tunic poncho with a side buckle closing worn with matching leather slacks and over a pale blue washable crepe turtleneck shirt. The same leather is worn by Jan. Her A-line skirt is topped by a leather sleeveless vest which she wears over a turtle-neck wool sweater. Model Pat Straight of Laguna Beach (at left) looks like a living picture as she gets ready to make her entrance into Irvine Bowl for the Pageant of the Masters with escort William Martin, former Laguna Beach mayor and a festival director. She wears an embroidered lace short evening dress fashioned with long slender sleeves of fluted organdy and sashed in dove grey velvet. At right she studies a mosaic of "The Last Supper" in a white wool knit pleated skirt with a navy jacket striped in red.

STYLE EXHIBITED — Warm, sunny days are sure to be enjoyed by art lovers touring the grounds during the festival's six-week run Friday, July 12, to Saturday, Aug. 24, and organdy, such as the grey and white fashions worn by Jan Rinaldi and Carol Cade (at left, left to right) are sheer summer perfection. Jan, a senior at Corona del Mar High School, chooses a delicate white organdy shirt to wear with its dirndl skirt of grey and white polka dots. Linen and organdy is Carol's dress and jacket costume. It features a white organdy shirt and charcoal grey pleated skirt and may be worn with a plae grey sleeveless jacket. Ready to do lots of hiking around the festival's park-like setting to see all the displays and many forms of art including paintings, ceramics and even jewelry, Pat Straight and Jan (at right, left to right) choose comfortable pant suits. Following the path of her favorite Guru, Pat tops her white linen pants with a sharp yellow tunic jacket styled with the popular Nehru collar. Her young companion looks sporty in a glen plaid haberdasher pant suit which includes sailor pants and a Nehru jacket worn over a yellow long sleeved turtle - neck shirt.

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Pacific Northwest

Wearing a traditional tiered lace gown featuring a cathedral length train, Nancy Ellen Vick exchanged her wedding vows with Carlan Jay Tapp last Saturday.

The bride, daughter of Army Maj. (ret.) and Mrs. Gilbert M. Vick of Huntington Beach, was given in marriage by her father. Conducting the double ring ceremony in the Westminster Presbyterian Church were the Rev. Dale Robinson and the Rev. Wendell Greenley.

Miss Nellana Tapp, the bridegroom's sister, served as maid of honor. Complementing her shocking pink A-line crepe gown was a bouquet of long-stemmed roses. Bridesmaids Mrs. Diane Wyzard and the Misses Margaret Williams, Beverly Hicks and Trudy Messmer wore identical gowns of pale pink and carried rose bouquets.

Flower girl Dawn Wyzard was attired in pink dotted swiss.

Attending the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Jay E. Tapp of Long Beach and the late Mr. Tapp, was Robert King best man. Ushers were Richard Brown, Kenneth Polly, Robert Harvey and William Vick, the bride's brother.

Dean Wyzard was ring bearer.

Following a reception in the church hall, the newlyweds departed on a wedding trip to the Pacific Northwest and when they return they will make their home in Long Beach. Assisting during the reception were the Misses Gayle McGowen, Lynn Argue and Elaine Adkins.

The bride is attending California State College at Long Beach, where she is majoring in home economics. The bridegroom attended Long Beach City College and CSCLB.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Weaver of Houston, Tex., the bride's godparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thomson of Holliday, Mo., the groom's grandparents.

Business Women

Mrs. Dolores Cronin, 536-6077, will take calls regarding membership and meeting location of the American Business Women's Association. The clubwomen gather the third Wednesday of the month at 6 p.m.

Walking Billboards

Fashion Fits Politics

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — A presidential campaign ago, an oversized button, a breast banner or a paper hat was enough for a candidate wishing to use fashions for his message.

But this year, women are expected to be walking billboards, advertising their political allegiances from the bands of their hats to the bows on their toes.

As candidates have entered the arena — or withdrawn — various aspects of the fashion industry have frantically begun — or stopped — production of head scarves, fabrics by the yard, aprons for kaffee klatches, midihemmed hostess gowns and miniskirted doorbell ringing dresses, as well as an assortment of jewelry including rings, pins, charm bracelets, cuff links and earrings.

All bear either the insignia, initials or portraits of the man favored for the highest national office.

Some are figments of enterprising merchandisers. A lingerie manufacturer who had produced a line of white night gowns with the initials of candidates across the fronts had to withdraw his LBJ number and hastily substitute an HHH version.

"To keep his name before the public in every way," as pop art collector Mrs. Robert C. Scull put it, boosters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy recently opened a boutique in New York called McCarthy's Mart.

Among the McCarthyana are $100 campaign buttons for evening wear studded with diamonds, rubies, and sapphires, as well as recorded poetry.

Not yet ready to come off the Bunsen burner is a boutique in Washington, D.C., for Hubert H. Humphrey to be called The Pharmacy because the vice president almost wound up filling prescriptions in a drug store.

In nonpartisan fashion, enterprising Frankie Welch opened the Campaign Flying Boutique, so-called because she delivers her products at almost a moment's notice by air freight.

After having designed an H-line hostess dress for female supporters attending the announcement of Humphrey's candidacy, Miss Welch was immediately consigned to create an official dress for the National Republican Convention.

By brochure women supporters of Richard M. Nixon have been offered a $20 dacron and cotton hostess dress of red and blue with a Nixon thunderbolt insignia emblazoned across the front.

The Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller camp favors paper fashions because hemlines may be adjusted with scissors to suit a lady's fashion fancy or her age, a spokesman explained.

A lawn wedding at her parents home was selected by Bonnie Ann Brown and Kenneth Eric Charlton of Newport Beach.

New Bride

The bride donned a sheer white dacron embroidered gown. Her fingertip illusion four-tiered veil was topped by a dacron bow encrusted with pearls and she carried a dozen red roses in a white ruffled basket.

Miss Jane Ann Charlton, the benedict's sister, was maid of honor and Robert S. Currier was best man. Ushers were Lawrence E. Brown, the bride's brother, Chris Hart and Steve Webber.

Assisting at the reception were Sandy Smith of La Jolla at the guest book, Jane Brown, and Kathy Webber.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in South Laguna for the summer and will make their home in Pittsburgh where the bridegroom will enter Carnegie-Mellon University for his PhD.

The bride is a graduate of UCLA and attended UC, Santa Barbara and Irvine. Her husband attended Northwestern University where he affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta and graduated magna cum laude from UCI.

Hawaii Selected For Honeymoon

Carol Lynn Norton of Costa Mesa became the bride of Thomas William Rimmer during an evening ceremony in Christ Lutheran Church, Costa Mesa.

The Rev. Luthar Tornow performed the double ring nuptials for the daughter of Mrs. Donald Trunick of Palos Verdes and Philip C. Norton of San Diego and the son of Mrs. William Henry of Huntington Beach and the late Mr. Rimmer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a silk organza over peau de soie gown and English illusion veiling appliqued with chantilly. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis, baby's breath and lilac shaded stock.

Miss Terri Mulvihill of Tustin was maid of honor and Miss Mary Hirschman of Brentwood and Miss Colleen Posson of Reseda were bridesmaids.

They donned light blue floor length gowns and held bouquets of baby's breath and lilac shaded spring flowers.

The benedict asked Fred Boyd of Huntington Beach to stand as best man. Ushers were Willard Mears and Charles Norton, both of Costa Mesa. Other attendants were David, Douglas and Dennis Henson.

Costa Mesa Golf and Country Club was the setting for the reception. Among the 150 guests attending were Fred Greta of Havilah, the bride's grandfather; Mrs. Jessie Norton of Costa Mesa, her grandmother, and Mrs. Louise Blanchard, the bridegroom's grandmother.

Guest book attendants were Mrs. Mears and Mrs. Charles Norton.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii, the newlyweds will be making their home in Newport Beach.

Catholic Nuptials For Linda Small

Sts. Simon and Jude Catholic Church was the setting for the morning wedding of Linda Ruth Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Small of Huntington Beach, and Terence William Newlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Newlin of Glendale.

Performing the double ring nuptials was the Rev. John Gini.

The new Mrs. Newlin selected a floor length cage style silk organza gown with alencon lace at the bodice and on the train. A floral headpiece caught an English silk illusion cathedral length veil, and she carried orchids surrounded by baby's breath and stephanotis.

Miss Donnalee Grosh of La Canada was maid of honor, while Miss Maren Small and Miss Mary Helen Newlin, the newlywed's sisters, were bridesmaids.

They donned daffodil yellow gowns with matching yellow veils and hats. All carried bouquets of Scottish belles, spider chrysanthemums and fern.

Miss Julie Lynn Becker, the bride's niece, wore a white eyelet pinafore over an ankle length yellow dress for her role as flower girl.

Asked to stand as best man was Douglas Newlin of Montrose, the benedict's brother. Ushering guests to their seats were David Small of Santa Ana, the bride's brother; Vincient Newlin of La Crescenta, the benedict's cousin; Loren Brucker, Ontario, and Dennis Marxen and Fred Vogel, both of Seattle.

About 150 friends and relatives congratulated the couple during the reception in the Huntington Continental Clubhouse. Mrs. Small attended the guest book.

The newlyweds will reside in Santa Ana following their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate of Crescenta Valley High School and attended the University of California, Santa Barbara and the University of Washington.

The bridegroom is an alumnus of St. Francis High School, La Canada and was a student at the U of W where he was a member of the varsity football team and Beta Theta Pi. He will attend California State College at Long Beach for his senior year.

Who Should Foot the Bills?

ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The other evening my husband said to me, "Did you take your pill, dear?" I replied, "You mean OUR pill, don't you? After all The Pill is a family affair." He looked at me as if I had taken leave of my senses.

My husband is typical of the newly liberated male. To my way of thinking the American husband never did accept his share of responsibility in regard to sex and pregnancy. Now that we have The Pill the husband just plain doesn't want to be bothered with anything. The only thing on his mind is did SHE remember to take HER Pill or not?

Several months ago I read an item about a birth control pill for men. So far as I know THAT pill has never been perfected. And you can be sure it won't be since most medical research is done by men and they will shunt the responsibility off on the female as long as possible.

We women are partly to blame because we have let the men get away with it. I remember last year an unmarried career girl wrote and asked you if her gentleman friend should share in the cost of The Pill. (She was reluctant to ask him because she "didn't know him well enough to talk about money.")

So please, Ann Landers, will you help me in my crusade to liberate the female by printing this letter? FRAILTY THY NAME.

DEAR FRAIL: When a woman takes a pill it's HER pill, whether it's an aspirin, a vitamin, or what have you — so stop trying to make it a family affair, Lady.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 16-year-old daughter just started to date. Last night she came in at midnight (the agreed curfew) and invited her date to come in to talk.

Her father and I sat up and visited with them until 3:30 a.m. Was this proper? He is such an intelligent lad, we really enjoyed ourselves. How, however, I wonder if perhaps we should have asked the young man to leave earlier. But how does one do this without being rude? Should he have left on his own? Please tell us what is correct. — TIME FLIES

DEAR TIME: How nice that your daughter has such interesting friends, but no boy should sit around until 3:30 a.m.

You should not have asked him to leave; your daughter should have shown him to the door — at about 12:30.

Have an understanding for future dates: Home by midnight and the boy leaves by 12:30. And may I suggest that you and your husband visit with the interesting young man some Sunday afternoon?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Your answer to the woman who asked how to remove prune pits in company proved you don't eat out much. You said a person should put the whole prune in his mouth, eat around the pit and then transport the pit by spoon to the plate.

I don't know where you got this crazy idea but it's wrong. My mother taught us to put the prunes in our mouths and, when no one is looking, spit the pits into a napkin and put them on the plate.

One of the things I admire about you, Ann, is that you are big enough to admit it when you are wrong. I hope you will do so this time. — PROVIDENCE

DEAR PROV: I hate to take sides against your Mom, but spitting pits into a napkin and sneaking them on to the plate is not my idea of good manners.

Do you feel ill at ease . . . out of it? Is everybody having a good time but you? Write for Ann Landers' booklet, "The Key to Popularity," enclosing with your request 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the DAILY PILOT, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Santa Barbara Home Chosen by Newlyweds

After honeymooning in Hawaii, newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Raines will establish their first home in Santa Barbara.

The former Patricia O'Brien, daughter of Mrs. Marjorie O'Brien of Newport Beach, and Edward O'Brien Jr. of San Francisco became Mrs. Raines during a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Dierenfield in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Newport Beach.

Given in marriage by her uncle and godfather, Jack O'Brien of Costa Mesa, the bride wore a silk organza empire gown with venise lace accents. Her illusion veil was caught to a venise lace cape, and forming her bouquet were orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mrs. Michael Dillon was matron of honor, while Miss Francy Duffield served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Leslie Wheatley, Robin Luckett, Clyda Burger, Linda O'Brien, the bride's cousin, and Barbara Tanner.

All wore yellow A-line gowns with venise lace panels. Honor attendants carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies with yellow chrysanthemums. Forming the other bouquets were blue bachelor's buttons and baby's breath. Colleen O'Brien, the bride's cousin, was the flower girl.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Barbara Raines and Arnold Raines of Boston, asked Stuart Robinson to be his best man. Ushers were Larry Heglar, Don Brown, Brooks Escherich, Russ Childs, Warren Wright, Mike Metcalf and Dillon.

Assisting at the reception in the Newport Beach Elks Club were Mrs. Jack O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Anderson, the bride's aunt and uncle and mike O'Brien, the bride's cousin.

Special guests attending were Mrs. Grace Hanson, the bride's great-grandmother and Mrs. Stephen Burt, the bridegroom's sister from Wisconsin.

The bride is a graduate of Corona del Mar High School and the University of California, Santa Barbara where she pledged Chi Omega. Her husband also is a graduate of UCSB where he affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. He is an alumnus of John Muir High School.

Historically Kept 'Under Your Hat'

Some Things Were Always Hidden

From ancient Egypt to the modern discotheque, from clay, papier mache and goat hair to the ultimate refinement of today, wigs always have been with us.

Wigs have been found on Egyptian mummies, and history states that the greatest temptress of the ages, Cleopatra, wore an indigo-colored wig, made of hair filled out with rope, to help charm Marc Antony. (The current Cleopatra, Elizabeth Taylor, is said to own more than 50 wigs and hairpieces.

There is evidence that the cavemen wore wigs made of animal skins; Greek actors wore wigs onstage; fashionable ladies of Rome and Carthage were much addicted to false hair, and "perukes" became an everyday article of costume when Louis XIII of France adopted the usage in 1624.

The fashion for wigs flourished at the court of Louis IV and was brought over to England by Charles II, who began in 1663 to affect a large black wig. Charles may have been the first English monarch to adopt the custom, but it is said that Elizabeth I owned some 80 auburn, orange and gold wigs to cover her thinning hair.

The fashion attained its greatest development under Queen Anne, when the long curls of men's wigs covered the back and shoulders and floated down over the chest.

One of the most interesting styles of colonial days was the "bag wig" for men. The long hair at the back of the wig was tied inside a black taffeta bag, usually with a rosette of black ribbon for decoration.

In England and France, this style was carried to such an extreme that the bag eventually covered the wearer's entire shoulders. The exaggeration at least had the virtue of protecting the wearer's clothing from the pomade and powder of the wig.

Milady's hairdress reached even more preposterous extremes in the many tiered "fontanges" of Louis XIV's court. And, Marie Antoinette is remembered for the yard-high "head" she dictated to fashion before she lost hers. English and colonial women followed the style, although they never carried it to the extremes of the French court.

In colonial days, the wig was an important badge of social rank and to defy the fashion must have taken some courage. Nowadays, it seems no women wants to defy the fashion, because wig-wearing has become as natural as putting on lipstick.

Since 1960, wig-making has become a major industry. It's estimated that 10 million women in this country alone now wear wigs, an increase of more than 900 percent in just seven years. Once the ladies saw Jackie Kennedy wear a wig with aplomb, the fashion took off like a rocket.

The rteail wig business in the United States now grosses close to $400 million.

Hairdressers have had to be re-educated in the handling of wigs. Once reserved for customers with "problem hair" or for entertainers, wigs and wig-dressing now accounts for more than half of most beauty shops' business.

Picture Peeks

by Merwyn

The Green Berets, in Panavision and Technicolor, is being held over at the Mesa Theatre. Film fans enjoy this exciting motion picture that tells the story of the army's newest branch, the Special Forces.

With the cooperation of the State and Defense Departments, the picture was shot on locations from Fort Benning, North Carolina, Fort Rucker in Alabama and the Naval Missile Center, Point Mugu, California.

John Wayne stars as the colonel who hand - picks and personally trains the men who will perform tasks embracing many phases of war. Jim Hutton, Aldo Ray, Raymond St. Jacques and Luke Askew are some of those trained for fighting, serving as espionage agents and soldier-diplomats.

MICHAEL CRAWFORD

David Janssen co-stars as a war correspondent. Irene Tsu appears as a lovely Vietnamese singer and Craig Jue is a "scene-stealer" in his role as an orphan. The Green Berets is based upon a best-seller of the same title.

Sharing the screen at the Mesa is Countdown, an exciting film in Technicolor that puts a man on the moon. Robert Duvall, James Caan, Michael Murphy, Steve Ihnat and Joanna Moore top the cast that reveals the action behind the story of the race to the moon.

COMING SOON: Look to the Lido for the marvelous musical movie Thoroughly Modern Millie. Music by Elmer Bernstein and Andre Previn, showing in Technicolor, here is a spoof of the fads and foibles of the 1920s.

Julie Andrews, Carol Channing and Beatrice Lillie are at their very merriest best. John Gavin, Mary Tyler Moore and James Fox lend terrific support to make Thoroughly Modern Millie a film to see!

Don't Just Stand There is the screen comedy that co-stars Robert Wagner and Mary Tyler Moore along with Glynis Johns and a new, 5-feet-eleven redhead known as Barbara Rhoades. This unusual laugh-maker bows out tomorrow eve along with Closely Watched Trains at the Lido.

DEBBIE WATSON

MESA MATINEES are very popular with Harbor area home-makers because they provide a mid-week, afternoon break from daily duties without interfering with the evening assignments. The programs are every Wednesday afternoon, starting promptly at one o'clock, opening with free refreshments.

FREE PASSES to the Lido or the Mesa will be mailed today to David Garinger, 9152 Gettysburg Drive, Huntington Beach, Dale Mitchell, 3149 Bermuda Drive, Costa Mesa, Carroll V. Foy, 2237 Golden Circle, Newport Beach and S. A. Ogle, 803 N. Bay Front, Balboa Island.

You don't need cash to enjoy the fine films at the Lido and the Mesa. Use your Bankamericard or your Master Charge Card to open the doors to more fun at the movies.

Not 1 Weak Link

'Odd Couple' at Playhouse Funny, Scores Effectively

By TOM TITUS
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Let us begin with the permise that Neil Simon is America's funniest playwright and that "The Odd Couple" is the funniest of his plays, then go from there to the Laguna Playhouse where a completely stageworthy production of this contemporary comic classic is now on display.

This is one of the more foolproof comedies on the circuit. The lines alone are enough to bring down the house without the added hilarity of skilled characterization which the Laguna production has in abundance.

"THE ODD COUPLE"
A comedy by Neil Simon, directed by David Marlow, technical director Paul Toft, costumes by Lisa Surette, presented Thursdays through Sundays until July 14 at the Laguna Playhouse, 319 Ocean Ave., Laguna Beach.

THE CAST

Oscar Madison	Charles Shull
Felix Ungar	Phil Interlandi
Speed	Bob D'Isidoro
Murray	Geoffrey Riker
Roy	Robert Engman
Vinnie	Alan Hart
Gwendolyn	Patricia McQuade
Cecily	Sally Brown

Aside, for the moment, from the mismatched pair of marital losers who comprise the leading roles, Laguna's "Odd Couple" scores most effectively because of its complete and total depth. There is not one weak link in the entire cast — one reason, perhaps, being that auditions produced some of the county's top comic actors vying for lead roles who subsequently accepted the chairs around the poker table.

WELL BALANCED

The result is exceptionally well balanced theater, piling laughter upon laughter at a pace that slows only to allow the audience its full measure of enjoyment. This one is loaded with belly laughs, and it does not take long for the cast to realize this and hold for the inevitable reaction.

The situation is so funny because it is quite plausible — two men in the throes of divorce sharing an apartment in a "marriage" of financial convenience. One is a completely uninhibited, hulking, cigar chomping slob; and the other is a compulsive cleanliness addict, spraying the air and mopping up every five minutes.

Charles Shull, imported from Sherman Oaks for the role of the slovenly Oscar, gives it all the free-swinging, blatant physical comedy at his command. He is at his best on his double takes, overreacting to roomie Felix' neat little observations.

SUBTLE CONTRAST

On the other hand is Phil Interlandi — who has a slight edge in that he makes people laugh for a living — as the prissy, wispy Felix. Playing the role in soft, subtle contrast to Shull, and standing about a head shorter, he makes an excellent foil for the latter's bombast.

Individual accomplishment in an ensemble effort is brought across beautifully by the four poker players — Robert Engman, Alan Hart, Geoffrey Riker and Bob D'Isidoro. Each has his own distinct character, but none is allowed to rise above any of the others.

The flighty Pigeon sisters, a pair of English birds who inject a touch of aborted romance into our heroes' lives, are well interpreted by Patricia McQuade and Sally Brown. Miss Brown, who is not British, apparently has learned a great deal of the dialect from Miss McQuade, who is.

FULL BLOOM

Although the rapport between Shull and Interlandi is not easily established in the first act, it comes into full bloom in the next two as both warm up masterfully to their task. The scene in which Shull goads Interlandi into smashing a teacup is one of the funniest of the play.

David Barlow's direction stands to be applauded for its freedom and fluidity, essential in a vehicle of this sort. His only discernible flaw is in allowing Shull to cup the telephone receiver under his chin when ostensibly talking into it, which is more distracting than the covering of his mouth would be.

"The Odd Couple" is clearly the funniest show of the year at any county theater — the closest challenger being "Barefoot in the Park," another Simon product also done at Laguna. It runs two more weekends, Thursdays through Sundays, at the playhouse, 319 Ocean Ave., Laguna Beach.

Trini Lopez Due At Greek Theater

The "Trini Lopez Show" opens tonight at the Greek Theatre in Griffith Park, combining the talents of two internationally famous entertainers.

It stars Trini Lopez, the Texas - born Singer whose acclaimed recordings and supper club appearances have made him one of the most sought-after young stars in the entertainment world today. His Greek program will include many of his popular songs: "Granada," "Cu-cu-ru-cu-cu Paloma," "If I Had A Hammer" and "Kansas City." David Shriver will conduct the Greek Theatre Orchestra for Lopez.

Special guest star for the show, which will be at the Greek through Saturday, July 13, will be the inimitable Frank Gorshin. Remembered for his portrayal of "The Riddler" on TV's "Batman series, this brilliant performer numbers everyone from Kirk Douglas and Burt Lancaster to Jolson and Karloff among his uncanny impressions. Conducting for Gorshins musical numbers will be Buddy Freed.

The two-man show is the third attraction of the Griffith Park amphitheatre's 16th annual season.

Two Shows Set Dates

Two productions will open in Long Beach late this week, the "Sound of Music," by the Long Beach Civic Light Opera and "Concerts in the Grove," highlighting the San Francisco Committee Players.

"Sound of Music" opens Friday, July 12. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased by calling (213) 438-7097.

The third "Concerts in the Grove," are scheduled for Thursday, July 11 through Saturday, July 13 at 8:30 p.m. in the Soroptimist House Patio at California State College at Long Beach.

Members of the players, a branch group of the original San Francisco Committee, will employ improvisational acting techniques including political satire, commentary on current events and extemporaneous comedy.

New Format For Teevee

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The abolition of violence in popular entertainment such as television is hardly likely because, as Mae West once put it: "Virtue has it own reward but has no sale at the boxoffice." Well, in many cases, anyway.

BUT THE ABOLITION of wholesale brutality and unmotivated sadism is only the negative aspect of the antiviolence argument. The big question, of course, is: What do you use instead? Conflict, without doubt, is the essence of drama.

Yet there are many kinds of conflict, most of them more dramatic than the use of guns and fists. And just as important as the antiviolence crusade is the new need for network officials to take a positive step in the entertainment area:

TO ALLOW, instead of the standard cynicism criticized by Carl Sandburg, genuine feelings of optimism, pleasure, anger and style when writers want to express them — which is often.

For this goes to the roots of an attitude toward the nation itself. Where optimism and pleasure (not the laugh-track kind) and styles are discouraged, the nation gets a very mean, nasty, distorted and cynical view of itself. One needn't be a Pollyanna but there are beautiful things happening too, and significant things, and there are real people and matters worth exploring.

THE NOVELIST Thomas Wolfe once wrote: "It is good to eat, to drink, to sleep, to fish, to swim, to run, to travel to strange cities, to ride on land, sea and in the air upon great machines, to love a woman, to make a beautiful thing."

This is the expression of health, exuberance, of juices joyously flowing in a man who loved life. When is the last time you remember getting that kind of feeling from watching a television entertainment program? Who wouldn't rather be lifted up than put down and thrown into the gutter again?

IN "THE DECLINE of pleasure," Walter Kerr wrote: "We are all of us compelled to read for profit, party for contacts, lunch for contracts, bowl for unity, drive for mileage, gamble for charity, go out for the evening for the greater glory of the municipality, and stay home for the weekend to rebuild the house."

Where, indeed, is the pleasure? Well, there is little doubt that it is often hard to come by in the very uptight circles of most of middle-class, suburban America. And if that is the case, then television might do well to seek it out in other age groups and other social levels throughout the land —using writers and producers and directors from these places. Surely we cannot be satisfied with brute force and cynicism as our chief outlets.

ENTHUSIASM ABOUT life is beautifully contagious. I remember, years ago, reading these words about New York by H. L. Mencken: "If only as spectacle, the city is superb. It has a glitter like that of the Constantinople of he Comneni. It roars with life like the Bagdad of the Sassanians." I was already living in New York when I read those words, yet it made me look at the city with freshness and a new sense of thrilling adventure.

Not long ago, there was a young lady here in Hollywood who trained hard to become a professional dancer. One day she went blind. But despite her affliction, she still loved to dance.

Toni Hewitt Smashes U.S. Swim Mark

Did Announcer Cost CdM Ace a World Record?

By GLENN WHITE
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Did an announcer's oversight cost Corona del Mar's Toni Hewitt a world record in the women's 200 meter butterfly Saturday at the Santa Clara International swim meet staged in Santa Clara?

The fellow on the mike, the father of a Santa Clara swimmer, encouraged the crowd to applaud and "bring home" swimmers who accounted for four world records during the two-day show.

But when Miss Hewitt was steaming in toward a possible global standard in the 200, the gent handling the announcing was dormant and didn't realize a world mark was in the making until the last 10 meters. And by then it was too late.

"If I'd have heard some noise from the crowd there's a chance I'd have gotten the record," the junior at Corona del Mar High said afterward.

"I felt strong throughout the race and you'd be surprised what the cheering of 5,000 people can do to give you a lift that last 100 meters."

Miss Hewitt streaked out in 1:09.5 — 1.3 seconds faster than her first 100 of the '67 race which produced a world and American record of 2:23.6 in the outdoor nationals.

Ada Kok of Holland subsequently reduced the world standard to 2:21.0.

Miss Hewitt was clocked in 2:22.0 at Santa Clara.

She had breezed through the prelims in a nifty 2:24.6 to become the fastest qualifier by six seconds. "I figured I'd do about a 2:27.0," she said later. "But when I found out how fast I'd gone, I felt I had a good chance at breaking my American record.

"It was a letdown when I learned that Ada had decided not to compete," she added. "I was really looking forward to swimming beside her."

Now there is no chance the two greats of women's butterfly action will collide until the Olympic Games in Mexico City this October.

Miss Hewitt bounced back Sunday to win the 100 fly, recording a personal best of 1:05.8 to touch out Diane Giebel for the gold medal.

Miss Giebel turned the distance in 1:06.0.

The Corona del Mar speedster was last after 50 meters, but moved up to second on the turn and then overtook Miss Giebel with 10 meters to go.

In the 200, she forged ahead at 95 meters then surged into a commanding lead at the 150 mark with Miss Giebel again trailing. Miss Hewitt turned the last 50 in 36 flat.

World marks set Saturday included Claudia Kolb's 400-meter individual medley (5:05.4), Greg Buckingham's 400 indo (4:45.1) and the Santa Clara swim club's 400 freestyle relay team (4:01.0).

Greg Fink, former Corona del Mar High flash who now swims for USC, picked up a third in the record breaking 1,500 freestyle with a 17:09.2.

Mexico's Guillermo Echevarria stunned UCLA great Mike Burton for victory and a world record with a 16:28.1. Burton was second in 16:47.1.

Famed Mark Spitz of Santa Clara lived up to his press clippings by winning three events in the meet which attracted competitors from Peru, France, Czechoslovakia, Japan, Mexico, Canada, South Africa, Germany.

All's Quiet at NFL Training Camps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was no activity today, and no announced plans for future negotiations between owners and players in the troubled National Football League.

All was quiet.

The San Francisco 49ers were scheduled to welcome 30 to 40 rookies, but the camp remained closed following an agreement by all NFL club owners to postpone the start of all camps until the dispute with the players is settled.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle, meanwhile, said Sunday he would get in touch with John Gordy, Players Association president who requested that Rozelle step in and help solve the pension problems, which are standing in the way of a settlement.

In Gordy's statement Saturday night, the Detroit Lion guard said the Players Association is willing to meet with the owners at any time and expected a meeting within three days.

There was, however, no word Sunday that such a meeting was forthcoming.

Agreement by the owners not to open their training camps was announced Saturday by Arthur Modell, owner of the Cleveland Browns and president of the NFL.

Lou Spadia, general manager of the 49ers, reiterated Sunday that no training camp functions would get under way at Santa Barbara, Calif., until an agreement is reached.

He said some of the rookies were en route to the camp at the time of the decision and that the club will house and feed them and give them physical examinations. But there will be no workouts, he added.

The Lions had been scheduled to be the next team to begin training, on Tuesday, with the others following daily.

Gordy was the second person to ask Rozelle to step into the dispute.

The first was Jack Kemp, president of the American Football League Players Association.

The AFL players are not involved in the negotiations, but Kemp said the players are sympathetic with the NFL players' cause.

The Buffalo Bills' quarterback said if Rozelle didn't become involved, AFL players would request federal mediation.

The commissioner said he would contact Kemp.

Laguna Ace Breezes To Crown

SANTA BARBARA — Smilin' Bill Toomey, the genial part-time teacher from Laguna Beach, accomplished the goals he set for himself by winning his fourth straight national AAU decathlon championship in weekend competition here.

Toomey easily handled the opposition to nail the unprecedented fourth consecutive crown, which was his foremost ambition. And, he went over 8,000 points (8037), a secondary objective.

Thus he has earned a berth on the U.S. Olympic team.

Actually, there wasn't much to motivate the 29-year-old Laguna flash when Russ Hodge dropped out of competition after two events Saturday.

Toomey wound up the first day with 4,271 points to hold a 499-point bulge over Tom Waddell, his nearest competitor in the 30-man field.

Waddell faded on Sunday, however, finishing 17th. John Warkentin of Fresno State placed runnerup with 7,370.

Toomey will move into high altitude training at South Lake Tahoe in final preparation for the Olympic Games in Mexico City three months hence.

OCIR Pioneered It

High School Drag Races To Be National Event

A special high school team drag championship event pioneered by Orange County Raceway has magnified into national proportion with Ford Motor Co. taking over the program inaugurated by OCIR general manager Mike Jones and his staff earlier this year.

Ford, which had put up part of the prize pot for the Orange County spectacle, believed the project was worthwhile and successful enough to be expanded.

GLENN WHITE

WHITE WASH

So, this fall there will be divisional championships at Jones' oval with winners from the Southwest section competing. That grouping includes Hawaii, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and California.

Assuming that program clicks, the event will be enlarged to national scale and each of the seven division runoff champions will be invited to the U. S. finals which will probably be staged early next summer at Indianapolis.

A lucrative set of prizes will be up for grabs in the county run this year with the industrial arts department of the race winner's school getting $1,000 for the purchase of equipment or to use for scholarships.

Also, the department will receive a 428 cubic inch cobra jet engine. The runnerup school will get a 302 cubic inch motor.

A 6-cylinder engine goes to the third place team's institution and a 4-speed manual transmission to the fourth place outfit.

In all, Ford is investing $2 million in the program — a mighty substantial vote of confidence.

Jones makes no bones about his pleasure that the OCIR production has mushroomed to its current status.

"We really had to sweat our first race out," he confides. "We started working on it two months before it was actually held, yet we didn't get written endorsement from the Board of Education and County Council till the day before competition was scheduled.

"Therefore we lost a lot of on-campus publicity from participating schools who would not mention the event without sanction from those two bodies.

"We were really pleased to have a good turnout by the schools (25 competed) considering all the problems. We figure to get 35 or 40 the next time around," Jones reveals.

"And I'll say this, the crowd that came out (1,600) was the most enthusiastic group we ever had. There was so much emotion involved because of competition between schools. They even had cheerleaders at the track."

Villa Park won the initial show with Western of Anaheim second and Laguna Beach third. The victors invested prize funds in a heliarc welder.

Jones won't take credit for being the brain behind the high school team drag championships. "It was an idea that has been tossed around by various racing people for a long time," he points out.

"But most of them figured there were too many roadblocks — that education people would balk at the idea of supporting such a thing. We (the staff) were talking about it one day and simply decided to go to work on the idea."

From Jones' initiative comes new opportunity for youth.

NOT EVEN CLOSE — It looks close, but St. Louis' Julian Javier was out by three feet on this second-inning rundown at San Francisco Sunday afternoon. Making the tag is Giant pitcher Gaylord Perry, who started the rundown. Umpire is Bill Kibler and first base coach is Dick Sisler. St. Louis beat the Giants, 2-0.

Dodgers Gain 'Ray of Hope' At Box Office

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Dodgers appear destined to finish in the second division for the second year in a row but they're still the box office champions of baseball.

Walter Alston's men were in seventh place and were trying to break a six-game losing streak when they took the field here Sunday.

But the 20,484 who showed up to watch the Dodgers nip Cincinnati, 6-5, raised Los Angeles home attendance to 1,007,087. So the Dodgers are the first team in the majors to reach the one-million mark this year.

They've averaged 23,421 for their first 43 home dates this year and, at that rate, will draw more than 1,800,000 for the season.

Veteran outfielder Len Gabrielson won Sunday's game with a tie-breaking pinch single in the sixth inning. However, Gabrielson collided with shortstop Paul Popovich making a game-ending catch of a foul fly by the Reds' Tommy Helms.

Gabrielson suffered an injury to his ribs and was taken to a hospital for X-rays. It's possible he won't be available Thursday when the Dodgers return to action at Atlanta.

After Pitchers Bombed

Rig Seeks Armored Suits

CLEVELAND (AP) — There's a slight possibility California Angel Manager Bill Rigney will prescribe new uniforms for his bullpen corps—steel helmets and full battle dress.

And the relief hurlers could use the protection. Their normal defense against American League batters — fastballs, curves, sliders and other assorted pitches — doesn't seem to be getting them anywhere.

July 12	Angels vs Boston	7:55 p.m. KMPC (710)

Sunday's twin bill against the Cleveland Indians is a case in point. The Angel hurlers gave up 15 runs on 29 hits in the two games. Despite this, California managed to split the doubleheader, winning 9-7 after absorbing an 8-3 defeat.

Of the 15 runs, 10 were allowed by relief hurlers. They also gave up 14 of the 29 hits. What may be worse, however, is that the bullpen men are beginning to show signs of consistency.

In the last nine games, not including George Brunet's route-going shutout Saturday, relievers have ambled in to the mound 25 times.

They have then proceeded to give up 10 home runs, 34 other assorted hits and 33 runs.

Jim McGlothlin, 6-6, didn't need any help from the bullpen in losing the opener. The 24-year-old right-hander, provided with a one-run lead by his teammates, gave up four runs in the bottom of the first, three of them on Duke Sims' home run.

In the nightcap, the Angels were breezing along with a 7-1 lead in the eighth when Sammy Ellis, who had replaced starter Tom Murphy in the fifth, loaded the bases and gave up a two-run single to Jimmie Hall.

Foyt Winner; Turbines Flop In USAC Race

CASTLE ROCK, Colo. (AP) — Andy Granatelli-designed Lotus turbines made their road racing debut here Sunday. Despite the cheering of 17,500 fans — the largest crowd ever to witness a motor racing event in Colorado — the sleek red whistlers provided another disappointment for their owners and drivers.

A flock of fast Fords, paced by A. J. Foyt's winning Coyote, swept the first four places in the Rocky Mountain 150 at Continental Divide Raceways, one of the U.S. Auto Club's National Championship series.

For turbine drivers Art Pollard of Medford, Ore., and Joe Leonard of San Jose, Calif., the race was the beginning of an education which — they hope — will culminate in a racing victory.

Pit crews on the turbine cars worked into the early morning hours Sunday on brakes systems after the qualifying round Saturday. The four-wheel drive turbines have no engine braking, and the drivers punished the brakes on the 10-turn 2.66 mile course.

Billie Jean Praises Open Tennis

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Mrs. Billie Jean King, Wimbledon queen for the third time, had the last word Monday as professional and amateur tennis stars left the scene of the first open All-England championships.

"The British are right," said the professional star from Long Beach, Calif. "They call us all players, merely players, competing here for money prizes. Yet in other places, some are still called amateurs and play in the Davis Cup.

"We are all in the same boat. We all make our living by playing tennis. Open tennis has proved itself, and I hope the whole world will come to follow Britain's example and call all competitors players."

The British told all Wimbledon competitors they would compete for prize money or just expenses, just as they liked. But they were all termed players, and the words pros and amateurs did not appear in the Wimbledon programs.

Of the $63,600 prize money at stake, roughly half was not paid out because most of the amateurs didn't ask for it. They had not been given permission by their national associations to play for money.

Professionals took some tumbles as the amateurs raised their game and scored upsets. But in the end the pros dominated every title except the mixed doubles.

The organizers paid out the full prize money for the men's singles final — $4,800 to the winner, Corona del Mar's Rod Laver, and $3,120 to Tony Roche, the runner-up. Laver won the final 6-3, 6-4, 6-2.

Mrs. King picked up the women's first prize of $1,800 after her 9-7, 7-5 victory over Australian amateur Judy Tegart. Miss Tegart had chosen to play for expenses only, so the second prize of $1,080 went back into the pot.

Two Australian pros, John Newcombe and Roche, won the men's doubles and split a first prize of $1,920. They defeated fellow Australians Ken Rosewall and Fred Stolle 3-6, 8-6, 5-7, 14-12, 6-3.

Mrs. King and her professional colleague, Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, shared $1,200 by winning the women's doubles title for the second straight year.

NITRO CHAMP — Don Prudhomme, sheathed head to toe here in his fireproof driver's suit, won $1,000 Saturday night at Orange County International Raceway where he won the track's Nitro Championships in the top fuel elimination category. He raced through the quarter mile in 7.17 seconds at 220.58 mph. He defeated 15 other cars to win the event.

Prudhomme Captures Fans, Prizes at Nitro Drag Show

By TOM GORMAN

Don Prudhomme owned the place last Saturday night at the Orange County International Raceway, scene of the Nitro Championships.

After being named the top fuel driver of the year by automotive editors and writers, Prudhomme went on to take top spot in the top fuel eliminations, winning the $1,000 top rpize.

Winning in the Fuel Altereds category was Gary Reed of Montclair, driving his Groundshakers Jr. His feat earned him $600. He had a top time of 8.01 seconds and a top speed of 197.80 m.p.h.

Art Ward's Assassination II took first in the funny car class; he also took home $1,000. His top speed was 188.28 with his fastest time being 7.89 seconds.

But the 8,300 race fans were watching Prudhomme all the way. His winning streak started when he was named the recipient of the Mike Sorokin Memorial Award, given to the best driver in the top fuel category, with consideration given to both skill and sportsmanship. He proved he had both Saturday night.

The award, and the Mike Sorokin Memorial Safety Fund, has been initiated to promote safety in the sport. Sorokin died of injuries he received at the Raceway last December 30 when the clutch assembly exploded at nearly 200 miles per hour and cut his car in half.

After the fund has been established through a percentage of the proceeds from the annual "Nitro Championships" and by contributions, the Raceway can act upon any conditions which pose an unusual threat to drag race drivers. Proposals will be solicited from manufacturers, associations and any individuals who because of their experience and fields of endeavor are most capable of reaching a solution to the problem. A contract will be awarded to that person or firm offering the best proposal. Hopefully, through the establishment of this fund, Mike Sorokin's death will not have been in vain.

The Nitro Championships featured 16 car fields in top fuel, fuel altered, and funny car classes. With a line up like that, one prepares himself for plenty of noise, smoke, eye-burning fumes, more smoke, beautiful cars, and more noise, smoke and eye-burning fumes.

Along with the cars, they received an added attraction in the form of Bob Herendeen's aerobatic exhibition and the "Mad Motorcyclist" Ken Brown of Costa Mesa.

Still, the action centered around Prudhomme's runs, the fastest being 7.17 seconds at 220.18 m.p.h. His Shelby Super Snake outlasted the other 15 cars, and his victory in the final run resulted in a wild roar of approval from the crowd.

New Bride Wins Open Golf Title

READING, Pa. (AP) — Someone said to Mrs. Susie Maxwell Berning: "You don't look or act like a girl who has just won the prestige title of women's golf — the U.S. Women's Open Championship."

The tiny, hazel-eyed bride of seven weeks paused and then replied: "It's hard to believe you could win a tournament when you play the last three holes the way I did. Maybe this is why I don't feel elated. I feel fortunate to have won."

Mrs. Berning won top prize of $5,000 in the 16th annual open Sunday with a final round par, 35-36-71 over the 6,232-yard-Moselem Springs Golf Club course for a 72-hole total of 289.

She prevailed by three strokes over blonde Mickey Wright, the four time national queen, who made a belated but futile charge at the 113-pound winner from Incline Village, Nev.

Miss Carol Mann, the veteran pro from Towson, Md., carded a final 38-37-75 and wound up tied for third with Marilynn Smith of Jupiter, Fla., who shot a final round 36-37—73. They each had 72-hole totals of 295.

AL Stars, Tired Hurlers Check in at 'The Dome'

HOUSTON (AP) — The American League All-Stars got their first look at the Astrodome's synthetic turf today but Manager Dick Williams probably was preoccupied surveying his somewhat overworked pitching staff.

Every one of the AL's seven hurlers worked either Saturday or Sunday which means that whoever gets the starting nod against the Nationals in Tuesday's All-Star classic will be working with a maximum of two days rest.

Detroit's Denny McLain, a 16-game winner and the logical starting choice, went the route beating Oakland Sunday and had disqualified himself before that, saying there was no way he could pitch Sunday and come back Tuesday.

"My first responsibility," said McLain, "is to the Detroit Tigers," a sentiment echoed by his Manager, Mayo Smith, who happens to be one of Williams' coaches.

Mel Stottlemyre of New York also pitched a complete game Sunday but did not rule himself out. "I could pitch an inning or so on Tuesday," he said.

Three other AL pitchers, Tommy John of Chicago, John "Blue Moon" Odom of Oakland and Cleveland's Luis Tiant, also worked on Sunday and the remaining two members of the staff, Sam McDowell of the Indians and Boston's Gary Bell, both worked Saturday.

Manager Red Schoendienst of the National League has a well-rested staff and was expected to name Don Drysdale, Los Angeles' record-setting right-hander, as his starting pitcher.

Starters Set

HOUSTON (AP) — Right-handers Don Drysdale of Los Angeles and Luis Tiant of Cleveland were named the starting pitchers Monday for Tuesday night's Major League All-Star baseball game.

Drysdale, the NL starter, has a 10-5 won-lost record and 1.37 earned run average. Tiant of the AL has a 14-5 record and a 1.24 ERA.

Drysdale, who pitched 58 2/3 scoreless innings breaking Walter Johnson's record earlier this season, last worked Friday night and will have his standard three-days of rest if Schoendienst chooses to use him Tuesday.

Injuries have forced two changes on the National League squad and will make a starter out of San Francisco's great Willie Mays.

Pete Rose of Cincinnati, chosen to start in the outfield, suffered a broken thumb over the weekend and will be out of action for a month. Schoendienst named Chicago's Billy Williams to fill Rose's spot but figures to give the starting nod to Mays, who was the fourth highest vote-getter among the NL's outfielders.

Cincinnati's Leo Cardenas was chosen to replace Gene Alley of Pittsburgh, who is nursing a shoulder injury.

$10,000 Mistake Burns Hill

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP) — Tom Weiskopf describes golf as "a game of mistakes, whether they come early or late."

PGA tour rookie Mike Hill's mistake came late and it cost him a shot at the $125,000 Buick Open at Warwick Hills Sunday.

Hill missed a five-foot putt for a par on the 18th green and Weiskopf backed into the championship. Both players were tied, eight strokes under par for the tournament, when Hill's putt slid by the hole on the left side.

"It was just a terrible putt," said Hill, of nearby Jackson, Mich. "The minute I hit it I knew I missed it."

The bad hit cost Hill, younger brother of tour veteran Dave Hill, $10,000.

That was the difference between Weiskopf's $25,000 first prize and the $15,000 that went to Hill.

Rod Horn, another tour rookie from Overland Park, Kan., finished third, two strokes behind Weiskopf's eight-under-par winning total of 280.

Bob Lunn and Rocky Thompson, both making late charges, finished in a tie for fourth at 283.

Clark Seeks More Ammo For Liston

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The next time Henry Clark goes stalking the Big Bear, he's going to be armed with more ammunition.

"I'm going to take a week's vacation and then train twice as hard," said the 23-year-old Clark after the Bear, Sonny Liston stopped him Saturday at 2:47 of the seventh round in a nationally televised bout scheduled for 10.

"I just couldn't get going and I wasn't strong enough," added Clark. "But I think I can beat him."

The rugged Liston, who was a pro when Clark was only 8, won his seventh straight — all by knockouts — since he lost to Cassius Clay for the second time three years ago.

Tragedy in France

Sub for Gurney Killed in Race

ROUEN, France (AP) — Jo Schlesser, a jovial 40-year-old Frenchman whose whole life revolved around auto racing, became the fourth driver to lose his life this year when his new model Honda crashed and exploded in the Grand Prix of France race Sunday.

He got his ride at the last minute when Dan Gurney of Corona del Mar decided that his Eagle was not ready to return to the Grand Prix circuit.

Jim Clark, one of the greatest racers of all time, was killed April 7, on the Hockenheim circuit in Germany. Mike Spence was killed during the Indianapolis trials May 7. Ludovico Scarfiotti, 1963 co-winner at LeMans was killed June 8 while making a reconnaissance run over the Rossfeld Mountain circuit in Germany.

Schlesser, a veteran of rallies, sports car competitions and Formula 2 and Formula 3 races in Europe and the United States, was making his first try in a Formula 1 race counting for the World Driving Championship.

That left a place open in the race for the new V-12 model RA302 Honda which was entered in competition for the first time. John Surtees, the regular Honda driver, tested the car in England last week but gave the opinion that it needed more adjustment before being put into a race.

Schlesser skidded coming out of a curve, on the track made slick by rain, and the magnesium bodied car rolled up an embankment and exploded.

DEATH MARS GRAND PRIX

COTATI, Calif. (AP) — The finals of the Golden Gate Grand Prix races at Cotati Raceway claimed the life of amateur driver Mike Wright of Los Altos.

The 32-year-old Lockheed technical artist and racer for six years was pronounced dead of head injuries Sunday at Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital an hour after his Morgan bounded into the air at the first turn and crashed into a steep bank.

The feature sports car race was won handily by Merle Brennan, a 40-year-old Reno auto dealer driving a Chevrolet Genie. He averaged 80.4 miles per hour over the 21 laps of the two-mile course.

LOS ANGELES — Mumblings of the Monday Muse . . .

DEPT. OF THEY TELL ME . . .

The books regard the National League as a stronger favorite than the posted prices indicate . . . The feeling is the Nationals have the pitching and Houston's Astrodome is not exactly a hitters' paradise.

As a matter of fact, one could do worse than take the appropriate odds and bet the National League to win by a shutout . . . The idea behind this is the three arms the Nationals have going for them in Don Drysdale, Bob Gibson and Juan Marichal.

The striking National Football League players will open strike headquarters near all training sites . . . Those are picket lines few will dare to cross.

If the public relations men have anything to say about it, the expansion teams of baseball will be in no rush to name field managers . . . Speculation on the managers is an excellent source of ink and baseball has always been better than any other sport in capitalizing on such things . . . incidentally, Joe Adcock is no longer regarded as a sure thing to pilot the Seattle Pilots.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEPT. OF HO HUM . . . Pro football owners begrudgingly gave in to player demands to be paid for exhibition games . . . At no time, however, did the owners give consideration to permitting the public to view the contests without charge.

Jimmy Ellis will defend his version of the heavyweight championship against Floyd Patterson . . . When Patterson was champion, he defended against a parade of bums . . . Now he joins the parade.

DEPT. OF ONE MAN'S OPINION . . .

The strike of National Football League players will not amount to much . . . One reason is that the players' demands are not unreasonable, particularly in the area of pension funds . . . Even if the NFL players get what they are asking, they will still fall short of baseball's pension benefits.

It is also difficult to imagine the proposed Olympic boycott amounting to much . . . It is almost impossible to see what the athletes would gain, either as individuals or as a group . . . From now on, however, there may always be a Harry Edwards.

He will not come out and say as much, but Vin Scully is giving serious thought to quitting as Dodger broadcaster . . . Scully is weary of the road and says he can make as much money making commercials . . . One of the things that might have started Scully thinking is that Sandy Koufax almost matches his salary working one day a week.

If Buddy Blattner leaves the Angels to broadcast for the new Kansas City club, it will be still another talent raid on Southern California teams . . . Most of the executive people have come from the Dodgers and Angels . . . It is a feather in the cap of the two organizations, but one they would just as soon not have to wear.

DEPT. OF HA HA . . . The trainer told the owner the horse was ready and advised a sizeable wager. The owner bet a bundle and the animal developed a serious case of the slows and finished a highly distinctive last.

After the race the owner went to the trainer and said, "The way to cure that bum is to put a little piece of lead in his ear."

"How," the trainer asked, "would I get a piece of lead in his ear?"

"With a pistol," the owner replied.

Rustlers 'Scent' Top Spot

By RAY PLUTKO
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Golden West College moved back into the Metro League baseball pennant race Sunday as the Rustlers swept both ends of a doubleheader, defeating Cal State College (Fullerton) and Santa Ana College by identical 8-3 scores.

In fact the win over Santa Ana knocked the Dons out of first place, while the Rustlers climbed to within two games of the top perch.

Orange County Metro League Team	W	L	T	GB
Chapman	6	1	1	...
Santa Ana	6	2	1	½
Ward's Pirates	5	3	1	1½
Golden West	4	3	2	2
Long Beach City	1	6	2	5
Cal State	0	7	3	6

Meanwhile, Ward's Pirates remained right in the thick of things as the Bucs came back under the lights for a 5-4 win over Long Beach City College — having dropped a 2-0 decision to Chapman College earlier in the day.

Chapman, two-time defending champion, claimed the lead with the win over the Orange Coast College entry, but it's a slim one as Santa Ana is one-half game behind and the Pirates 1½ off the pace.

Don Neugebauer's two-run triple in the first inning sparked the Rustlers' win over Santa Ana, while pitcher Jim Demase's triple was the key hit in the initial triumph over Cal State.

SMOKING GOLF BALLS

TOKYO — Anyone interested in golf balls that trail smoke when hit off a tee? They're supposed to improve your game.

An enterprising Japanese has invented golf balls that emit red, blue or yellow smoke when struck to enable the player to keep an eye on his drive or his out-of-bounds shot.

The balls resemble regular golf balls except for a tiny hole in the center. A tiny spark sets off the smoke.

The inventor guarantees they're not dangerous. They sell for 50 cents each. They come in three colors but are good for one shot only.

Soccer Great

Pele Motivated When Behind

By GLENN WHITE
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

LOS ANGELES — If there is one thing that motivates world soccer great Pele to demonstrate his greatness, it's being behind on the scoreboard.

So it was in the 1958 World Cup finals against Sweden when the young Brazilian great saw his mates fall quickly behind, 1-0. The lad, then 17, took the ball and threatened Swedish defenders till he reached the goal area. Then he slammed in a shot to tie the score as Brazil went on to win the cup.

And so it was Saturday night at Memorial Coliseum as Pele paced a Santos explosion that turned a 1-0 deficit into a 4-1 lead and eventual 4-3 victory over Necaxa of Mexico before 12,418 fans.

Victory kept Santos unbeaten in six starts during its tour of the United States. Pele and his mates face Boston tonight, Cleveland on Wednesday and the New York Generals on Sunday to wrap up the agenda.

Pele had missed two open shots the first half as the two forces fought to a scoreless deadlock for 45 minutes, largely due to excellent play by goalies Gylmar of Santos and Antonio Mota of the losers.

Then Necaxa broke the snarl in the 56th minute as Javan Marino lobbed a ball over Gylmar's head to make it 1-0.

At the juncture Pele took over and 18 minutes later Santos was in command, 4-1.

Pele, salaried at $250,000 a year, showed his high priced wares amply after mate Oberdam had equalized the count, 1-1.

The super star drove for a shot, had it blocked, then recovered to slam in the rebound effort to give Santos a 2-1 edge in the 65th minute.

Two minutes later it was Pele again, weaving through the defense and somehow outmaneuvering three challengers to move in front of the net. Then he quickly passed to Toninho and the latter connected.

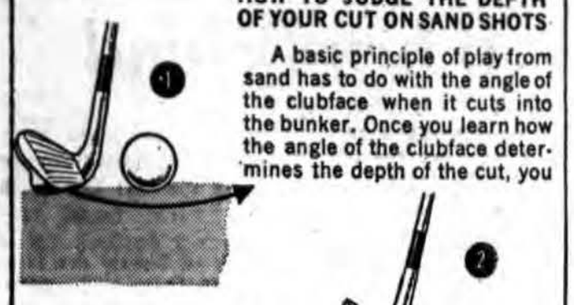
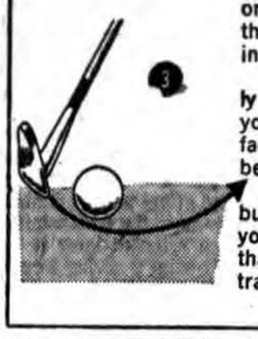
HOW TO JUDGE THE DEPTH OF YOUR CUT ON SAND SHOTS



A basic principle of play from sand has to do with the angle of the clubface when it cuts into the bunker. Once you learn how the angle of the clubface determines the depth of the cut, you will be better able to execute the shot you need at a given time.

For instance, on a shot from a good lie in the sand you will want to make a shallow cut. Therefore you should "open" or lay back your clubface, since this will avoid cutting too deep into the sand (illustration #1).

On shots to dislodge a slightly buried ball (illustration #2), you should go to a square clubface position so as to cut well beneath the ball.



However, on shots with a buried ball (illustration #3), you must close your clubface so that you will get maximum penetration into the sand.

Cardinals Nail 7-0 Triumph

Fountain Valley continues to roll on undefeated in the National Baseball Congress of Orange County League after chalking up its seventh straight win on the campaign.

The Cardinals blanked Placentia, 7-0, behind the 18-strike out performance of Jim Slagle at Fountain Valley High, Sunday.

Costa Mesa's Comets, meanwhile, lost again, this time 6-3 to Westminster.

Slagle, winning pitcher in all seven of the Cards' wins, has struck out 87 in the span.

In the first round against Placentia, he cooled a like number of 18 batters.

In limiting the Placentia nine to three hits, Slagle earned his second shutout in the last four starts.

Fountain Valley's offense came with three runs in the sixth and three more in the eighth after opening up matters in the first stanza wih a single tally.

Dick Hefler homered with none out to get the sixth inning rally started and then Craig Glass doubled home two after Dave Spiller and Ron Thomas made it safely via an error and a single.

The Cardinals wrapped it up in the eighth when a single, walk and error loaded the bases and Barry Wallace came through with a hot smash to second.

Fountain Valley takes time off from the loop wars to travel to San Bernardino Sunday to battle Santa Ana in the opening round of the All-Southern California National Baseball Congress Tournament at 11 a.m.

Midway Drops Key Clash

By ROGER CARLSON
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Midway City blew a golden opportunity to virtually wrap up the District 29 National Division crown as it dropped a 9-3 decision to the Fullerton Dodgers on Sunday night.

Midway City had won 10 straight and had a 2½ game lead over the Dodgers prior to Sunday's clash.

Newport Harbor's American Legion baseball nine split two league encounters over the weekend to run its loop output to a 4-8 record in the National Division.

Saturday at Te Winkle Park in Costa Mesa, the Newporters lost an 8-2 decision to Tustin, but came back Sunday afternoon to blister Son-Low to the tune of 11-3 on 16 base hits at the loser's diamond.

Newport's 16-hit win was led by Jeff Malinoff, who went four-for-five with two RBI's and Mike Paul's two-for-five display, including four RBI's.

The invaders scored twice in the third, fifth and seventh innings sandwiched around a five-run outburst in the fourth frame.

Dan Clark and Dave Barton started things off for Newport in the fourth with singles and Rich Fielder and Gary Foster added two more singles along with Ron Martin's walk.

Malinoff then unloaded a double for the key hit of the stanza.

Tom King was the key in both the fifth and seventh frames. He led off the fifth with a triple and scored later when Clark squeezed him home and then came back in the seventh with a single.

He eventually came home on Clark's triple.

Paul was the winning pitcher, hurling the last six innings to get the verdict. He struck out five in the process.

Newport Sailors Pick Up Trophies at Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA — While landlubbers were bounced around by a daily series of earth tremors over the long Fourth of July weekend, sailing and powerboat skippers here for the Southern California Yachting Association Midsummer Regatta went about their hobby of collecting hardware to take home to their respective trophy cases.

The action — on land on sea — started Thursday with the Isham Trophy predicted log race for power boats from Palos Verdes Point to the Channel Islands Yacht Club at Oxnard.

Winner of the event was veteran predicted logger Frank C. Ruppert of Long Beach Yacht Club in his Reveller VI. Ruppert finished the race with the remarkably low percentage of error of .636. Runner-up was Harry Palmer's Crest from Huntington Harbour Yacht Club with an error of 1.513, and third was Lou Gandelman's Temptation from Del Rey Yacht Club with an error of 3.332.

The Class B winner in the predicted log contest was Frank J. Ruppert of West Coast Yacht Club with an error of 12.710 in his Cork II.

Sailing activity on Thursday was confined to Santa Barbara Yacht Club and Channel Islands Yacht Club, Ventura Yacht Club and San Luis Yacht Club — the other two host clubs for the SCYA classic got into the action on Friday and Saturday. The regatta ended Sunday.

In addition to the earthquakes, the weather was not of the best for the windjammers as overcast skies and light winds prevailed most of the four days.

Newport Harbor Sailors picked up their share of trophies at the event.

In the Sir Thomas Lipton Trophy race for the International Star Class, Malin Burnham's Chatterbox from San Diego Yacht Club was the winner, but three Newport Star skippers were among the first five in the 22-boat fleet. Chuck Lewsadder of NYHC was third, Barton Beek was fourth and Bob Davis was fifth.

George Sturges' Columbia-50-Release from NHYC won Class B Ocean Racing, and Jack Bibb of Balboa Yacht Club was the winner in the K-40 Class.

New Loran Receiver Eases Navigation

A new "A" and "C" loran receiver which reduces loran navigation almost literally to simple chart work has been introduced by Benmar Division of Computer Equipment Corp., Santa Ana, manufacturers of Bendix Marine products.

It is the new Benmar automatic tracking loran receiver Model ATL-730. Once the desired loran station is selected — whether A or C, the ATL-730 synchronizes and tracks the master and slave signals automatically and continuously, and displays the time difference in large digits. The navigator simply reads the number and plots his position in the routine way.

Other features of the ATL-730 include illuminated station indication, independent master and slave controls, and a fine delay tuning control which is precise to within one microsecond, and a selection of four A stations plus C.

In addition, the ATL-730 provides a full complement of "human engineered" controls for manual operation to enable an operator to utilize even the weakest of loran signals.

Complete information on the unit can be obtained by writing to Benmar Division, Computer Equipment Corp., 3000 W. Warner St., Santa Ana. Benmar is the sole manufacturer of the famous line of Bendix Marine products, representing more than 20 years service to the marine industry in loran systems, automatic pilots, depth sounders, direction finders, radiotelephones and radar systems.

Busy Time Slated for I-14 Class

International-14 Class Sailors will have a busy six days starting July 15 as both the West Coast and National championship regattas are scheduled in Southern California.

South Coast Corinthian Yacht Club will host the West Coast Championship Regatta which gets under way July 15 at Marina del Rey.

Five races are scheduled for the three days, July 15-16-17. Trophies at stake are the West Coast Plaque for the series winner, take-home trophies for the first five places, and the Hearst Trophy for the first boat from other than the home fleet.

The National Championship Regatta is scheduled July 19-20-21 at Alamitos Bay with the Alamitos Bay Yacht Club as host. Trophies for this series include the Founder's Trophy for the series winner, take-home trophies for the first five, the President's Trophy for the entry from the longest distance, Humphrey Bogart Trophy for the first woman, either skipper or crew, Sherwood Trophy for the high scorer in the first four races.

Kialoa II Battling For Lead

TRAVEMUENDE, Germany (AP) — With a good tail wind and spinnakers ballooning the Transatlantic yacht race saw America's Kialoa II and the German yacht Germania VI battle for the lead Monday.

The West German naval tender Westerwald reported from the course that Kialoa II, skippered by John B. Kilroy of Newport Beach, Calif., had passed the Dutch yacht Stormvogel to take the lead in the fifth day of racing.

Shortly afterwards Germania VI radioed that it had overtaken Kialoa II.

The Westerwald reported that all four leading boats were within 20 nautical miles of each other. Westerwald's placings were: 1. Kialoa II, 2. Germania VI, 3. Ondine III, skippered by Sumner Long of New York, and 4. Stormvogel, skippered by C. Bruynzeel of Zaandam, Netherlands.

The leading boats were now about 790 miles along the 3,534 miles course.

Tahiti Communications

Ham Operators Praised

Sponsors of long distance yacht races can take a lesson in communications from the 3,571-mile Los Angeles to Tahiti race.

With escort virtually precluded because of the distance, ham (amateur) radio operators have done a yeoman's job in keeping the yachting world advised of the progress of the race.

The communications station is aboard Jacob Wood's ketch Chiriqui and is manned by Lyle Nelson. W6OFF maritime mobile.

Nelson rounded up the position of the other yachts by the regular ship-to-ship radio aboard all of the boats, and then transmitted the positions and other messages to the mainland where it was picked up by several hams.

Official receiving station for the Tahiti race was Ray K. Carter, Long Beach (K60BA), but several other Southland hams also monitored the broadcasts.

Other Long Beach hams in on the network were Samuel LeBow (WB6FJC) and John Lovci (W6JFY).

Carroll D. Hudson of Newport Beach monitored the network and aided in passing messages from the crew by way of "phone patch." Hudson handled the ham network on the recent Ensenada race.

LIDO-14 B (13) — No. 2414, Phil Glasgow, BYC; (2) Red Baron, Terry Moran, LIYC; (3) Julie II, Fred Toepel, VYC.

KITE A (21) — (1) Andele, Pat Scruggs, NHYC; (2) Duke, John Daigh, NHYC; (3) Spectre, Jay Lawrence, BYC.

FIRST TO TAHITI — Henry Wheeler's Aranji confounded the experts by beating Tom Corkett's Salacia to Papeete in the 3,571-mile Los Angeles to Tahiti race. Aranji was also the overall handicap winner. Aranji's crew was Dan Elliott, sailingmaster; Bill Lilly, navigator; Frank Person, Rick Hambleton, Dave Woods and Robert Clark, all of Newport.

Aranji Beats Salacia In LA to Tahiti Race

Crews of four of the six yachts in the 3,571-mile Los Angeles to Tahiti race were whooping it up on the beach at Papeete today as the other two struggled to finish.

First to finish at 26 after midnight PDT Saturday was Henry Wheeler's 47-foot ketch Aranji from Newport Beach but flying the burgee of the Lahaina (Hawaii) Yacht Club.

Tom Corkett's Cal-48 sloop Salacia from Newport Harbor Yacht Club — the pre-race favorite — was second to finish at 1:58 a.m. Saturday.

Jacob Wood's 61-foot ketch Chiriqui — the scratch boat finished at noon PDT Saturday.

Finish time of Fuller Callaway's Columbia-50 sloop Rapture, St. Francis Yacht Club, was not known, but at noon Saturday she was only 110 miles from the finish with an 18-20 knot wind.

Doug Starkweather's Columbia-36 yawl, Star Dancer, was disabled with rudder trouble Saturday some 500 miles from Tahiti and Ed Spaulding's Misty turned and went to her assistance.

There was no direct report from Tahiti Sunday, but a ham radio broadcast from the SS Monterey, monitored by Carroll D. Hudson of Newport Beach, said the two yachts could be heard on ship-to-ship radio reporting they were about 300 miles from Tahiti.

Star Dancer was proceeding under power after receiving fuel from a French freighter. Misty was presumably continuing under sail.

The race fleet apparently never got into the expected doldrums near the equator. During the latter stages of the race the leaders were reporting 20-30 knot winds with green seas combing their decks.

It was presumed that conditions such as these caused Star Dancer to lose her rudder.

Recall Reagan? No!

Gov. Ronald Reagan may have disappointed some of those Californians who voted him into the governorship of the nation's largest state in his first try for public office.

He has made many mistakes, but probably no more than many another freshman governor before him.

Most certainly, he has not erred to the extent that Californians would go to the lengths to formally recall him from office.

Yet the threat of a recall movement is being used as a political weapon against him. Only about 130,000 more signatures, of the 780,000 required, were needed at last reckoning to put his recall on the November ballot. This would — no matter what the later outcome of the voting — embarrass him in the interim at the presidential nominating convention at Miami.

The right of recall for California citizens was put into the state's constitution as a last recourse against corruption by, or in, the administration of an elected official.

No charges of corruption in any form have been leveled against Reagan or those he has appointed to administer the state's affairs. On the contrary, there is every reason to believe that the administration has a remarkable number of men of integrity.

The recall movement is motivated solely by political differences with the stance Reagan has taken on various issues. None of these differences warrant a move to recall him, much less embarrass him by the fact of a recall election based on politics.

Abuse of a "right" is the surest way to lose it.

The attempt to recall Governor Reagan is clearly an abuse of the citizens' right to relief from a corrupt administration.

Many signers of the recall petitions are now complaining that they were duped into signing. They say they were led to believe it was a petition to the governor and Legislature to reduce property taxes. (Misrepresentation of a petition is a felony, punishable by a fine of up to $5,000 and a prison term of up to two years. The same sentence can be applied to anyone filing a petition that knowingly contains false signatures.)

Local signers who wish to withdraw their signatures may do so by saying so in writing to County Clerk William St John, Court House, Santa Ana, or to a registrar of voters.

Those who have not signed should reject the petition as a misuse of the democratic process.

Nixon vs. Humphrey

No matter what one's personal political leanings may be, the present prospect of a presidential race between Richard Nixon and Hubert Humphrey has its disturbing aspects — disturbing in terms of popular reaction to the "system."

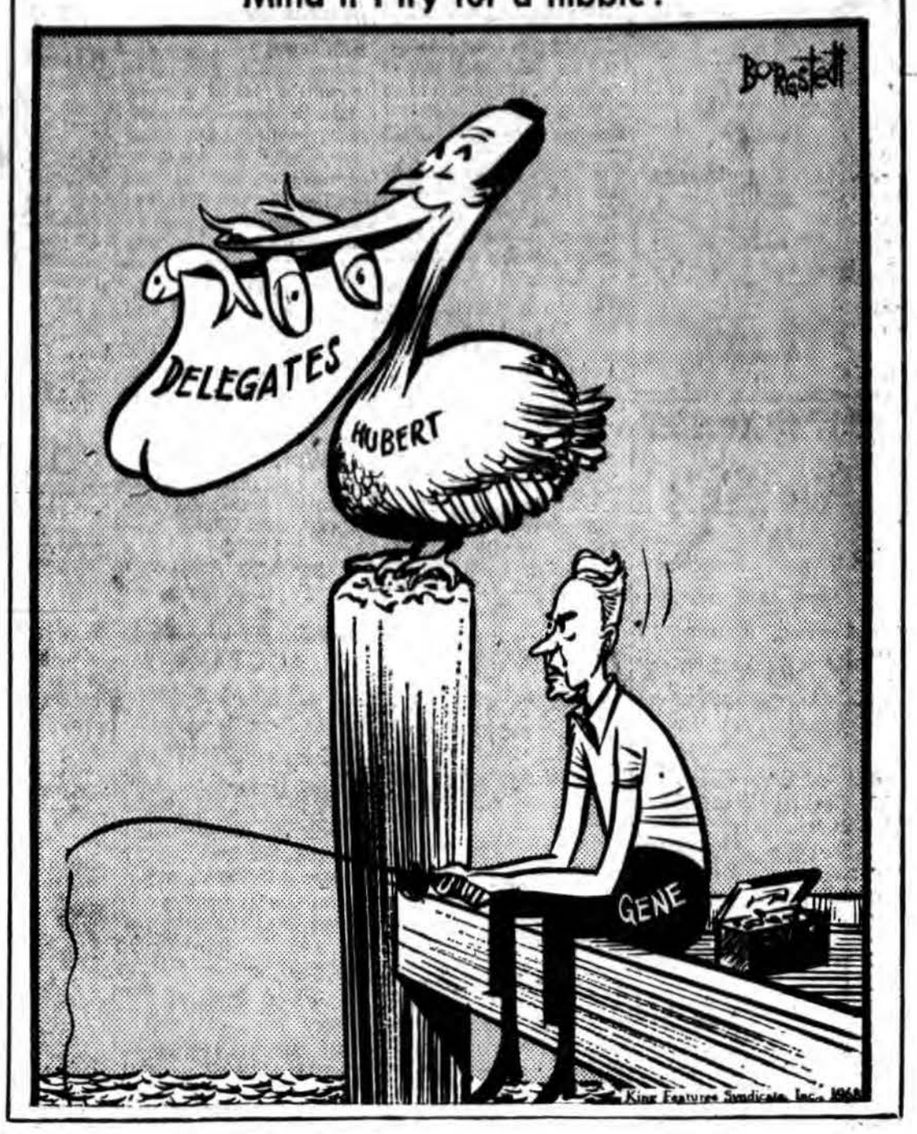
A great many voters in the Democratic Party clearly feel that if Humphrey is nominated the wishes of the rank and file will have been thwarted. And a large number of Republicans are sure to feel the same way if the party wheelhorses nominate Nixon, regarded by many as having a "losing" image.

The same disturbing questions are raised almost every four years when the non-political American begins to realize again how his presidential politics is organized.

Then, amidst the clamor and razzle-dazzle of the inauguration, he forgets it until the next election.

There are many things wrong with both the nominating system and the electoral college in American politics. But those who want a change are going to have to fight a sustained battle — not an every-four-year one.

'Mind if I try for a nibble?'



'Propaganda' Is Now All Bad

Sydney Harris

In Ceylon, which is the world's largest exporter of tea, there is a group called the "Tea Propaganda Board." This is surely one of the few honest names remaining in the promotion and publicity field.

The Propaganda Board spreads propaganda about tea — such as the recent announcement by scientists at the Bio-Chemical Division of the University of California that, after 14 years of research they have found that tea drinking actually reduces the incidence of cerebral coronary thrombosis.

OF COURSE, IF scientists elsewhere reported that tea drinking increased the incidence of some other ailment, we would not expect the Tea Propaganda Board to pass along that bit of information. It is frankly and openly a biased agency, not pretending to be anything but.

The word "propaganda" has fallen into disrepute in this century, and propagandists call themselves by a dozen different names — information specialists, promotion experts, public relations counselors, and so on. Yet, the origin of the word "propaganda" is not only innocent, it is positively wreathed in piety.

MORE THAN 300 years ago, in 1622, Pope Gregory XV established a "college" consisting of a committee of Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church, having the care and oversight of foreign missions. This was known as Congregatio de propaganda fide — college for propagating the faith.

To "propagate" simply means to spread or disseminate; and "propaganda," from that verb, at first meant merely to spread the faith, to disseminate the creed of Catholicism among the heathen, by preaching and writing. There was no imputation of gross bias or half-truths.

BUT, AS RELIGIOUS enmities grew more fierce, and as arguments became more intense, "propaganda" came to mean any piece of verbal ammunition that one side might throw at another. The word gradually became discredited, until today it is impossible to use it in its original sense. All "propaganda" is bad in our eyes.

It is refreshing that such a backwater of the English language as Ceylon however, should continue to use the word in its proud and non-derogatory sense. The Tea Propaganda Board is spreading the creed of tea drinking to those infidels who prefer other beverages. It disdains calling itself by some softer, more euphemistic, name. If it ever becomes the "Tea Promotion Board," we will know that the coffee people have it on the run.

High Court Gives Police A Break

Royce Brier

If a group of youths pace back and forth before a store window in an American street at midnight, can an observing policeman stop them and search them for evidence they are planning a felony? Or must he wait until a brick is heaved through the window to act?

Recently the United States Supreme Court, 8-1, Justice Douglas dissenting, held the policeman need not wait. In the case before the court, one man was carrying a loaded gun, resulting in arrest, conviction and appeal.

The appeal was based on the Fourth Amendment, which says the people shall be "secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects," and that no warrant shall issue but upon "probable cause . . . particularly describing the place to be seized."

IN AMERICA SINCE the beginning, and in most civilized societies, peace officers have been stopping and searching what are ungrammatically called "suspicious" persons, particularly at night. As a practical matter they cannot conform to the letter of the Fourth, because a warrant meeting the conditions is not immediately available.

These stop-and-search cases have been what we call reasonable, so long as they have not been used to harass an individual or group where no bona fide cause for suspicion exists.

Doubtless the process has been so sed by the police in many cases. uveniles out too late at night, and ately Negroes in groups, have been accosted in the theory they are up to mischief, when the officer has no clear dea what mischief he expects.

BUT ANY WELL-MANAGED police orce carefully indoctrinated in law and rights can minimize such abuses, though this is difficult where a disorderly situation already exists.

The Supreme Court in a series of recent decisions has been stern in imposing restraints on police and prosecuting authorities under Amendments Four, Five and Six.

The public officers have bitterly complained of these restraints, and while the restraints have made some difficulty and even an occasional miscarriage of justice, they have in general raised the quality of law enforcement.

BUT A POLICEMAN on a night beat is in a position differing entirely from that of a detective who has been working up a case against a suspect. His life and the lives and property of others may be in the balance in a period of a few moments.

Chief Justice Warren wrote the decision holding that search of suspects is legal when "a reasonably prudent man in the circumstances would be warranted in the belief his safety and that of others is in danger."

It would perhaps be better if the amendment could be amended by adding such clause, but amending the Constitution wasn't meant to be easy. Meanwhile, it is in effect amended by this interpretation, and it is unlikely to bring an intolerable or even appreciable enlargement of the "police brutality" syndrome.

'FBI Has Honored Limitations'

Hoover Rebuts McCarthy

By J. EDGAR HOOVER
Director, FBI

Guest Editorial

It has been alleged by a prominent candidate for the Presidency of the United States that the FBI under my leadership operates autonomously and without proper control. This charge, of course, is not true, and it denotes either a contrived effort to mislead the public or a woeful lack of knowledge of our governmental system of "checks and balances."

As most informed citizens know, there are definite limitations upon the FBI, its authority and its operations, all of which I consider most essential and which the FBI has meticulously honored over the years. First of all, the FBI, as the investigative arm of the Department of Justice, is directly answerable to the Attorney General. He is promptly and fully informed on all aspects of this bureau's activities. Our administrative and investigative operations are subject to his control.

FURTHER, THE Bureau of the Budget keeps close tabs on the FBI just as it does on other federal agencies, and we must justify and account for every cent of our appropriations. Likewise, the General Accounting Office reviews and audits our expenditures. FBI operations and investigations come under close scrutiny of the House and Senate Appropriations Committees. They study our requests for appropriations and know exactly where, when, and how the FBI uses its allotted funds in the discharge of its duties to serve the public. In addition, Congress exercises control over the scope of FBI authority. With the exception of a few Presidential directives and instructions issued by the Attorney General, laws passed by Congress are the sole source for FBI authority and jurisdiction.

Despite what may have been implied, the FBI does not serve as "police, court, and jury." When this bureau investigates an alleged violation of a federal law within its jurisdiction, the facts are presented to a United States Attorney without comment or recommendation. He determines whether the matter will be prosecuted. In cases brought to trial, the federal courts and juries have a firsthand opportunity to judge if the FBI has met its obligations with proper regard for the constitutional rights of the accused and all other parties involved. Where convictions result and are appealed, this critical review continues on to the highest courts of the land.

AND FINALLY, FBI operations are under constant scrutiny of the news media and the public. In our free society, where freedom of the press is not only cherished but practiced, the alert and inquiring press upholds the right of the public to know and to be informed.

Therefore, considering this array of control points and limitations, charges that the FBI operates autonomously are utterly ridiculous. Now, if there are those who disagree with the FBI policy of vigorous enforcement of the law, protection of law-abiding citizens, preservation of the rights of all people, proper punishment for guilty lawbreakers, and the protection of our country from subversive elements and illegal forces, then let them admit this rather than make erroneous allegations which cannot be supported by facts.

THE FBI HAS ALWAYS met its responsibilities and discharged its duties without fear or favor, regardless of criticism and attacks, whatever the source. This must continue to be the policy of the FBI or any other federal investigative agency under the rule of law. Consequently, all Americans should view with serious concern the announced intentions and threats by a political candidate, if elected, to take over and revamp the FBI to suit his own personal whims and wishes.

The allegations referred to by Mr. Hoover were made by presidential candidate Eugene McCarthy.

Cantankerous, Charming

The Bookman

Bertrand Russell is as candid, cantankerous and charming as before in the second volume of his memoirs "The Autobiography of Bertran Russell, 1914-1944." . . .

Now 95, Lord Russell wrote most o this several years ago, but withheld i from publicationn while the principa figures in it were alive. It follows las year's reminiscences of his childhoo and youth, a world-wide literary event.

A little more sketchy than the first, and relying heavily on letters to and from an extraordinary cast of characters (Joseph Conrad, T. S. Eliot, Bernard Shaw, Albert Einstein) to corroborate the recollections, the second volume bears down heavily and often marvelously on the aristocratic philosopher-scientist-agitator's most active years of public life and intellectual acrobatics.

VOLUME I CLOSED with Russell leaving his wife after publication of his celebrated "Principia Mathematica." We pick up with first World War when Russell was jailed for his pacifist activities and support of the No Conscription Fellowship. We continue until 1944 when, temporarily no longer a pacifist, he returned to England from America to support the campaign against Hitler.

He was disappointed in post-revolutionary Russia, which he visited in 1920 and found to be filled with "cruelty, poverty, suspicion and persecution. Lenin, whom he met at the time disappointed him intellectually

The Autobiography of Bertrand Russell, 1914-1944. Atlantic-Little, Brown; 418 pp.; $8.95.

Russell went to China, which he found extremely civilized, yet ripe for revolution. He was welcomed there as a "second Confucius."

Lord Russell is merciless in his criticism of American society in the late '30s and early '40s when he taught at Chicago, UCLA, and finally at the College of the City of New York — "virtually a satellite of the Vatican" at the time — which fired him after public outrage erupted over his book, "Marriage and Morals." This suggested that fidelity was not necessary in most marriages.

RUSSELL WAS dragged into court over this affair. The prosecution branded his work "lecherous, libidinous, lustful, venerous, erotomaniac, aphrodisiac, irreverent, narrow-minded, untruthful and bereft of moral fiber." The old gentleman is ironic and witty as he recalls this "typical American witch-hunt" staged before a judge, "an Irishman," who decided against him at length and with vituperation.

Russell discusses his love affairs frankly — with Lady Constance Malleson, better known as the actress Colette O'Neil (he can't forget their first night together, for a German Zeppelin crashed in flames across the road); with Dora Black, who became his second wife, and Patricia Spence, who became his third.

America Is More Musical

Hal Boyle

Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Americans are becoming more musical. We now have more than 44 million amateur musicians, compared to 20 million in 1910. One in every 4.6 persons plays an instrument. More than twice as many play the piano as the guitar — 23.5 million to 11 million. But, alas, the number who can still strum a ukelele has fallen in 10 years from 1.1 million to a half million.

If you have trouble telling boy teenagers from girl teen-agers, you'd have even more difficulty with oysters. These bivalves are ambisexual — that is, they change sex several times during their lifetime, him this year, her next year, him again another year.

EQUAL RIGHTS are only hearsay to the women of Morocco's mountain tribes. They arise at 4 a.m. to grind grain and work until long after dusk. Their husbands, however, plow in the fields only from 9 a.m. until noon and then knock off for the day. Despite their long hours of labor, few Moroccan women ever seek divorce. Any other man they married would expect them to work just as hard.

The United States will never really run out of potential space to park its automobiles. One-third of its total land area is still forested.

Quotable notables: "Money is like a sixth sense — and you can't make use of the other five without it." — Somerset Maugham.

FEW PEOPLE realize the weight of rainfall. It is estimated that a four-inch rain will drop nearly two million tons of water on a seven-square-mile area — enough to make a fair-sized lake.

The gadgets science creates primarily for the battlefield sometimes find peaceful uses, too. An example is the heat-sensitive infrared scanning equipment developed to help troops in Vietnam detect enemy movements at night. It is being employed by University of Michigan researchers in forest fire detection and control and to trail and count wildlife herds.

Toward one tongue: French language purists are alarmed at the rate with which their countrymen are taking up English and American words and expressions. Among them: Surprise party, sweater, camping, drugstore, pickpocket, sandwich, gangster and baby. But, of course, the trend works both ways. Long ago we took from the French such words as garage, chauffeur, credit, large, beef and cream.

EXPLODING KNOWLEDGE: Many middle-aged men feel like they'd like to go back to college and start all over again. It might not be a bad idea. Four times as much information has accumulated since 1925 as was known from all the years of history that went before. And our present known fund of data is expected to double within another 11 years.

Worth remembering: Advice scribbled on a Hotel Edison menu: "Learn from the mistakes of others; you can't live long enough to make them all yourself."

Jittery: What makes our civilization so nervous? Each person may have his own reason, but to calm them down Americans now pay $241.5 million for tranquilizers each year, $172 million for sleeping pills, and gulp down countless thousands of gallons of hard liquor.

Tidbits: Gorillas often suffer from chapped hands. Americans throw away a million empty baby food jars every day. The flashes of fireflies are merely love signals to help them find each other in the dark. The dollar bill in your pocket is 75 percent cotton.

It was Josh Billings who observed, "No man is rich who wants anymore than he has got."

Dear Gloomy Gus:

Those intellectuals who advised us last February, that we should get out of Vietnam because we cannot win have been very quiet recently. Perhaps they have learned that there is more to fighting a war than cool calculating second guessing.
