Martha Talks

'Nixon Behind Wallace Shooting'

LONDON (AP) — Martha Mitchell claimed in a television interview Friday that George Wallace told her that former President Richard M. Nixon was behind the assassination attempt on the Alabama governor.

Mrs. Mitchell, estranged wife of former U.S. Attorney General John Mitchell, said Wallace told her: "Nixon was the one who had me shot."

MARTHA

REACHED IN Montgomery, Ala., Gov. Wallace denied ever making such comments. Wallace said, "I did not in any way imply that the President had anything to do with my being shot or that he knew anything about it."

Mrs. Mitchell was interviewed by David Frost for the British Broadcasting Corp. She said Wallace told her he had proof of a White House link with the attack on him and that a member of the so-called "dirty tricks" department had visited the gunman before the shooting.

SHE SAID WALLACE made the allegations when she visited him at the governor's mansion in Montgomery.

"He made no bones about it," she said. "He said: 'Nixon was the one that had me shot.' Oh yes, definitely. Outright."

Frost did not pursue the subject of Wallace's shooting further. Mrs. Mitchell was not immediately available to elaborate on her comments.

WALLACE

Wallace was shot and partially paralyzed in May, 1972 while campaigning in the Democratic presidential primary in Laurel, Md. A man seized at the scene, Arthur Herman Bremer, was convicted in connection with the crime and sentenced to 53 years imprisonment.

Countian Shot by Police During Robbery Arrest

A 22-year old Anaheim man was shot by a police detective as officers attempted to take four men including the injured man into custody following an armed robbery in Santa Ana Friday.

Rick Dunton was taken to Orange County Medical Center following the shooting. He under went surgery for a wound to the left arm and then was booked into the center's jail ward.

Anaheim police said Dunton was shot by Detective Stanley Kantor. Dunton had locked himself in a bathroom after Kantor, five other detectives and five uniformed officers appeared at an Anaheim residence following the armed robbery.

Also arrested were David L. Borboa, 23; Richard H. Gutierrez, 24, and David W. Koser, 19, all of Anaheim.

Santa Ana police reported a 7-11 market had been held up by a knife-wielding man Friday. The thief took $52 in cash. Officers said they obtained a good description of the man and getaway car.

Anaheim officers, acting on information received in connection with the armed robbery, went to the Anaheim residence and were rounding up the occupants when Dunton fled.

The Orange County District Attorney's office will investiage the incident — a normal procedure when an officer is involved in a shooting, police said.

Hughes Airwest Strike Averted

OAKLAND (AP) — An 11th hour agreement was reached Friday night between Hughes Airwest and 550 flight attendents, 10 minutes before a scheduled midnight strike.

Airline spokesman Lee Pitt said details of the pact were not immediately avialable.

A few hours before the agreement was reached in negotiations with a federal mediator, Danni Kelly of the Air Pilots Association voiced doubt that a strike could be averted.

Ford, Gromyko Meet 2½ Hours

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had so much to discuss Friday in their first official meeting that they arranged a second session in the Oval Office today.

A White House spokesman described today's meeting as "a continuation of yesterday's discussions."

Ford and Gromyko met for 2½ hours Friday on issues including the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, the Middle East, and efforts to get through Congress a trade bill calling for Soviet concessions on Jewish emigration in exchange for "most favored nation" status.

Wild Chase Nets Pair In Valley

By JACK CHAPPELL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A high speed police pursuit ended in gunfire, tangled wreckage and the arrest of two men today in Westminster.

Two Fountain Valley police officers were injured in the incident which culminating in a chase by up to 10 police cars of a van at speeds of 90 miles an hour and more down busy Brookhurst Street.

Police identified the driver as Daniel Magallanez, 20, of Santa Ana and the passenger as Jessie G. Garcia, 20, of Santa Ana.

Magallanez received a flesh wound to his arm. Police said officers fired at the van after the vehicle attempted to run them into a flood control channel. Both men were booked for alleged assault with a deadly weapon.

The chase began at Los Amigos High School where a dance was in progress, police reported.

Fountain Valley officers assigned to dance security observed a van being driven without lights in the school parking lot and on the adjacent streets.

Officers contacted the driver of the vehicle, and after determining he and a passenger to be adults, told them to leave the high school dance area.

Officers reported the van returned, and when a patrolman attempted to approach the vehicle, he was nearly run down.

Backup officers gave chase.

The van allegedly ran a police roadblock. One police vehicle was crashed in the pursuit.

The van crashed on a Westminster residential street. The driver and passenger were apprehended following a foot chase, authorities said.

The two injured officers were hurt in attempting to avoid being run over by the van.

The Orange County Sheriff's Department and the California Highway Patrol have been called in to investigate since police personnel were involved in collisions and shootings.

Youth, 17, Shot In Stanton Fight; Police Seek Trio

A 17-year-old Stanton youth was shot Friday in an incident with possible racial overtones.

Stanton police are seeking three Chicano suspects in the shooting, which took place as the victim and a large group of other youths were gathered outside a takeout food stand.

Police identified the victim as Alton Nicholas, who was taken to Stanton Community Hospital. Nicholas suffered a gunshot wound in his buttocks, officers said. A small caliber weapon was used.

A Stanton police officer witnessed the shooting. The officer said he first observed what appeared to be a fight at the stand, then heard shots.

A crowd at the stand began milling around and persons ran from the scene. The officer rushed over, and found a large quanity of blood. Later, the department was informed of the gunshot victim reporting to the hospital.

FORMER PRESIDENT NIXON PLANS HOSPITAL STAY
Dr. John Lundgren (left) Will Take Charge

Will Enter Monday

Hospital in Long Beach Making Plans for Nixon

LONG BEACH (AP )— Former President Richard M. Nixon will check into a hospital here Monday for treatment of phlebitis that has painfully swollen his left leg, a hospital spokesman said.

Nixon will stay in a private room on the sixth floor of Memorial Hospital Medical Center in Long Beach, the spokesman said Friday.

Hospital officials said they expected Nixon to stay for at least three days.

Though the phlebitis has created two blood clots in his leg, which could be fatal if either broke free and lodged in his heart or lungs, the former president reportedly had fought against hospitalization.

Dr. John C. Lungren, Nixon's longtime physician, will make an announcement after Nixon's arrival — the time has not been revealed — and will make daily reports on his condition, the spokesman said. Lungren had no immediate comment to newsmen.

It was not immediately known if Nixon's wife, Pat, or any family members would stay with him. A spokesman at Nixon's villa in San Clemente would say only that the former chief executive "planned to enter a hospital early next week for treatment of his phlebitis."

In resisting his doctors' efforts to hospitalize him, Nixon reportedly said, "If I go into the hospital, I'll never come out alive."

One of his two doctors, Air Force Maj. Gen. William Tkach, was quoted in a magazine last week as saying the phlebitis condition had worsened and "it's going to take a miracle for him to recover."

Tkach and Lungren, former chief of staff at Memorial Hospital, want Nixon in the hospital so treatment can be started with anticoagulant drugs to dissolve the clots. Such treatment must begin intravenously and then can be taken orally.

It was expected that Tkach, formerly Nixon's White House doctor and now stationed at Andrews Air Force Base in Washington, would see Nixon in the hospital. Lungren, an internist with a specialty in cardiology, has an office near the hospital.

Nixon could go there by helicopter

Chief Justice Hurt on Bike

ARLINGTON, Va. (AP) — Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren E. Burger received facial abrasions and a possible broken finger Friday when he lost control of his bicycle near his home in this Washington suburb, police reported.

Burger, 67, was taken to a local hospital and treated, the Arlington County police said.

A hospital spokesman said it was not immediately known if Burger would be admitted.

According to police, Burger was riding his bicycle, struck a curb, and lost control, falling to the pavement.

Fifi Wreaks Most Havoc In Honduras

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UPI) — Hundreds of pajama-clad bodies floated down a small, rain-swollen river in northern Honduras today and the government said Hurrican Fifi's rampage killed 2,800 persons in the Central American nation alone.

The Honduran National Emergency Committee said "We calculate 10,000 persons are missing and fully half of them are dead."

The death toll climbed today as authorities dug bodies out of the thick mud and swirling waters in the wake of the killer storm.

Hurrican Fifi, propelled by 130-mile-an-hour winds and lashing rains, cut a path of destruction through Nicaragua, Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala and Belize before it died out over southeastern Mexico Friday night.

"We are almost sure of at least 1,500 dead in the village of Choloma alone," said an official of the emergency committee.

"Only the people on highground were saved. The whole town was asleep before dawn Thursday when the river came crashing down on them carrying mud, trees, and rocks. Nobody had time to run.

"We've been digging bodies out of the mud and debris, many of them naked or still in their night clothes. There are a lot of small towns and villages in the same area that may have been totally destroyed. We have no sure reports," he said.

"In the Sula and Aguan valleys we are receiving constant reports of more dead. We haven't been able to count them all yet," he said.

The official government committee and the Honduran Red Cross had received reports of thousands of bodies floating near the mouth of the Motagua River on the border between Guatemala and Honduras but neither was able to confirm them.

The U.S Embassy in Tegucigalpa said it was trying to locate about 70 Peace Corps volunteers working in northeastern Honduras.

In Nicaragua, the town of Wiwili on the Coco Border river with Honduras was reported wiped out and many of its 500 residents were reported clinging to treetops to stay above the fast rising flood waters.

Cameraman Elliot Craig in San Pedro Sula, Honduras — where the committee reported at least 75 confirmed dead — said, "I just watched four bodies being buried in a communal grave. That's very frequent here.

Four Given Amnesty, Discharged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said Friday night that the first four men to report for participation in President Ford's amnesty program have completed processing and have been discharged from the Army.

The spokesman said the four were discharged at about midnight Friday after signing a statement reaffirming their allegiance and pledging to complete alternate service.

The four were the same men who arrived at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., on Sept. 19, according to the spokesman. He declined to give their names but said all four were in the Army before deserting.

The spokesman said that after review of their records and additional information which they provided, the four were given terms of alternative service of 12, 20, 21 and 24 months.

Fair Hiring Consultant In Horse Race Project

By FREDERICK SCHOEMEHL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Orange County Fair directors have agreed to spend $25,000 to hire a consultant to assist them in gaining support for fair-sponsored thoroughbred horse racing at Los Alamitos Race Course.

At the same meeting this week, the board also approved wording of a sample resolution that will be sent to all Orange County governmental agencies asking their endorsement of the racing bid.

The two actions represent the first substantive steps by the fair board to still opposition to its plan for thoroughbred racing at Los Alamitos. Profits from the racing would be used for redevelopment of the fairgrounds.

Owners of other Southern California tracks that have thoroughbred racing have signalled opposition to the fair's racing bid and members of the powerful California Horse Racing Commission, which has final say on the request, have expressed concern over it.

In a report to fellow directors, Robert Krone said a subcommittee studying the racing package has discussed the names of several persons who could serve as a consultant.

A final recommendation on a consultant is expected at the Oct. 17 meeting of the fair board.

The consultant's role would be to woo support within the racing industry as well as areas served by the fair for the thoroughbred racing request.

The request calls for lease of Los Alamitos by the fair and 14 days of thoroughbred racing in early November of each year. The track now offers only quarter horse and harness racing.

Estimates prepared by track owners show the fair, after all the bills are paid, could walk away with between $100,000 and $250,000 from each yearly meet, depending on the amount of money bet.

The $25,000 item for the consultant was part of a total budget of $765,000 approved by the board for 1975 operations.

Jaycees to Help Raise Memorial Fund for Trio

Westminster's Jaycees will begin a door-to-door collection in their city this weekend for a memorial fund to aid families of three Fountain Valley Jaycees, who were victims of a traffic crash.

Vince Lorenzo, secretary of the Westminster club, said contributions also may be mailed to Box 905 in Westminster. Funds will be added to a memorial fund started this week by Fountain Valley Jaycees.

The Tuesday crash killed Fountain Valley Jaycees President James Bennett and another club member, Aubrey "Bronco" Helphinstine. It seriously injured a third member, Vincent Scotti, who remains in intensive care at Orange County Medical Center.

Lorenzo explained Bennett and other Fountain Valley Jaycees helped organize the Westminster chapter during the past year.

Contributions for the fund also may be mailed to the Fountain Valley Jaycees, Box 8597.

A hearing on the motion was scheduled Friday, then postponed to Monday.

On Friday, Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski suggested to U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica that he conduct his own inquiry into whether Nixon is healthy enough to testify at the Watergate cover-up trial.

Jaworski and defendant John D. Ehrlichman have subpoenaed Nixon to appear at the trial, scheduled to begin Oct. 1.

WEATHER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Clouds, fog and smog which hovered over the Los Angeles basin like a parasol Friday is expected to remain for the weekend, the National Weather Service said.

The almost cryptic official word from forecasters said: "Warm subsiding air over Southern California from an upper high over the northwest states is strengthening and lowering an already strong marine inversion coastal section and this combined with generally light sea breezes and transport winds is resulting in meteorological conditions favorable for the accumulation of pollutants near the ground."

The statement went on to say that areas most affected will be in coastal and intermediate valleys. Temperatures were predicted around 70 for coastal areas and 80-plus inland.

Oil 'Railroading' Charged

By JACK CHAPPELL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Alleged railroading of offshore oil drilling by the Department of Interior and disregard of environmental laws has been charged by a federal lawmaker who has requested an investigation by the General Accounting Office (GAO).

Rep. Alphonzo Bell, (D-Los Angeles) in a letter to Comptroller General Elmer B. Staats charged that according to statements by federal energy officials, the decision to drill off Southern California coastline has laready been made without the required environmental studies.

Bell represents 70 miles of Los Angeles County coastline and 80 percent of Santa Monica Bay. Proposed federal leasing would include Bell's area as well as tidelands off Newport Beach, Laguna Beach and Dana Point.

"The impenetrability of the Department of Interior and the cloak of secrecy over nearly every aspect of the oil industry require that every possible means be used to assure that the public interest will not be subverted," Bell wrote.

"Several Interior Department and administration statements indicate that the decision to drill has already been made. Energy Administrator John Sawhill stated on Aug. 30 that 'extensive oil drilling off the coast of California is inevitable.'"

"I fear that strict adherence to environmental requirements is being sacrificed to 'Project Independence,'" Bell said.

Bell's Los Angeles administrative assistant Richard Blades said Friday that he had been assured the GAO would investigate the congressman's charges.

Blades said two Coastal Orange County congressmen Rep. Andrew Hinshaw (R-Newport Beach) and Rep. Clair Burgener (R-San Diego) had not been contacted directly on the request for the GAO investigation, however, he said their aid would be sought.

"Right now he is simply concerned with dealing with the Department of Interior on legal grounds." Blades said.

"Needless to say, if a congressional team to fight this were put together, the Orange County people would be very much involved," he said.

Bell's letter noted that the National Environmental Policy Act requires extensive study before decisions to go ahead are made.

Trio Sued Over Advertising Rates in Paper

Three defendants identified in the Orange County Superior Court lawsuit as officers and directors of the "Good News" publication chain were sued for $2 million Friday and accused of selling advertising for less than its true cost.

Dennis Hill, Larry Hill and Richard O'Neill are named in the action filed by the Laguna Publishing Company and accused along with the Capistrano Valley Publishing Company of violating the state's Unfair Trade Practices Act.

The lawsuit states that "Good News" publications "have been giving away advertising below the actual cost" in areas where the plaintiffs seek advertising at acceptable rates for their Laguna Hills News Post, Mission Viejo News Post and South Shores News Post.

Advertising rates charged by the defendants in circulation areas shared by both parties to the action are substantially below those charged by the plaintiff, the action states.

Those circulation areas are identified as Laguna Hills, Leisure World, El Toro, Lake Forest, Laguna Niguel, the Saddleback Valley, Laguna Beach, South Laguna, Mission Viejo and Dana Point.

A hearing at which the plaintiffs will demand a temporary injunction against the alleged activities of the defendants has not yet been scheduled in Superior Court.

Canada Will Increase Price of Gas to U.S.

OTTAWA (AP) — The price of natural gas exported to the United States will be increased by an average 66 percent to $1 per thousand cubic feet, Energy Minister Donald MacDonald announced Friday.

He said the price increase will go into effect Nov. 1 in parts of British Columbia and Jan. 1 nationwide. Prices now range between 38 and 71 cents, with the average about 60 cents.

Baker Pushes Plan

Morgue Proposal To Be Advanced

By WILLIAM SCHREIBER
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Orange County Supervisor David Baker will urge his fellow board members Tuesday to take the first big step toward creation of a central county morgue.

Baker will propose formation of a special task force to "develop all aspects of the problems surrounding a central morgue operation, approaches to the solution of the problem and firm recommendations within six months."

The issue of a central morgue has been kicked around for many years. Retiring County Sheriff-Coroner James Musick tried in recent years to win board approval of the concept but failed in several attempts.

Musick's successor, Bradley Gates, has said repeatedly the county must ultimately have its own morgue facilities.

But the prime thrust behind Baker's latest effort appears to be sharp criticism of county coroner's procedures by last year's county Grand Jury.

The jury branded the county's current system as being reminiscent of "horse and buggy days."

Under current county procedures, victims of violent death or those who die without a physician in attendance are subject to investigation by private pathologists on the county's paid call list.

Autopsy work is done on the victim in one of a number of private mortuaries in the county which have autopsy facilities.

In its criticism, the jury said Orange County's population is too big now to be served properly in the current fashion.

In a letter to his fellow supervisors, Baker said several studies have been done showing a permanent county morgue facility could save the county from $170,000 to $500,000 over a five-year period.

Baker also cited a report on the value of central morgue facilities, done in 1972 by the County Administrative Office.

In that report, the CAO said apart from economic benefits, a central morgue would:

— Strengthen the continuity of control and investigation in the coroner's office.

— Provide an opportunity to improve the quality of investigative processes through centralized training of the coroner's staff.

— Improve aspects of service to the public.

The task force Baker will propose would have 22 members, including lawyers, morticians, insurance men, doctors and police agencies.

1st Policewoman Killed on Duty In Washington

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gail A. Cobb, the 24-year-old daughter of a career correctional officer, was shot and killed while trying to stop a bank holdup Friday. She died with her revolver still in its holster.

The FBI said Miss Cobb was the first policewoman killed in the line of duty anywhere in the country since the agency began keeping statistics on such incidents in 1960. But that it was not known whether any had been killed before then.

Miss Cobb was shot while attempting to stop the escape of two men who police believe were planning a bank robbery in downtown Washington. Bullets struck her in the chest and ribs, and she died a short time later at a hospital.

She had been a policewoman for a year. Her father, Clinton Cobb, has worked in the District of Columbia Corrections Department since 1955 as a training officer, at the D.C. jail, and at present as the senior captain at the largest section of the city's Lorton Reformatory in Northern Virginia.

MOTHERS MARCH FOR SAFETY AT DEL OBISPO CROSSING POINT IN SAN JUAN
Moms Contend Temporary Traffic Light Not Enough; They Want Crossing Guard for Children

Crossing Guard Demanded

By PAMELA HALLAN
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A dozen mothers, concerned about the safety of their children, picketed a busy arterial highway in San Juan Capistrano Friday, to draw attention to the need for a crossing guard.

The highway is Del Obispo, a thoroughfare that leads from San Juan Capistrano to Dana Point Harbor. Five days ago the new Del Obispo Elementary School opened and small children must now cross the four-lane road to get to school.

A temporary wire-span traffic signal was installed a few weeks ago to aid children crossing the street, but the mothers don't think this is enough.

"I watched children cross the street this week and most of them did fine while the sign said "walk" but when it said "don't walk" the children stopped in the middle of the street," said Mrs. Diane Bondourant.

The parents believe the crossing guard is necessary until children are "educated" to the signal. They see crossing guards assisting children in nearby San Clemente, which shares the Capistrano Unified School District, and wonder why they can't have one.

Making a plea before the San Juan Capistrano City Council this week was Mrs. Pat Lautrop who told the council they were grateful for the signal, but believe the extra precaution is necessary.

"We would hope that the lack of foresight by governing bodies never forces them to erect an overpass in the name of a dead child. There would be little consolation to the parents watching a bridge grow old instead of the child they loved," she told the councilmen.

The council's reaction was to refer the matter to a Traffic and Transportation Committee for study. They said it was premature to assume the signal wasn't adequate.

Another point of contention is the signal itself which the mothers have timed. One parent said she timed the signal "walk" light repeatedly and found that it varied from 15 to 19 seconds. Yet it takes an adult a full 20 seconds to walk across the street, let alone a dawdling child.

UC Irvine's Students Arriving

As many as a third of the 8,800 students expected to attend UC Irvine this fall are expected to arrive at the campus Monday as orientation week begins the campus' 10th year of operation.

Classes officially begin Sept. 30. Orientation week has been set up to give students an opportunity to become acquainted with the campus.

Events during the week include a debate between gubernatorial candidates Houston I. Flournoy and Edmund G. Brown Jr. on issues affecting education lectures by scientists, a ragtime concert and a fair in Campus Park.

"Man's Effects on World Climate" will be the topic of a lecture by Dr. F.S. Rowland, chemistry professor, at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Science Lecture Hall. The accumulated buildup of chemicals in aerosol cans and refrigerators, Rowland contends, may severely damage the atmospheric ozone shield against ultraviolet radiation.

Dr. James McGaugh, chairman of psychobiology, will discuss "Memory and the Brain in the 21st Century" at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Science Lecture Hall.

A band concert, booths displaying student crafts and a picnic will be held in the Campus Park from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday.

TOPLESS SI, 'THROAT' NO

RENO (UPI) — It's legal to gamble and drink all night or see a topless show. But the movie "Deep Throat" is out.

Film promoter Tony Sands, whose attempt to show the film was blocked first by the owner of a theater building, later by the city council and finally a justice court, said he is leaving town.

"Reno isn't a town that is conducive to X-rated movies," he said.

Developer Sues Over Versailles

A Newport Beach developer went to court Friday in a bid to overturn a recent rejection by the state of plans to add 444 condominiums to the 255 apartments initially planned for the Versailles-on-the-Bluffs complex.

Naming the California Coastal Zone Conservation Commission as defendants in the Orange County Superior Court action, the Donald J. Scholz Company argues that the commission cannot lawfully halt the second phase of his construction program.

Lawyers for Scholz state that the developers had pumped $6.5 million into the project before Nov. 8, 1972 when the the coastal protection measure was enacted by California voters.

The suit states that $1.5 million of that sum was devoted to the second condominium phase of the Versailles project and was used in construction of sewer and storm drains and a bicycle path.

A coastal commission action denied the Scholz group the right to expand the Versailles project by the desired 444 units.

Lawyers for Scholz argue that lawful construction, as set out in state conservation laws, had been carried out at Versailles prior to the enactment of the coastal control act.

They further argue that the Versailles project has been a multi-phase plan for its start and should be exempted from the controls imposed by the commission.

A date for the hearing demanded by Scholz lawyers had not been set as of late Friday.

Registration For Photo Class Set

Registration for a Saturday photography class is scheduled today at Saddleback College at the first class meeting from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Meeting in Room 122 of the library, the class is the first weekend course to be offered at Saddleback.

Good for three units of college credit, the course affords community camera buffs who work during the week a chance to take a look at the world through the lens.

Modern dark room equipment in the library will be used in the course, a black and white program. Discussion topics will include the history of photography, basic techniques, lighting and processing.

Seats in the class are available on a first-come first served basis, a college spokesman said. Registration may continue through Sept. 28 if there is room.

More information on the course is available by calling the instructional media department at 831-9700 or 495-4950 ext. 203.

Radio Code Class Set

Code Practice, a class designed to assist students pass federal radio-telegraph examinations, is open for Orange Coast College evening student enrollment.

The nine-week course is scheduled to begin Sept. 12 and will meet Thursdays from 6 to 7 p.m.

Registration on a "drop-in" basis can be completed at OCC's admissions office on the Costa Mesa campus.

Parkway Extension Due Soon

A two-lane extension of Alicia Parkway linking Laguna Hills to the San Diego Freeway should be finished, "momentarily," according to Murray Storm, assistant Orange County road commissioner.

Since the Alicia Parkway interchange opened several months ago, nearby residents have had access to the Mission Viejo but not the Laguna Hills side of the highway.

Storm said a mile-long portion of Alicia connecting it to Paseo de Valencia is under construction and will be finished soon — with two lanes, curbing and a parking lane on the west side.

A small section of South Laguna Hills still will not be able to use the Alicia ramp, however, because a connecting extension of Cousteau Drive has not been finished, Storm said.

At present South Laguna Hills residents can not get to the freeway except via Paseo de Valencia.

But Storm said the road department is finishing the Cousteau Drive link so that the residents will be able to use the Alicia ramp within a month.

He added several Laguna Hills residents had contacted the office of the Fifth District Supervisor to complain about lack of access to the freeway.

County Home Builder Frances Wendt, 69, Dies

Funeral services will take place Wednesday for Frances G. Wendt, prominent Orange County home builder and artist who died this week at the age of 69.

Mrs. Wendt, of 28642 Modjeska Canyon Road, came to Orange County 18 years ago and bought several Orange groves in the Villa Park area. She built exclusive homes on the land and became that city's first major developer.

Twelve years later, she developed leukemia and turned to painting when the illness forced her to give up her development business.

Mrs. Wendt, who spent most of her final years of life in the cardiac care ward of St. Joseph Hospital in Orange, launched that facility's "Project Artist" in 1973.

She donated 100 of her own paintings to the hospital and the total collection of 130 paintings is now displayed on the walls of hallways and wards.

Services for Mrs. Wendt will take place at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday at Holy Family Church in Orange. The family asks that donations be made to the Leukemia Foundation, St. Joseph Hospital or Childrens Hospital of Orange County in lieu of flowers.

Mrs. Wendt is survived by her husband, Harry, a son, Bob Newell and his wife, Ann, of Modjeska Canyon; a daughter, Anita H. Smith of Villa Park; two brothers and two sisters.

Stockbroker Jumps

Tumbling Prices Prompt Suicide

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The head of an Indianapolis investment adviser linked to financial chaos among mining stocks two weeks ago was found Friday at the base of the high rise apartment building in which he lived.

Police said in a preliminary report that G. George Schaefer 48, apparently jumped from the 14th floor apartment of the Summit House in the city's north side.

An investment bulletin written by Schaefer on Friday, Sept. 6, was widely considered to have been behind selling that brought sharp declines in gold and silver mining stocks the following week.

SCHAEFER HAD told clients he was removing gold and silver stocks from the theoretical portfolios he maintained as investing guides. This amounted to a recommendation to sell and because the stock dominated all the theoretical portfolios, it seemed to come to represent a sharp change in Schaefer's thinking.

A wave of orders to sell gold and silver issues hit Wall Street on Monday and before prices began climbing up at the end of the week, four, five and six fold gains that had been built up over a year and a half in some stocks had been nearly halved.

Aldo Ltd., an investment company specializing in South African gold mining shares, fell from $39.62 a share at the previous Friday's close to $32.12 at its low point that Thursday. Homestake Mining, the biggest U.S. gold producer, and the two best-known Canadian miners, Dome Mines and Campbell Red Lake mines, suffered similar drops.

MANY ANALYSTS noted other factors were at work, such as talk that Italy might sell its gold reserves. Some contended that attention to such stocks as inflation hedges had pushed prices to a point from which they were eventually bound to fall. But Schaefer's bulletin seemed to many to be the primary source of selling that week because bullion prices in European gold markets had been quiet.

Late in the week, Schaefer told one reporter: "I had no idea there would be this kind of panic. I thought the stocks might come down a point or two but I think the selling was overdone."

Scanning Device

X-ray Machine Looks Inside the Head

By STEVE MITCHELL
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

A six-month-old company in Newport Beach is producing a medical scanning device that does not differ too much in appearance from the scanners used by "Bones" McCoy, the doctor on the popular science fiction television series "Star Trek."

And, according to Neuroscan, Inc.'s president, Dr. Richard Penfil, the device is just about as advanced as the "Tricorders" used aboard the starship Enterprise. Only this was designed in 1968 — not "Star Date 3851.6."

THE DEVICE IS a computerized X-ray machine that looks inside the head of a patient and displays pictures of brain tissue for diagnosing brain disease.

The machine sends computer - controlled beams of X-rays into the skull to search for tumors, blood clots, internal bleeding, tissue degeneration and cerebral disorders.

Unlike the scanner used by "Bones" on the Enterprise, the Neuroscan does not make a loud whirring noise. In fact, about the only sound the machine does make is a distinct click as the scanning device changes positions to take another measurement.

THE SCANNING BEAMS are programmed to intersect the tissue under examination in a criss-cross pattern. The X-ray beams are intercepted by electronic radiation "counters" which measure the X-rays as they pass through the brain tissue.

These scanning counts are taken from eight positions above the head of the patient with 160 exposures taken at each of 180-degree "clicks."

When the process is completed, nearly 30,000 exposures have been taken of the brain tissue. These measurements are processed by a mini-computer system to compose a picture on a television screen that depicts a cross-section of the organ.

WHAT IS SHOWN on the television tube is not an X-ray negative like doctors use to detect broken bones. It is a complex composition of thousands of computer-made measurements.

Dr. Penfil, a practicing radiologist in Fountain Valley, says a trained neuro-radiologist can gather up to 100 times the amount of information from the computer scan as from convention techniques.

And conventional techniques are often costly and painful, he said.

"The brain is the only organ that is completely encased in bone," Dr. Penfil explained. "Because of this, exploration of the tissue is difficult. Tests usually require the injection of radioactive dyes or air bubbles into the brain."

PENFIL SAYS THE Neuroscanner minimizes pain and risk to the patient — and does not usually require a costly stay in the hospital for tests.

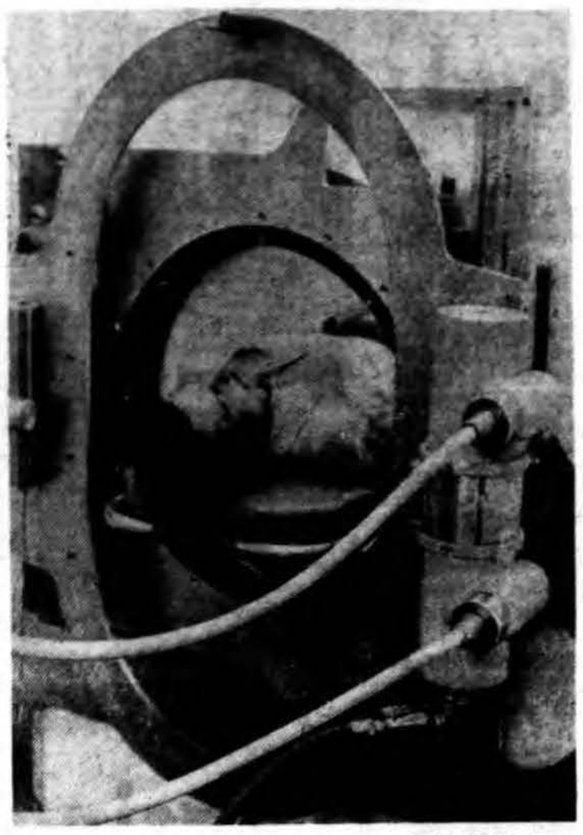

The system produced at the 2,000-square-foot facility is an advancement of a machine pioneered six years ago by London-based EMI Corporation and the British government.

The British company, which also owns Capital Records, has been selling its scanner for a little over a year to such institutions as the Mayo Clinic at a price of $400,000.

CHARLES McGREGOR, vice president of Neuroscan, says the Southern California firm will sell its scanner for approximately half that amount, beginning with the sale of a Neuroscanner to Los Alamitos Hospital at the end of the year.

He says the company has about seven other commitments for sales in the near future.

The system is undergoing final check at the Newport Beach plant under the eyes of Dr. Jack Sklansky, at UC Irvine's School of Engineering, who researched the software and computer engineering for the project.

By SYDNEY OMARR

ARIES (March 21-April 19): What was long ago and far away becomes the here and now. Be ready for "crunch" issues. Means pressure is on —you do have allies and there is no need for panic.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Practical matters dominate. including budget, costs and possible bargains. Mate, partner wants to discuss purchase or sale. You find out who has what you need and what you can do about it.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Accent on partnership, legal agreements, marriage. You discover what others are thinking — and you are able to plan accordingly. Key is patience. Don't act in premature manner.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Basic issues dominate. Avoid the flamboyant. Seek middle meeting ground with coworkers, others who share your interests. One who taught you in past could make reappearance.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Spotlight is on change, creativity, special relations with children — and finding a construcitve outlet for unique talents. Be versatile without scattering efforts.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Practical matters may not appeal but are necessary to consider. You may have been delaying the inevitable — means details, facts and figures must be taken into account.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): New ideas click. Know it and have confidence enough to follow through. Get thoughts on paper. Take notes. Record dreams. Get started on project. Make amends to relative who is supersensitive.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Accent on beautifying surroundings — you are pleased by the giving and receiving of unusual gifts. Family, home, luxury items and comfort — — these are spotlighted.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You can afford to be selective. Cycle is high and you should choose quality. Take initiative and refuse to be sold proverbial bill of goods.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Serious consideration is given to issue which had been "buried." Some, using benefit of experience, want you to tow line along conservative course. Still others advocate the opposite.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Accent is on how you relate to friends and how you handle hopes and wishes. You can get rid of burden not rightly your own. You learn hard facts about desires.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Find new ways of presenting format, program to one in authority. Many want to be receptive, but are waiting for you to express your individuality. Your pride could stand in way of progress.

Edison Asking 17-cent Boost

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California Edison filed an application with the state Public Utilities Commission Friday asking for a 17½-cent a month monthly increase in the typical residential electric bill.

Edison said the $17 million a year the increase would raise is needed to offset costs of maintaining larger amounts of fuel oil in inventory because of the worldwide petroleum shortage.

Edison has nearly 20 million barrels of low-sulfur oil, about a four-month supply, Vice President Edward A. Myers Jr. said.

DR. ROBERT SCHULLER RETURNS

Garden Grove, California—Dr. Robert Schuller speaks this Sunday morning at 9:30 and 11:15 a.m. in the Garden Grove Community Church where he returned last Saturday after a summer of international study, lecturing, and writing.

NEW SERIES

For the next six weeks Dr. Schuller will be speaking on his new fall series entitled "Love Is The Greatest Value In The World," based on "The Greatest Chapter In The Bible."

NORMA ZIMMER

At both 9:30 and 11:15 Norma Zimmer, a regular soloist on Dr. Schuller's television program, Lawrence Welk, and Billy Graham, will introduce an inspiring new composition entitled "This Love Is Mine," in keeping with Dr. Schuller's new message series.

SPECIAL GUEST

Dr. Schuller's special guest will be Dwight Dobson who will share a personal testimony on "The Mountain Moving Power of Possibility Thinking." Dr. Schuller met Mr. Dobson two years ago in Calcutta. "His story is probably the single most amazing story of the combined power of faith and love I've ever heard," Dr. Schuller said.

TELEVISED

The morning services of Garden Grove Community Church are televised every Sunday to an audience of millions across America every week. The inspiring Possibility Thinking program is seen every Sunday in Southern California on KTLA Channel 5 at 10:00 a.m. and Saturdays on KHOF Channel 30 at 9:00 p.m.

FIRST DR.-IN CHURCH

The Garden Grove Community Church has the distinction of being the home of the world's first walk-in drive-in church. Here thousands have worshipped in the privacy of their cars parked in the 22 acre garden-fountain ornamented campus—a ten-square block retreat center at the freeway hub of Orange County.

TWELVE CHOIRS

"We are proud to announce the appointment of Don Fontana as full time Minister of Music," Dr. Schuller announced. Twelve choirs are being organized.

BOY CHOIR

Auditions are required for the Boy Choir which features the finest boy sopranos in the Southland. The choir will perform regularly on the national television program.

ORANGE COUNTY'S LARGEST SUN. SCHOOL

Garden Grove Community Church is the home of the largest Sunday School in Orange County with over 4000 enrolled. It is directed by Rev. Kenneth Van Wyk, Minister of Education. Double session classes are held at 9:30 and again at 11:15.

FIVE SINGLES GROUPS

Hundreds of single adults in five age groupings meet under the newly installed Minister to Singles, Rev. James Smoke (in addition to the exciting college group).

ORANGE COUNTY YOUTH CENTER OPEN

The High School, Junior High, and Collegians meet, not only on Sunday mornings, but through the week in Orange County's Christian Youth Center building, a 25,000 square foot facility. "Twenty-two high schools are represented in our High School Youth Department," Don Brenneman, Youth Minister, reported.

THREE EXTRA SERVICES

In addition to the 9:30 and 11:15 service, three other Sunday Worship services are offered.

SKY HIGH CHURCH

A 7:30 a.m. service is held every Sunday at the Little Chapel In The Sky located at the top of the fifteen story Tower of Hope. Early morning worshippers have a spectacular view from the Santa Ana Mountains to Catalina Island. Dr. Henry Beltman is in charge.

At 8:15 every Sunday morning Dr. Raymond Beckering, co-pastor with Dr. Schuller, conducts the first walk-in drive-in church service with choirs and trumpets.

CANDELIGHT GARDEN OF PRAYER

The closing service of the day is at 7:00 p.m., also a walk-in drive-in service. It is conducted by Rev. Calvin Rynbrandt, Minister of Evangelism. Hundreds gather at the altar for prayers in candlelight at the close of every Sunday evening service. "Only God knows the miracles that happen here every Sunday night," the pastor announced.

TWENTY-FOUR HOUR COUNSELING

Garden Grove Community Church is the first church in America that organized and trained its members to man a twenty-four hour live telephone counseling ministry which has been in continuous operation since September, 1968. For counseling, people need only dial the letters N-E-W H-O-P-E.

FREEWAY HUB OF ORANGE COUNTY

Garden Grove Community Church is located at Chapman and Lewis streets in Garden Grove, near the Garden Grove and Santa Ana freeways, the freeway hub of Orange County.

Nature is Generous

Plant Bulbs Now for Spring Colors

Fall is the time when bulbs are tucked into the earth to develop over the winter months and to burst into rainbows of color when the warm weather returns. Nature is most generous with her spring color and her only request: that the bulbs be planted in the fall.

The bulb that is planted gives no outward indication of the delightful surprise of brilliance in store for you come next Spring. But inside the bulb there is a miracle of Nature. The tiny plant — including its leaves and flowers — and all the food it needs are inside the bulb when you plant it in the Fall. All you have to do is plant the bulb — eight inches deep for tulips, hyacinths and daffodils, and four inches for the smaller bulbs like crocus — and water.

Easy? It's so simple that even the children can plant them. And they'll grow even if they plant them upside down (but you should tell them to plant with the pointed end up).

Because there is such a wide array of colors available, as well as kinds and shapes of flowers, you can let your imagination run wild. You become an "instant expert" not only in gardening but also landscaping. You can also plan your color flower parade to bloom over many, many weeks of Spring.

TAKE TULIPS, for instance. The early species tulips provide garden color even before Easter. And you can prolong the color with late-blooming classes to last almost till June. The color selections of tulips range from snow white through yellow, pink, red, to deep, almost black purple.

The classic-shaped tulips are favorites throughout the world. These would include the Darwin, Cottage and Mendel classes, for example. But there are other tulip shapes to add more intrigue to your Spring color pageant. The Doubles are full flowers, lile peonies and roses; the long tapering petals of the Lily-flowered give a delicate flower; and the green streaking and fringed petals of the Parrots can give you the illusion of an exotic tropical bird.

Include in your spring garden, too, the flower of the poets — daffodils. In yellow, white and combinations, these dancing blossoms add a flowing motion to the scene as they gently sway in the Spring breezes.

For classic fragrance there is the hyacinth. The natural perfume is incomparable and adds a new garden dimension as it wafts through open doors and windows.

FINALLY THERE are the little gems, like crocus, scilla, glory of the snow and snowdrops, that are the true harbingers of Spring. These show their color before Winter has passed. Plant these this Fall, too.

It's almost impossible to believe that the most dazzling garden color comes from the easiest-to-grow plants — but it does. By planting Holland spring-flowering bulbs this fall you can prove it to yourself and your neighbors next spring. It's not instant beauty — but it's worth waiting for...

Decoration

This dwarf Orange tree, grown in a container, not only adds year-around beauty to porch or patio, but produces delicious, full-size fruit to enjoy.

Think Spring

Now is the time to set the stage for a colorful springtime garden by planting Anemone bulbs which bring forth an array of color in shapes shown above.

Don't Overlook Raising Cool Season Vegetables

This is the year more people than ever are reaping a harvest of fresh garden vegetables. You may be taking in your crop now, but don't overlook continuing the harvest into winter by raising cool season vegetables.

Several of the cool season varieties are available now, ready to be transplanted. They are Broccoli, Cauliflower, Lettuce, Brussel Sprouts and Cabbage. In addition, seed of such standbys as Beets, Carrots, Radishes and Turnips, Peas and Lettuce can be sown.

The idea of growing winter vegetables is the same as that of growing winter annuals. The earlier you get them in the more bountiful the harvest. The plants should have plenty of good growing weather to establish themselves before cold weather sets in.

JUST BECAUSE they are a "cool" season crop doesn t mean they can do without sun. They like the maximum amount, just as all of us do when the weather cools off.

For a family of four, use 10 to 12 plants each of Broccoli, Brussel Sprouts, Cabbage and Cauliflower. Space them two feet apart in rows. For Lettuce, a 20 foot row, with heading varieties spaced a foot apart, leafing varieties only half that much. Radishes mature in short order and are best picked when first ready, so plant five foot rows of them at one month intervals. A 30 foot row of Carrots spaced two inches apart; a 15 foot row of either Beets or Turnips spaced the same distance will do the trick.

You say you don't have the room? No problem, plant your cool season vegetables in raised beds, modular containers, hanging baskets or pots. You can have a productive harvest of cool season vegetables right on your patio.

Pay attention to soil preparation, feeding and proper watering. Cool season growing conditions vary in different parts of the state.

Gardening Lectures Offered

Indoor decorating with plants will be the first topic in a series of morning lectures on plant care and decorations offered by Golden West Evening College, starting Oct. 14, 9:30 a.m.

Lecturer Ann Vernetti will talk about houseplants — their identification, location in the home, watering, fertilizing, humidity, temperature, and pest sontrol — at the first lecture.

She will discuss palms and ferns — their care and decorating possibilities — and the techniques of constructing a terrarium, Oct. 21.

Hank Rowell will be the featured speaker Oct. 28, on outdoor decorating with plants.

The art of bonsai will be the topic Nov. 4, with lecturer Kikue Sanjo discussing fundamentals of bonsai plants.

The lectures, held at Murdy Community Center are free and registration will take place at the door.

Weekender Gardener's Checklist

- September and October are good months to put in that new lawn. Do it right — the right way is the easiest way.
- Shop early for the best selection of spring-blooming bulbs. These must be planted in the Fall — and the choice of colors, flower forms from dozens of different varieties of bulbs is at its best right now.
- Plant Cyclamen in pots or in the ground for bloom through winter, into spring.
- Shop for early blooming Sasanqua Camellias. They're the earliest of all the Camellia family; their willow foliage and cherry blooms deserve planting in a prominent place.
- Shop for Pyracanthas, Cotoneasters, and Hollies now and enjoy their colorful red berries through the winter season.

Garden Club Meeting Set

Ray Munson, of Tucker Wildlife Sanctuary in Modjeska Canyon, will show slides and speak on "Birds in Our Gardens" at the Harbor View Hills Garden Club's first meeting of the year Wednesday at 12:30 p.m.

The meeting, chaired by new president, Mrs. Colbert Fine, will be at the home of Mrs. William Barrington. Mesdames George McDonald and Donald Smith will assist as co-hostesses.

Use Annuals To Continue Springtime

Why not continue your garden vacation into fall and winter? You can, you know, if you plant annuals. Here in California we have springtime beauty in mid-winter with annuals which bloom throughout the winter when transplanted in succession in autumn.

Right now, winter blooming annuals in flats are available in many colors at local nurseries for use in all mild winter areas in the state.

Some of the most popular bedding plants are Pansies, Calendulas, Snapdragons, Stock and Violas. After planting they require little care. Just water and remove fading flowers.

They're marvelous company in pots, decorative containers, and window boxes.

ONE OF THE brightest spots in the winter garden belongs to the Calendula with its clear bright yellow, golds, persimmon, and pale apricot colors. Calendulas make ideal cut flowers for indoor decoration because of long stems and long life after being cut.

Another favorite for indoor decoration is Stock. Fragrant, tall, colorful — mathiola incana, is an excellent choice for the garden if cut flowers are your aim.

If you desire a wide range of color in window boxes, containers or as edgings, try Violas and Pansies. Some Pansies measure 4 and 5 inches in diameter.

All these annuals should be transplanted into a good soil with a top grade soil amendment added. They should be watered at planting time and kept moist until definitely settled in their new location. After established, Violas and Pansies will continue to take a more than moderate amount of water. The others need very little.

Tax Credit Approved For Tools

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House Committee has approved a tax credit on home garden tools in a 'move to get more Americans to grow their own fruits and vegetables.

The 7 percent credit on purchase of the tools was proposed by Rep. James A. Burke, (D-Mass.), and approved by the House Ways and Means Committee.

The amendment to a pending tax revision bill would apply to the first $100 of the purchase of garden tools, allowing the buyer to subtract up to $7 a year directly from their tax bills.

The amendment was approved on lively and humorous debate which prompted Rep. Barber Conable, (D-N.Y.), to wonder "how we ever got people to cross the great plains without a tax incentive."

Halloween Club Theme

In keeping with the Halloween season, South Coast Garden Club's October meeting on the 9th, will have a bewitching theme.

Mrs. R. L. I. Smith, president, will conduct the meeting, begining at 1:30 p.m. at Three Arch Bay Clubhouse.

Use Shrubs For Indoor Decoration

Certain evergreen shrubs and trees have excellent decorative qualities for cutting material for the house.

Handsome arrangements are available for your home 12 months of the year.

Among the top favorites for cutting is English Laurel. It's a handsome broad leafed shrub, providing long lasting arrangements in the house. And of course, English Laurel is great in the landscape — as an informal tall screen, a tightly clipped hedge or a specimen in a large container.

TWO OTHERS to consider for cutting possibilities are Southern Magnolia and Saucer Magnolia. While not an evergreen, the latter is none the less worth mentioning for the six months or more it is in leaf and, of course, its massed spring bloom is a real garden feature. Southern Magnolia provides handsome glossy leaves whether you cut the platter sized blooms or not.

The Loquat is excellent for cutting. In the garden, try the Loquat as an espalier against the house, wall or fence.

Include Daffodils In Plans

Be sure to include Daffodil bulbs in your fall planting kit. Plenty of bulbs are now avialable in many varieties at nurseries throughout California.

Daffodils are a big favorite in the Golden State — they are permanent, increasing from year to year; can stand cold and heat and are so useful in mnay garden situations: in containers, display beds, borders or under trees and shrubs.

Daffodils have fascinating flower forms along with elegant colors. The colors are basically yellow and white, but there are many variations of orange, red, apricot, pink and cream.

BY USING the different types and colors, you can achieve even more spectacular garden effects from these dependable performers. Be sure to purchase top quality bulbs to be assured of best results.

The most famous of all early blooming Daffodils is the King Alfred, with its yellow trumpet. Then there's Golden Dawn, with clusters of yellow and flame orange flowers; Riotus is a huge double; February Gold has star shaped petals with a fluted orange trumpet and Fortune is a large-cupped yellow beauty with a semi-long golden-orange trumpet.

There are also mid-season and late season Daffodils as well.

Check your local nursery soon for top quality bulbs. Planted in the fall, they make spring-time gardens a joy to behold.

Buenos Aires U.: The Berkeley of Argentina

By HENRY S. ACKERMAN
The Associated Press

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina — The University of Buenos Aires, with 150,000 students, is to Argentina what Berkeley would be to the United States with three million. And it is far more explosive.

The university is in open rebellion against the government," said Education Minister Oscar Ivanissevich, a 79-year-old retired surgeon. On nationwide television he threatened to make students study rather than complain.

The students are fed up," retorted Maria G., 19, a sociology freshman who claims parapolice squads are killing her colleagues. "It seems that the government outlaws anyone who opposes it."

University radicals, representing perhaps 70 percent of the student body, have occupied scores of buildings now for a month. They support left-wing policies adopted in the first days of Peronism's return last year.

Already angered by Ivanissevich's appointment, students became incensed when a mysterious bomb on Sept. 7 killed the 4-month-old son of the interim rector, Raul Laguzzi. He's a leftist biochemistry professor who students think might be replaced.

THE MEDICAL SCHOOL dean, Ricardo Seigh, said the government did not so much as send a note of condolence.

Students here want a continuation of "classless" admissions policies, the right to hire and fire their own professors and even power to decide what will be taught.

But the national authorities are not willing to go that far.

Ivanissevich says that only six of every 100 students are graduating. The rate last year was already down to nine.

The University of Buenos Aires has one-third of an estimated 450,000 students in 44 public and private institutions throughout Argentina. No one knows the exact count since Peronists have labeled it "the People's University" and opened doors to virtually everyone who can read and write.

Conditions in the other 24 government universities, opposition leaders say, are virtually the same as here:

Colleges lack space. There's a shortage of funds. Critics charge that incredible sums of taxpayers' pesos go for politicking while almost all professors need second jobs to live. Classes are often postponed or canceled because of student strikes or professorial fear.

UNIVERSITY OF Buenos Aires governors decided under the 1966-73 military regime not to build new facilities that would concentrate all students on one campus. Instead, they built a new science building along the river and enclosed it in barbed wire.

The university, now over 100 years old, has buildings in every part of the city. Few have good libraries. None has student cafeterias of American standards.

Students almost all talk politics. The mood is tense.

There are few feminists, no streakers, no fraternities. College sports have given way to coffee house plotting. Some hard-core leftists want war. Others in the Montoneros, tied to the Peronist Youth Organization, have already begun bombings and kidnapings against President Isabel Peron's government.

To an outsider, the scene looked like this:

Patricia K., 18, sat in the philosophy school burning twine into short pieces that she would use to hoist a sign condemning Ivanissevich as a "fascist."

Maria, her friend and cohort in a 10-member Communist Revolutionary party cell, talked without apology about her major course: "The History of Popular Struggles." Both girls devote 24 hours a week to party work and only four hours to classes.

A SOCIOLOGY PROFESSOR said frankly that the government has made a mistake in threatening to close the institution. He condemned right-wing cabinet members and mentioned his salary: the peso equivalent of $120 a month.

Across town, two women sat studying in a temporarily abandoned medical school laboratory. Their midnight candle was an ethane burner. It was turned full blast to provide not only heat but also light.

Their professor earns his living from private medical practice. He said, "Some students are devoted. Classroom instruction hasn't been eliminated. Teaching in many fields is superb. But the old system of education has to change."

Argentina has a superproduction of doctors," he added. "But we're totally lacking in nurses, technicians and hospital staffs. Everyone wants to be a surgeon and it just can't be that way."

The professor said that this year there was room for only 2,000 first year students. About 8,000 showed up.

ALTHOUGH STUDENTS HERE are from the middle class, fashionably dressed and accustomed to sophisticated urban life, many won't be able to get jobs without a diploma. Many law graduates never practice law.

A bulletin board in the Economics School — where guerrilla signs preach classic Marxist revolution — told part of their story. Of 131 students in an introductory course, 101 were listed at midterm as failures. There was one "distinguished" mark.

Attacked by Ivanissevich for squandering funds, the university recently published full-page newspaper advertisements reaffirming its present policy of open admissions. The ads each cost $5,500 — the salary of a tenured professor for a year.

With the symbolic university occupation in progress, there have been few daytime incidents with police. But as night falls, police assault cars have frequently surrounded the economics and law schools. About 1,000 students have been rounded up for "identification" in less than two months. Most are released and the episodes are repeated.

Gubernatorial Candidates Put Promises in Writing

'My Approach Is Problem-solving'

By HOUSTON I. FLOURNOY

SACRAMENTO — As governor, I would work for solutions to the great problems that face California in the last third of this century — the economy, the environment, the energy crisis and education, to name just a few.

My approach is that of a problem solver. I want to unite those of different parties and political persuasions to help me develop programs to maintain California as the leading state.

As state controller for the last eight years and as a legislator for six years before that, I have developed a practical approach toward solving problems.

Underlying that is my basic belief that our American system — for all its faults — is still the best instrument on earth for achieving social stability and political change that there is.

I offer no exotic cures for all our problems because there are no easy answers.

WHAT I WILL DO is to pledge my energy and experience to meet these and other challenges:

— California's next governor must deal with inflation, the cruelest tax of all. As governor I can help by adopting policies to increase food production, to provide lower cost medical care, to help insure low cost housing and to hold the line on taxes.

— I would work to strike a balance between the people's need for jobs and their need for a clean, healthful and pleasing environment.

- I would try to restore confidence in government through specific proposals to make it more efficient and more responsive to the people.

Under my administration, former Gov. Earl Warren's practice of holding public hearings on controversial bills would be reinstituted.

I would propose that meetings of public agencies be held with public participation in mind - in the geographic areas most affected, and sometimes in the evenings or on weekends to insure the widest attendance.

As governor, I would meet several hours a week with citizens and would direct my staff to do the same.

THROUGHOUT MY campaign, I have stressed positive proposals to meet specific problems. They cover an immense range of activities in this most populated of all states. Some of them are:

1 - To establish a full-time non-political air resources board to step up state participation in the fight for clean air.

2 - To establish a minority small business investment corporation, capitalized at $80 million, to aid the expansion of small businesses and reduce unemployment in minority areas.

3 - To broaden consumer representation on the state's Public Utilities Commission.

Editor's Note: Capitol News Service has asked for and received written statements from the candidates for governor of California. These pledges are straight from the hopefuls' pens. Readers may use them as a guide in deciding on whom to vote for, or clip them as a record of what promises were made — to see if the victor makes good.

'California Now Needs Activism'

By EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

SACRAMENTO — Four years ago I decided to run for secretary of state because I felt that in that office I could make an important contribution to the causes in which I believe. Despite strong opposition we've made tremendous progress, and now the office is one of the most aggressive and effective in state government.

I intend to bring that spirit to the governor's job. I will do all I possibly can to see California develop in a healthy and worthwhile manner. We have great potential here, and with proper planning California again will have blue skies, an educational system second to none and, with the federal government's cooperation, a prosperous economy.

The Reagan administration has been marked by seven years of passivity. I believe it's time for an activist Democratic governor. The people are looking for a new spirit. Now more than ever it is the time for courage, imagination and a willingness to lead even when it involves making unpopular decisions.

HERE ARE SOME of the changes I would make as governor:

- Provide greater educational opportunities to young persons through improved teacher training, smaller classes, bilingual education, better fundamental math and reading training and career education.

— Restore the prestige of our higher educational system through a renewed commitment to excellence, expanded research and more student aid.

— Provide coherent and comprehensive planning for land use, environmental protection, energy and transportation. The present administration's efforts have been weak and confused.

— Assure aggressive enforcement of Proposition 9, the most sweeping political reform in California in the last 60 years. This law was drafted in my office and I will faithfully carry it out. My opponent opposed it and views many of its provisions as imposing unnecessary burdens on politicians.

— Overhaul the state Employment Development Department to find more jobs for the growing number of out-of-work persons and recruit talented persons into state agencies, regardless of age, race or sex.

— Enact a collective bargaining law for public employees.

— ACTIVELY WORK to resolve farm-labor problems through secret ballot elections.

— Strengthen the role of the dormant Consumer Affairs Department including appointment of a consumer advocate and publication of shoppers' guides with comparative prices and buying information.

— Provide adequate support for the mentally ill and retarded.

— Completely review Reagan health care policies.

— Appoint outstanding individuals to the Commission on Aging and carefully consider their recommendations.

— Improve our prisons and jail systems through more effective supervision and increased job training.

I also intend to work to implement the Serrano court decision to insure that all our children have a fair chance to enjoy an excellent education.

The tax structure will be reviewed to assure that tax burdens are borne as equitably as possible.

And I propose eliminating the state's oil depletion allowance, which gives petroleum companies unneeded tax breaks.

KKK May Be Racist, but Not Sexist

By HERB CAEN

SAN FRANCISCO — The White Muslins: A letter from James Venable, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, summoning the faithful to a rally, concludes with "Every Klansperson is urged to bring his robe." They may be racist, but sexist they're not...

THE LATEST DELINQUENT tax list in Santa Clara County shows Angelina Alioto $1,848.18 in arrears and Lawrence Alioto owing $677.69, but you may be sure this is only a bookkeeping oversight... I realize the Danes are hooked on democracy, but rully, dolling: Prince Henrik of Denmark flew here a fortnight ago in the tourist section while the Danish equivalent of the Secret Service lolled in first class. Fuller explanation: The Prince wanted to be with the crew of his racing boat, entered in the Knarr Regatta here, and those worthies had been consigned to the back of the plane.

HI THERE, Hugh Hefner! The monthly magazine published by the prisoner members of the Holy Name Society at Vacaville State Medical Facility has been named Prayboy by Editor Edward Posada, despite heavy pressure from some backsliders who wanted it to be called RePenthouse...(California, Hef, is where prisons are sometimes called "medical facilities." You for me and me for euphemism).

DENNY WALSH, the demon investigative reporter fired by the N.Y. Times as an aftermath of his three-month dig into the activities of Everybody's Favorite Mayor, Our Joe, has been hired by C.K. McClatchy for The Sacramento Bee. Walsh will prowl behind the State Capitol scenery, which should make a few bad actors nervous...Richard Nixon's face has been on the cover of Time 51 times, a record, which, as Gene Roland points out, proves for all Time that that magazine's "cover jinx" is more than a myth...Useless info, but you never know: When the metric system comes in, Carol Doda, still firing her famous twin 44 blanks at the booblic, will be a 112. I Think that's what it works out to in centimeters but I never was good at figures, even hers.

MEMO FROM Virgil Hollis, Marin's School Supt., to the heads of various schools there: "We urge you to have your Disaster Coordinator attend the next meeting with a copy of your Disaster Response Plan." "Sorry," wrote back the director of one school, lip acurl, "all our disasters are uncoordinated"...Hot crime news from the Novato Advance, forwarded by Grant Nance: "The Novato Little League is missing $198 worth of liquor which had been stored in a garage," and now you know why they call those kids Little Nippers.

THE MAGIC PHRASE, "conflict of interest," being uppermost in every political mind, you can bet that Houston Flournoy, chairman of the State Lands Commission, will abstain from voting on the hottest environmental issue in the Tahoe-Donner area — the attempt of a big So. California firm to run a pipeline into Donner Lake to supply a new housing development. The firm is headed by Justin Dart, who has chunked $4,000 into Flournoy's campaign for Governor, and Hou isn't about to let himself get backed into THAT corner..Spinoff: Jean Pennington still thinks Houston Flournoy is what they use to prevent tooth decay in Texas and shall we declare an embargo on all fluoride jokes from here on in?

The Nation CAN Stand It

By RICHARD L. STROUT

WASHINGTON — We heard Elliot Richardson, former attorney general, tell a group of reporters at breakfast this week that President Ford had to pardon Richard Nixon to avoid a court trial. The latter was unthinkable, he said: "The country would never stand for it."

We have heard that phrase increasingly in recent years, "The country won't stand for it." Often it comes at the end of a discussion; sometimes sorrowfully, sometimes happily but always conclusively; it wipes out other arguments.

It is not what is appropriate, or proper, or even honest, it is advanced as the ultimate the public will tolerate. The speaker always knows just where that invisible line is, the boundary at which it can be said, "The country won't stand for it."

The Vienam war dragged on and on and 500,000 Americans were committed, but it was impossible to admit that the United States had got in too far, that we could not achieve our announced objectives, and so 40,000 young Americans were lost. No president could come out and simply say, "We made a mistake." The country, of course, would never stand for it.

IN 1966 LYNDON Johnson's economists pleaded for a recommendation for higher taxes. The immense expenses of Vietnam plus the bountiful welfare expenditures were producing big deficits and would inevitably drive the already started inflation higher.

But Mr. Johnson delayed offering such unpopular proposals to Congress. He explained his reasons patiently to the economists; the country, he said, would never stand for it.

The inflation begun in Johnson's day, stimulated by global food and fuel shortages and world exchange difficulties, has whipped into a great storm. Nearly everybody thinks that somebody else should make sacrifices — taxes equalized, price supports reduced, the ship lightened. And the safety stations manned.

But these things are drastic; the storm may abate. And besides, the country, of course, wouldn't stand for them.

Former Vice President Spiro Ag- was caught in derelictions, but plea-bargained his way to leniency by resignation and a statement tantamount to an admission of guilt. He couldn't be tried, officials explained, because of course the country wouldn't stand for it.

Watergate burst on the nation and students searched for the guidance of the Founding Fathers. Impeachment — goodness no! — said the wise men in Washington who held off the idea for over a year because they knew the country wouldn't stand for it.

THE WATERGATE grand jury wanted to indict Mr. Nixon along with other defendants but the team of the prosecuting attorney was appalled. They knew what the country would stand for so Mr. Nixon was made an unindicted coconspirator.

Now comes the pardon. The presidency sets men apart. . .justice is equal, but more equal to some than to others. From the heights of his sudden power Mr. Ford must feel a peculiar compassion for the man who so recently preceded him, who made him vice president, who is now so humbled.

Besides that, he would spare the nation further trauma; supporters call a trial out of the question, the public would never stand for it.

Oh, men of little faith! The country has stood like a rock through a series of the most trying vicissitudes of modern times — what a spectacle of faith: men have differed passionately but have not faltered.

If confidence in laws, justice, and Constitution is weakened now, it is not by default of the people; it is due to the leaders who were always so confident that they knew what the country would stand for.

UNCLE LEN'S CORNER

Hi girls and boys.

How are all my friends today? Well and happy I hope.

And Uncle Len sure hopes that all of you are doing real well in school and that you plan to bring home a lot of "A"s and "B"s on your report card.

If all the boys and girls who submitted drawings of dogs this week could be graded on their work, they would all receive "A"s. And many of you would receive a gold star for effort.

For instance, Anne Jensen of Mission Viejo sent in a very pretty picture of her dog "Bowser" in a doghouse, with a sign that said "Quiet! Bowser's sleeping." The only problem was that it was all done in colored crayons and we could not use it in the contest.

And Jeff Field of Costa Mesa had an excellent black and white drawing of his sad-eyed hound. But it was torn in two and the envelope was stamped "Damaged in Handling In the Postal Service." We tried to paste it together, but the tear showed right through the face of the dog.

HONORABLE MENTION this week goes to Johanna Eddy, Debbie Cohen, Connie Pearson, Donnie Hempstead, Jon Tomita, Tori and Steffi Pera, and Todd and Scott Nicol, all of Costa Mesa.

Also to Lori Noonan, Debbie Tyler, Richard Parks, Eddie Morton and Michelle and Brian Foxx, all of Newport Beach.

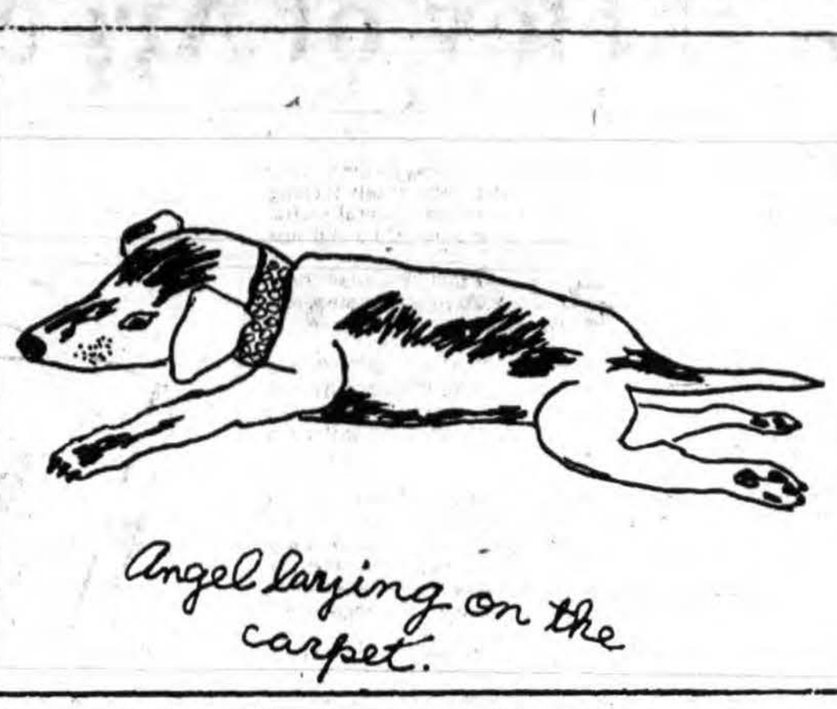

There were no entries received this week from Huntington Beach, Laguna Beach, San Juan Capistrano, or Corona del Mar. Uncle Len knows that is unusual as a lot of boys and girls in those cities have dogs and can draw pictures of them.

Carol was quite disappointed this week as her mail was very light and she didn't receive any poems at all. She says there must be some poets out there that can write good poems about their dogs.

And Andy only received one question from his readers this week. He says he doesn't know what happened to all his mail, but he sure would like to hear from all his friends.

Since there were many good entries of dogs and to give those who did not send any entries in a chance, Uncle Len is going to extend the dog contest for another week. So, all of you artists get busy and draw pictures of your dogs and send them in to Uncle Len.

Until next week then, may each and every one of you have the very, very happiest of everything.

★ PRIZE WINNER ★

Marlon Dempster, 9, of 838 St. Clair St., Costa Mesa

Any child 12 or under, can enter Uncle Len's Contest. Here's all you do: (1) Draw picture on piece of plain, white paper 5½ inches wide and 4 inches deep. Use black ink and make lines black. (2) Do not copy or trace picture. It must be your own work. (3) Put your name, age and address on back of drawing. Mail it to Uncle Len's Art Contest, Box 1560, DAILY PILOT, Costa Mesa 92626. Entries must be received by noon on Thursday for production on the following Saturday. Winner will receive Kennedy half dollar.

RIDDLES and JOKES

PRIZE WINNER

ART: What do ghosts chew?

AMY: I don't know, what?

ART: Booble gum.

Stephanie Perkal, 7, of 1918 Leeward Lane, Newport Beach

Andy sends a complete 20-volume set of the Merit Students Encyclopedia to Blake Lippi, age 10, of Pekin, Illinois for his question:

Exactly how does a clam build his shell?

The clams have been building their neat shells in the same old way for millions of years. Each baby clam inherited the pattern from his parents and he starts on this shell building program as soon as he hatches.

The clam's two shells are hinged together with a very strong muscle. When he relaxes his hinge, the two shells part to let in the water. The hinge also can close the shells tight to shut out his enemies. The oldest part of the shell is next to the hinge. Some of the grooves in this section were made when he was a tiny baby.

INSIDE THE SHELLS, his boneless body is enfolded in two fleshy flaps called the mantle. This is where the sturdy shells are created, fragment by tiny fragment. Actually, each shell is a tough, hard sandwich with three layers made from chalky materials called calciums. The mantle uses a very clever plan to make the shells bigger and bigger.

The edges of the loose mantle flaps reach to the outside edges of the two shells. This part of the mantle oozes two kinds of shell-building material. When these sticky materials dry, they form tough layers of shell. One forms an outer rim of the rough material that goes on top of the shells. Another forms the hard shiny inside layer of the shells. The clam adds an outer rim around his two shells during the seasons when food is plentiful and the water is pleasantly warm.

The inside layers of the shells are something special. They are made of very smooth pearly material to protect this soft body from scratches. This hard, pearly layer is added like a paint job, all over his inside walls. The special materials ooze from all over the upper surface of the mantle, which is just under the shells. When this oozy stuff dries, the inside walls of the two shells have a complete new pearly paint job.

A CLAM, of course, lives a very quiet life. You might think that he is out of touch with the oustside world. But this is not so. When he partly opens his shells, rows of tiny threads on his body wave streams of water in and out. His gills sift and dissolve oxygen and send out waste carbon dioxide. Scraps of floating food enter his little round mouth to be digested.

From the water he also takes the calcium type chemicals he uses to build his shells. His clever mantle arranges these mini-mini particles in different formations. When these oozy mixtures dry, they form the three different layers of his shells.

The clam may live in the silty sand of the sea or on the soggy floor of a stream.

Andy sends a seven-volume set of the Chronicles of Narnia to Pam Carson, age 13, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania for her question:

How big are baby opossums?

A newborn opossum is just about as big as a kidney bean. He is naked and blind, but not helpless. As soon as he is born, the mini-baby clings to his mother's fur and makes his way to the pouch on her tummy. He is one of six to twenty brothers and sisters. Inside the pouch, the mini-infants find nipples to feed only thirteen of them. So if the litter is extra large, some will be doomed to starvation from the start.

The brood of bitsy babies huddle inside their pouch for about two months, feeding and sleeping and developing. Then the furry youngsters like to ride around outside, clinging to the fur on their mother's back. She is no bigger than a smallish dog and with a dozen mouse-sized babies on her back, the little mother can hardly waddle. However, in another four weeks or so they are rat-sized teenagers, all ready to go off to live lives of their own.

Supermarket Solves Student Milk Crisis

ROSEMEAD (UPI) — Students in elementary schools were losing two cents each time they bought a carton of milk, but a supermarket chain has come to the rescue.

Because of the penny shortage, the school district charged its pupils 10 cents for each 8-cent carton of milk because it was unable to make the two-penny change.

The district's bank said it could not guarantee the $5 a day in pennies needed to make change, so the district decided to hike the priceof

After news stories appeared describing the penny dilemma, the school system received several offers to provide the pennies to restore the eight-cent price per milk carton.

The Board of Education accepted the offer from Alpha Beta food market.

Watch Your Step

A mother mountain goat keeps a watchful eye on her youngster as they make their way down a rocky slope at the Brookfield Zoo in Chicago, Ill. Even at a very young age, these animals are sure footed, so it became a safe journey to the bottom of the rocks.

Gumball Remains A Penny

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The gumball might be hollower but one major producer of penny gum is determined to keep the price at one penny each.

"We experimented with a two-cent vending machine in one town and, to me, it is not the way to go," says Leo Leary, president of the Ford Gum & Machine Co. of nearby Akron, N.Y.

Leary said a finished gumball is 75 percent sugar, and the price of sugar has skyrocketed in just one year from $14 to $40 per 100 pounds.

He said the company, which produces about 5.5 million pounds of gum a year, is experimenting with making the gumballs' hollow center a bit larger.

Boy Shows Good Head For Finance

LAKEWOOD (UPI) — David Brookhyster may be young, but he's a good businessman. He understands the principle of supply and demand.

David, 9, was all set up to open his lemonade stand, but because of overcast skies, he gave up the idea because he didn't think there would be much demand for a thirst quencher.

Instead, with his 6-year-old sister, Wendy, in tow to hold the money, he picked up his shoeshine stand and set up business at a busy intersection.

David made quite a few dollars that day, with each shine costing 25 cents.

"The kids on the block said I would never make any money this way," said the miniature businessman.

David, in the fourth grade, conducts his business from a rather crude but effective shoeshine stand he built in a woodshop class at school.

'Sorry, Charlie'

Pet Alligator Evicted in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)— Charlie the alligator, growing from a pet to a problem in the last five years, has been hauled from the Hanahan home hissing like his old angry self.

"I've been a nervous wreck, afraid to go down in the basement even to wash our clothes," said Josephine Hanahan, 55. "Charlie would start hissing and snapping at the air and once he nearly got out of his tank. I never liked Charlie very much, anyway. It got so he was terrorizing our household."

Animal Welfare League workers eased a rope around Charlie's neck, pulled him out of his tank-like cage and took him away this week. Bob McBride, one of the handlers, said, "He seemed mad at everybody . . . He had a lot of fight in him . . . But we'll find him a new home somewhere, that's part of our business."

Since the oldest son, Andrew, now 20, bought the alligator from a pet shop for $5, it has grown to three feet long. It also became more vicious in the last year until, as Mrs. Hanahan said "it was like having a dragon in the basement."

Hanahan said Charlie's disposition began changing in earnest about eight months ago when he apparenty learned to hiss loud enough to be heard throughout the house.

"He would take in so much air he would swell way up and then let it out 'hiiisssssssssss,'" said Hanahan. "It was enough to make your hair curl.

Language Classes Available

Foreign language classes are available through Golden West Evening College as well as at three off-campus locations this fall.

Classes include French, German, Italian, Japanese and Spanish. In addition, conversational Spanish will be held at Harbour View Clubhouse, Marina High School and Gisler School in Huntington Beach.

A special course on languages and cultures of the Mediterranean countries is designed for those planning to travel to Spain, Portugal, France and Italy. The course covers historic sites, customs, art and festivals.

Late registration for the classes continues through Sept. 25 in the college administration building.

$900 Grant Announced

Kenneth L. Cummins, a UC Irvine engineering student, has been awarded a $900 Epilepsy Foundation fellowship to assist in his research into computer analysis of electroencephalogram readings of epileptics.

The electroencephalogram is used by doctors to analyze the electrical activity of the brain.

Cummins will work under the direction of Dr. Mihai Demetrescu of the UCI-California College of Medicine department of physiology.

19th Win for Messersmith; Padres Bow Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Steve Yeager's fifth inning home run broke a 1-1 tie and lifted the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers to a 2-1 victory over the San Diego Padres Friday night behind the six-hit pitching of Andy Messersmith.

The victory boosted the Dodgers' record against the Padres this season to 13-0. Los Angeles has now won 16 in a row from San Diego.

Gary Thomasson singled home the tie-breaking run in the eighth inning, powering the San Francisco Giants to a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds Friday night.

Cincinnati's loss, coupled with Los Angeles' victory, dropped the Reds 3½ games behind the Dodgers in the National League West race.

Yeager's homer, his 11th of the year, came off losing pitcher Joe McIntosh, 0-4, who allowed just three hits in the seven innings he worked.

San Diego took a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning on a single by Glenn Beckert, a walk to Johnny Grubb, a passed ball charged to Yeager and an infield grounder.

Los Angeles tied the game in the bottom of the fourth when Jimmy Wynn singled after two were out, the first hit off McIntosh, and Steve Garvey slammed a run-scoring double to right. It was the 107th rbi of the season for Garvey.

Messersmith, 19-6, struck out six and walked four in posting his third straight victory and his sixth in his last seven decisions.

Today the Dodgers send Doug Rau to the mound in quest of their continued mastery of the Padres. First pitch is slated for 1:15.

Meanwhile, the Giants' Tito Fuentes singled with one out and stole second before scoring on Thomasson's sharp single to left.

The Giants rallied for two runs in the seventh to tie the game 3-3.

Hawkeyes Thinking Upset For Today's Tiff With UCLA

Strong Showing Against Michigan Bolsters Iowa

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — There is strange talk coming out of the University of Iowa football camp, and a word you surprisingly hear is upset.

Can Iowa, a team that has lost 12 straight over two season, really upend 12th-rated UCLA and superquarterback John Sciarra in their match today?

The oddsmakers have the Hawkeyes tabbed as at least a 14-point underdog for the home opener of new coach Bob Commings.

Is Commings thinking upset? "Darn right," snaps the exuberant Commings. "How else should we look at it? Good teams just like anybody else get beat."

Iowa lost its opener 24-7 to sixth-rated Michigan last week, but the score gave many Hawkeye fans cause for new hope. But Commings is not looking for sympathy, but a victory.

"What we have to do is pick up where we left off at Ann Arbor," states Commings, who a year ago was coaching in the prep ranks.

If Iowa is to pull the startling upset, the Hawkeyes' offense will have to generate more punch and the defense contain the versatile Sciarra, the nation's total offense leader.

"Our people found out last Saturday they can play in a big football game." says Commings. "Now we've got to get our offense going and play a consistent 60 minutes on defense.

"UCLA is as formidable as any foe we will meet. Their personnel is startling."

UCLA is 0-0-1 after a thrilling 17-17 deadlock with Tennessee two weeks ago and the Bruins have had an extra week to prepare for the game in Iowa Stadium that is expected to draw about 43,000 fans.

New UCLA coach Dick Vermeil — he replaced Pepper Rodgers — was impressed with Iowa against Michigan and calls the maturing Hawkeyes a much improved ball club.

"Iowa played really well after the first quarter in the Michigan game and definitely gave the Wolverines some problems defensively," he notes.

"Defensively, the Hawkeyes are about the same size as us. All-in-all, we expect Iowa to be very tough in their home opener."

Commings knows that Sciarra pronounced SHAR-a has to be limited if the Hawkeyes' hope for a major upset are to become reality.

"I don't think we will be able to shut out Sciarra but we will do our darndest to contain him," says Commings of the 5-foot-10, 178-pounder.

"We must restrict him. He's really a gifted athlete."

Against Tennessee the nifty junior ran 19 times for 178 yards 9.4 yards a carry and completed 15 of 21 passes no interceptions for 212 yards.

"Vermeil has changed UCLA from the wishbone to the veer offense," notes Commings, "and that exploits Sciarra's great talent at running and passing."

A repeat of last year's highscoring 55-18 UCLA victory is not expected by either coach.

"Iowa didn't make many mistakes against Michigan, and that shows they are an improving ball club," adds Vermeil.

Iowa fumbled the ball 43 times — and lost it 27 — in last year's 0-11 season, but against Michigan those statistics were 0 and 0.

Commings gives a lot of credit to quarterback Rob Fick, who a year ago was cut from the team without playing a minute.

"I thought Rod did a marvelous job against Michigan, considering his absence from football," says Commings. "He was the best offensive player on the field. One pass interception was his fault, but he is not inclined to repeat mistakes."

Fick hit 13 of 21 passes for 138 yards and had three interceptions.

Iowa has made at least one lineup change. Jock Michelson, the regular center, will be at offensive tackle in place of the injured Aaron Leonard.

Other new starter may come in the defensive line, where Commings said some spirited battles took place during the week.

The UCLA-Iowa rivalry goes back to 1938. The Bruins have won the five previous meetings.

UCLA KICKER — Former Huntington Beach High place kicker Brett White will be toeing conversions, field goals and punts today when UCLA tangles with Iowa.

Aging Barber Trims Youth To Take Lead

MASON, Ohio (AP) — Old pro Miller Barber, balding and paunchy at 43, swept past the lean, young lions of the game Friday with another three-under-par 68 and assumed command of the second round of the $150,000 Ohio Kings Island golf tournament.

"I could have had a 66 easily," said Barber, who had a two-round total of 136, six-under-par and one in front of the first-round leader Dick Rhyan.

Rhyan, still seeking his victory after some 10 years on the pro tour, blew from an opening 65 to a scrambling 72.

Jack Nicklaus, the defending champ, the designer of the 6,990-yard course at the Jack Nicklaus Golf center and an overwhelming favorite in a relatively light field, had to struggle to stay alive in the chase for a $30,000 first prize.

Nicklaus once dropped 11 strokes off the pace but managed to rally for another round of par 71. He was six shots back at 142.

"Six back at this stage is not much at all," Nicklaus said. "You can make that up very quickly if you're playing right."

Barber missed only two greens, bogeyed the first hole he played but otherwise had a very steady round.

He acquired two of his four birdies on long putts, one of about 40 feet and the other perhaps half that distance.

He threw a three-iron shot less than six feet from the cup on the long second hole and two holes later, exploded out of a greenside bunker to within three feet and made the putt for a birdie four.

Nicklaus went three over par for the day when he got it in the rough, took two to get out and made double bogey on his eighth hole.

UCI Poloists Maul Trojans

UC Irvine's nifty water polo team exploded for five goals in the last half to inundate helpless USC, 8-1, Friday afternoon in the UCI Tournament at Newport Harbor High's pool.

Also Friday, Cal State (Fullerton) thumped once-proud Cal State (Long Beach), 7-3.

UCI comes back this morning to take on Stanford in a 10 o'clock contest. The tourney concludes Sunday.

USC had knotted the count at a goal in the first quarter after Tim Quinn had given the eventual victors a 1-0 lead. Brent Bernard put the Anteaters ahead to stay before the first quarter ended.

Bernard was high scorer for the game with three while Nick Baba potted two. Tallying one apiece for UCI were Quinn, Keith Wall and Pat West.

Defending champion UC Berkeley is favored to win the ninth annual tourney. The Bears have games scheduled this morning against Cal State (Long Beach) at 8 and Fullerton at 11.

Emerson Dealt Loss By Gorman

LOS ANGELES—Newport Beach's Roy Emerson was ousted by sixth-seeded Tom Gorman, 6-7, 6-4, 7-6, Friday night in the third round of the $100,000 Pacific Southwest open tennis tournament.

Emerson won the opening set with a 7-4 victory in the tiebreaker, then lost the third set and the match when he dumped the ball into the net on the last two points in a 7-5 tiebreaker victory by Gorman.

In other matches, Arthur Ashe topped Jaime Fillol of Chile, 6-2, 6-4; Roscoe Tanner defeated John Alexander, 7-5, 7-6; Raul Ramirez tripped Bob Kreiss, 6-3, 6-1; and Jeff Borowiak upset Brian Gottfried, 6-4, 6-3.

In the Ashe-Fillol match, each broke the other's service in the first three games of the first set until Ashe took command. The second set started the same way.

After losing his serve by double faulting in the second set, Ashe broke Fillol's serve with the score tied 4-4 and went on to take the victory.

● Bing Suspended

YPSILANTI, Mich. — Veteran guard Dave Bing was suspended from the Detroit Pistons Friday and forward Don Adams was put on the trading block after they failed to report to the National Basketball Association team's training camp.

Pistons general manager Ed Coil, who suspended Bing without pay, said the eight-year veteran guard will be fined $250 for each practice missed.

● USSR, India Tied

POONA, India — India and the Soviet Union came out even after the first day of their 1974 Davis Cup tennis semifinals, with both Vijay Amritraj of India and Alex Metreveli of Russia scoring decisive victories.

Amritraj got the Indians off to an early 1-0 lead in the best-of-5 series by defeating the second-seeded Russian, Teimuraz Kakulia, 6-4, 11-9, 6-3.

But Metreveli, the top-seeded Russian, defeated Vijay's older brother, Anand Amritraj, 6-4, 9-7, 6-3 to even the score going into today's doubles match.

● Horses Drugged

NEW YORK — There were four drugging cases in races run during the period of Sept. 4 to Sept. 12 at Belmont Park, the New York State Racing and Wagering Board announced Friday. The board said the medications were discovered through urine tests and that they were different in each case. Under New York racing rules no horse can be permitted to start who has received medication for any reason after being entered into the race.

● Duffy Retires

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Duffy Daugherty, for 19 years head football coach at Michigan State University, has been granted his request for early retirement from his job as assistant to the vice president for development.

● Casals Beaten

ORLANDO, Fla. — Teen-aged Martina Navratilova stunned second-seeded Rosemary Casals in three sets Friday, advancing to the semi-finals on the $50,000 Orlando stop of the women's professional tennis tour.

The 17-year-old Czechoslovakian rallied from a tie breaking first-set loss to oust one of the world's top-ranking players 6-7, 7-5, 6-3.

● Disqualification

MASON, OHIO — Randy Erskine was disqualified for signing an incorrect scorecard in Friday's second round of the $150,000 Ohio Kings Island Open Golf Tournament, letting six more men into the final two rounds.

Erskine was posted with a 146 total, the figure required to qualify for the last two rounds.

The low 70 scorers and all tied for that position qualify for the last two rounds. When Erskine was disqualified, it left 69 men at 146 or better, and all those at 147 suddenly became eligible for the last two rounds.

Ryan Wild; Twins Edge Cherubs, 3-2

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Twins took advantage of California starter Nolan Ryan's wildness and an error by first baseman John Doherty to score two runs in the seventh inning and defeat the Angels 3-2 Friday night.

Ryan, 20-16, walked Danny Thompson to open the inning, gave up a pop single to Glenn Borgmann, then loaded the bases by walking Steve Braun.

Rod Carew forced Thompson at home for the first out of the inning. Bob Darwin then grounded what appeared to be a double-play ball to shortstop Bobby Valentine, but first baseman John Doherty couldn't handle the relay throw from second baseman Denny Doyle and the winning run scored on the error.

Ryan allowed just three hits but walked seven. He struck out six, four below his 10-per-game average, to run his major league leading total to 343. The complete game was his 24th of the year.

Ryan, staked to a 2-0 lead in the second inning, gave up one run in the third but escaped further damage thanks to a diving snare of a Darwin liner by shortstop Bobby Valentine, who turned it into a double play.

Ryan filled the bases on passes to open the inning, then uncorked a wild pitch to allow one run to score before Valentine saved him. Ryan then got Tony Oliva on a grounder to end the inning.

Cards, Bucs Keep Pace; Orioles Steam Ahead

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ted Simmons' three-run homer capped a four-run outburst in the fourth inning and carried the St. Louis Cardinals to a 5-2 victory Friday night over the Chicago Cubs.

The Cards' triumph, their 10th in 13 games against the Cubs, protected their half-game lead in the National League's East Division over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Right-handers Bob Forsch, 6-4, of St. Louis and Bill Bonham, 11-20, were locked in a 1-1 duel until Mike Tyson opened the Cards' big inning with a walk. Forsch sacrificed and was safe at first base on a fielders' choice and Lou Brock singled to load the bases, but Ted Sizemore was retired on a foul ball.

Reggie Smith followed with a single to put St. Louis in front 2-1, but Forsch was out attempting to score before Simmons pounded his 18th home run of the season.

● Pirates Win

PITTSBURGH — Rennie Stennett beat the throw to the plate on Willie Stargell's bases-loaded grounder in the ninth inning, capping a three-run rally that lifted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-3 victory over the New York Mets Friday night.

New York starter Ray Sadecki, 9-8, was working on a three-hitter and leading 3-0 until the Pittsburgh seventh.

● Orioles on Top

BOSTON — Don Baylor and Boog Powell belted home runs and Ross Grimsley and Grant Jackson combined to pitch a six-hitter Friday night, leading the Baltimore Orioles to a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The victory was the seventh in eight games and the 19th in the last 24 starts for the surging Orioles.

In the second inning, Baylor drilled his 10th homer of the baseball campaign — a drive into the screen in left-center field. Powell's 10th of the year broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh. He cracked a low outside pitch on a full count into the left-field screen off Boston starter Dick Drago, 6-10.

● Yankees Sweep

NEW YORK — Larry Gura tossed a six-hitter, pitching the New York Yankees to a 3-0 victory in the second game and a sweep of their Friday night doubleheader against Cleveland.

The Yankees, who moved into a first-place tie with Baltimore in the American League East race, defeated the Indians 5-4 in the opener on Bobby Murcer's two-out triple in the bottom of the ninth inning.

Gura, who has won five straight decisions since being called up from the International League a month ago, permitted just four singles as the Yankees beat ex-teammate Fritz Peterson.

Indians got one run in the first game on a second inning double by Jack Brohamer and Mason's two-out error. Cleveland also tallied on singles by John Ellis and Hendrick and Brohamer's sacrifice fly in the fourth.

Bucs, GWC At It Again

Heated rivals Orange Coast and Golden West colleges resume their annual football war tonight at OCC in a match that traditionally features a wild and zany finish. Game time is 7:30.

Golden West's Rustlers are 3½-point favorites, one of the few times coach Ray Shackleford's team has been picked to win in the nine-year series.

Both teams boast explosive offensive units and the defensive squads are annually among the best on the two-year college level.

This year they each have another secret weapon—an Accomando in the backfield.

Golden West will be sending Dan Accomando out for the second straight season at quarterback and with a year's experience behind him, he could rewrite most of the Rustlers records.

He is the same quarterback who propelled the Rustlers from a 27-0 deficit to a last-minute 28-27 victory a year ago.

On the other side of the field will be younger brother Tony, a freshman at Orange Coast. After sparking the Pirates to a 20-0 victory over Cypress last week in a reserve role, Tony has been named to the starting backfield by coach Dick Tucker for tonight's outing.

Both Accomando brothers like to carry the football and both have had a high degree of success in this department with Dan also an accomplished passer.

But that's only the beginning of the offensive punch for both teams and only a part of the determining factor in the final outcome.

Strong defensive units could be the key to success or failure for either side.

The one question mark is inexperience with most of the defensive unit being freshmen.

Orange Coast will have a bevy of running backs to call on in addition to Tony. Mike Nanko will start at the other halfback post with Dan Princeotto, Rick Brown and Pete Brown close behind.

Dave White directs the Pirates at quarterback and could be the spark that ignites the offense. He passed well last week and made few mistakes in his first outing.

Joining Dan A. at Golden West in the opening backfield will be sophomores Paul Fiskness and Brent Partridge, a pair of part-timers a year ago who have blossomed this season.

Sailors Nab 17-0 Victory

By ROGER CARLSON
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Key fumble recoveries by Newport Harbor High's Joe Castorena and Ron Lamerton on the Sailors' 21 and 33 yard lines mid way through the second half ignited the Bluejackets as they rolled to a 17-0 non-league football victory over Fullerton.

A crowd of 3,800 watched coach Bill Pizzica's hosts stumble around for two periods after an opening TD march Friday night before the recoveries got the Sailors in gear.

Newport's offense was impressive only once up to the turning point—when the Tars marched 58 yards to paydirt in 10 plays at the outset.

Two passes to Vinnie Mulroy opened up the Fullerton defense and Brian Theriot capped the drive with a one-yard plunge.

Art Sorce kicked the first of two PATs.

It was a penalty and mistake plagued game for both sides and Newport appeared to lack the knockout punch.

However, as it was in the first period, it was Mulroy involved again as he took in a 27-yard scoring strike from quarterback Gordon Adams to give the Sailors some breathing room.

Later a 33-yard field goal was added by Sorce to round out the scoring.

Fullerton's field position kept the Indians bottled up in the first half, taking over on their 21, 16, 11, 14 and 15.

And fumbles finished them off in the second half.

Dan Christy was Newport's most effective back, darting for 70 yards in nine carries through the Indians defense.

Fullerton rolled up 260 yards against the Newport defense despite its inability to penetrate past the Newport 21.

Gauchos Depending On Frosh

Freshmen will carry the load this season for Saddleback College's cross country team.

Only one sophomore—Rick Leedom—is on coach Duane Cain's seven-man roster and that's expected since the Gauchos were forced to cancel their '73 season because of a lack of runners.

The two top freshmen figure to be Marty Kruger and Steve Cox.

Kruger was a good quarter-miler (50.3) and half-miler (1:58.7) at Laguna Beach High last season and also ran the mile in 4:29.0. And Cox was a standout at Mission Viejo.

Other freshmen include Bob Cooney (Mission Viejo), Jim North (Foothill), Duane Conrad (Mission Viejo) and Steve Bash (Mission Viejo). Conrad and Bash are decathlon standouts and are only out for cross country for the training.

Faulkner's Heroics Stagger Marina, 7-6

By CRAIG SHEFF
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Estancia High defensive back Mike Faulkner gathered up a fumble with 1:43 to go and raced 62 yards for a touchdown, giving the Eagles a stunning 7-6 football victory over Marina at Westminster High Friday night.

It was a shocking blow for Marina's Vikings which had dominated play in the second half of the loosely-played opener.

The Vikes had just taken control of the ball at the Estancia 41 and with less than two minutes left appeared to have enough time to run out the clock.

But on the first play, Faulkner, a 5-9, 165-pound junior, picked up the ball near the sideline and ran the 62 yards untouched. Del Jones then booted the game-winning point.

Both teams made enough mistakes for a season with Marina giving up the ball seven times—five fumbles and two pass interceptions.

Estancia had an even worse night, coughing up the ball three times via fumbles and another five on interceptions.

One of the Eagles' fumbles in the second quarter led to Marina's touchdown.

The Vikings' Mark Scavo recovered the loose ball at the Estancia 10-yard line with 11 seconds left in the opening quarter.

Three plays later Jim Rankin went seven yards up the middle for the touchdown. The kick for the PAT was wide to the left.

And that appeared to be all the points Mariha needed until Faulkner's heroics in the closing minutes.

Marina linebacker Jim Wendell played well in defeat. He picked off two Estancia passes, recovered a fumble, averaged 37.5 yards on five punts and caught a pair of passes while playing end on offense.

And Rankin had an exceptional game at running back for the Vikes, picking up 159 yards in 28 carries.

Bob Craft, Dan Lacko and Manny Torres also had interceptions for Marina while Scott Coshow and Faulkner picked off passes for the Eagles.

Defense Gives Uni 17-0 Win

By ARMAND HANSON
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Scott Murphy sparked the University Trojans to a 17-0 season opening win over Tustin on the Tiller's field Friday night with two touchdowns, one on a spectacular 79-yard run.

Murphy totaled 103 yards on 13 carries to lead all ball carriers.

As good as Murphy was on offense, the Trojans defense matched his heroics, holding Tustin to a net of 71 yards. They sacked Tustin's passers eight times for 53 yards. They intercepted three passes, Art Heise picking off two and Jim Green one.

Linebacker Don Nichols was all over the field, recovered a fumble at the start of the fourth quarter and rambled 14 yards to set up Jim Green's 33-yard field goal.

The Trojans drove to Tustin's seven the first time they had the ball, but were stopped on fourth down, a yard short. Tustin punted out and this time the Trojans covered 52 yards in seven plays with Murphy banging over from the one. Green booted the extra point for the 7-0 first quarter lead.

Mid way through the second quarter Murphy started around his own left end from the 21, and, aided by excellent downfield blocking, out ran the Tustin defenders for the score. Green again converted.

The Trojans didn't complete a pass. But only three were attempted, and only after the outcome of the game was determined.

The Trojans defense so effectively bottled up the Tustin offense they forced eight punts. And Tustin's Rick Partridge came through with some beauties, averaging 43 yards to back the Trojans into a hole throughout the evening.

Knights on Top

Mesa Defeated In Opener, 20-7

By STEVE ANDREWS
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Foothill High spoiled the Costa Mesa coaching debut of Tom French as the Knights dumped the Mustangs, 20-7, in the football season opener Friday night at Orange Coast College.

French's defensive forces performed well throughout the evening, allowing the Knights only one sustained scoring drive. But his offense betrayed him in the early going.

Two first quarter misplays set up easy Knights scores and the visitors made them stick with an aggressive defense.

Costa Mesa was in the game at halftime, trailing only 13-7, but was thoroughly stymied by the Knights in the second half, managing only 53 total yards.

While the Mesa offense was sputtering, Foothill took advantage of its only second half thrust. A 48-yard scamper by the Knights' Greg Speicher put the ball on the Mesa 14. Quarterback Paul McGaffigan completed the drive with a touchdown strike to John Hoyt. Scott Craig's second conversion put the game out of reach.

That score was only the icing on the cake. The killing blows came in the first quarter.

Foothill took the opening kickoff and marched to the Mesa three where Mustangs Mark Nebeker and Stan McCoy made a key stop of Speicher on fourth down.

However on Mesa's second play from scrimmage a back fumbled the snap at his two. Foothill scored three plays later as McGaffigan hit tight end Mike Tracy, giving the Knights a 7-0 lead with 4:01 left in the first period.

After the ensuing Mesa series stalled at its 29, a back bobbled the ball while in punt formation and the Knights had another break. They capitalized quickly with Speicher scoring from two yards out for a 13-0 edge with 1:55 to go in the first stanza.

Mesa's only score came on its next possession. Rod Figgatt fired into the end zone where a Knights defender batted the ball into the waiting arms of Keith Josephson. Stan McCoy's kick made it 13-7 with 9:25 left in the first half.

Oilers Devoured In 4th Quarter

By HOWARD L. HANDY
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

DOWNEY—Warren High School's Bears scored three times in the fourth quarter to break open a tight opening football game with the Huntington Beach Oilers here Friday night to post a 29-7 victory.

The Huntington Beach defense played magnificently through three periods, twice holding the Bears inside the five-yard line with four tries that failed.

Each team scored a touchdown in the first half. Clark Wilmoth eluded an early tackle to scamper 83 yards with the second half kickoff and was hauled down at the Oilers four by Greg Nitzkowski. A fourth down field goal put the Bears in front to stay, 10-7.

Just prior to the halftime the Oilers thwarted a Warren drive at the one-yard line when Keith Dionne tackled Bears quarterback Eric Hipple.

Huntington Beach moved the ball well for three first downs the first time it had possession but a rolling snap from center on a fourth down punting situation at the Warren 39 turned the ball over to the Bears at their 49.

Hipple drove the team to the four and rolled around end for the first Warren score with 4:13 gone.

The defensive struggle then found Huntington Beach getting the next big break when Greg Thornton came up with a fumble at the Bears 20. Two plays later Nitzkowski stormed into the end zone with a booming run from 16 yards out and Paul Gassman kicked the tying conversion to make it 7-7.

Naro Negrete kicked a 22-yard field goal after Wilmoth's brilliant kickoff return and the Bears scored touchdowns from the three by Hipple, the 12 by Wilmoth and on a recovered fumble by Billy Diaz in the end zone in the final stanza.

Loren Micklin was brilliant in gaining a net 110 yards for the Oilers on offense while Nitzkowski shined both ways. The Oilers defensive unit had a number of stars including Jim Lucas, Toby Bonwell, Mark Duval, Chris Kent, Rich Clapp and Rick Sater, along with Thornton.

MV Raps Runners By 42-19

By JOHN MacDONALD
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Mission Viejo High erased an early 7-0 deficit and easily routed Saddleback High's Roadrunners, 42-19, in the football opener for both clubs Friday night.

The Santa Ana Bowl crowd of 4,000 witnessed an exceptional passing performance by Diablos QB Dave Schmidt, who hit eight of 10 attempts, for 204 yards and three touchdowns.

After Saddleback had drawn first blood on a 44-yard touchdown run by tailback Clarence Jackson, the Diablos took the ensuing kickoff and drove 64 yards for their first score with John Montgomery going in from the six.

Mission Viejo continued to pull away in the second quarter on scoring bombs of 50 and 25 yards from Schmidt to Wilbur Gregory and Eric Schmidt. Doug Reeves added his third of six PATs and the Diablos had a commanding 21-7 lead at the half.

The Roadrunners had one last breath in the third quarter when Carlos Martinez recovered a fumble and Saddleback marched 52 yards to score with Jackson going the final three.

After that it was all Mission Viejo. Coach John Murio's South Coast League contenders buried the Roadrunners with three touchdowns in the final quarter.

Schmidt went to the air again and connected with his brother, Eric, and the scoring play was good for 30 yards.

Montgomery and Kevin Weilein wrapped up Mission Viejo scoring parade with runs of two and six yards.

Saddleback had one outstanding offensive weapon in its attack in Jackson, who rushed for 97 yards and two touchdowns, averaging 5.7 yards a carry.

The Diablos complemented their awesome passing attack with a balanced rushing game with Weilen gaining 50 yards on seven carries with Montgomery adding 47 yards on 10 tries and Schmidt picking up 31 yards on 7 attempts. So Murio's first venture with Mission Viejo is done — and the Diablos have posted more points (42) than in any prior game in their nin-year history.

Laguna Unveils New Attack Today

Laguna Beach High's Artists unveil a new attack under a new coach today as they trek to Western High to do battle with Cypress High's Centurions in non-league football action.

It's a 2 o'clock kickoff and Laguna Beach is a three-point favorite to snap an eight-game losing streak.

In 1973 the Artists posted a 25-6 victory over Cypress for their only victory of the year.

Pacing the Laguna Beach offense, which operates out of multiple sets, is tailback John Carlson, rated the fastest back in the 2 A South Coast League.

His speed and the running and passing of Mike Serrano at quarterback give the Artists a two-pronged attack with off tackle power plays and sweeps the main thrust of the Laguna Beach offense.

Coach Dennis Haryung will field a starting eleven that boasts a 184-pound average from tackle to tackle.

Key aerial targets for Serrano are Jim Green (145) and Scott Robertson (150).

The Artists face a foe that operates out of Houston veer with options putting pressure on the defensive corners.

Mark Jackson, who intercepted six enemy aerials as a defensive back in '73, directs the Centurions of coach Dick Shelko at quarterback.

He's a 5-10, 175-pound senior and is backed up by fullback Don Ohmenus (165) and Tony Landrye (150).

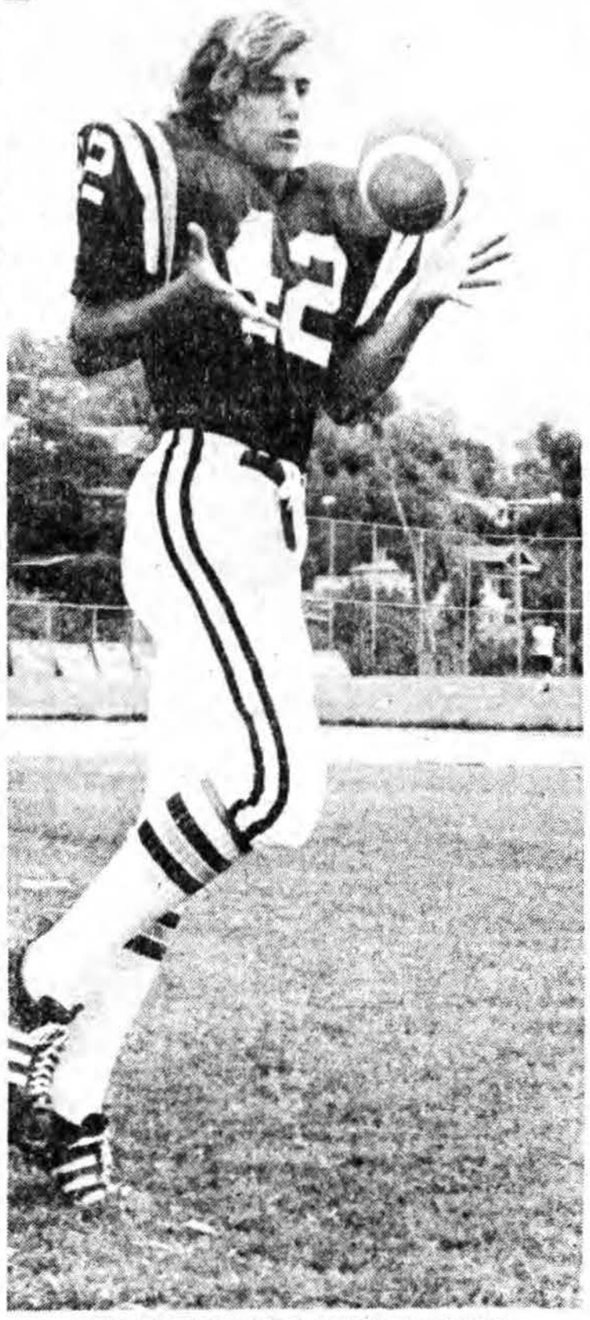

The Centurions, who are in the 4-A Empire League, were 1-8 in 1-A circles last year.

El Toro Mistakes Costly As Wildcats Gain 14-14 Tie

By DAVE ROMANO
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

Brea took advantage of two El Toro fumbles Friday night to come from behind twice and earn a 14-14 tie in the season football opener for both schools at Brea Stadium.

The visiting Chargers, who won the statistics battle and dominated the game most of the way, held leads of 6-0 and 14-7, but each time turned the ball over to the Wildcats who took advantage of the mistakes to get the tie.

El Toro utilized an effective ground game behind the power running of fullback Chuck Van Liew and the outside threat of tailback Brian Heaney to control the ball on the Wildcats.

Except for a couple of long runs, Brea couldn't move the ball on the ground against a rugged Chargers defense and was forced to take to the air to maintain an attack.

Chargers mistakes, however, enabled Brea to stay in the game and come away with a tie. The two fumbles were costly, but seven penalties also hurt El Toro's chances of pulling away.

Early in the game El Toro's offensive line was opening huge holes for Van Liew and Heaney but the Wildcats changed their defense in the second half to cut the ground attack off somewhat.

The Chargers defense played a fine game, intercepting three passes and cutting off Brea's running attack, but the Wildcats hit on two passes in key situations to set up their scores.

After Brea came back to tie the score with 6:24 left in the game, El Toro moved to the Wildcats 11 but a third-down pass was intercepted in the end zone, putting an end to the final threat.

El Toro's first touchdown came on a two-yard run by Van Liew with center Keith Jones throwing a key block.

The Chargers then took a 14-7 lead in the third period when Clyde Birchard took a handoff on a flanker-around and rambled four yards for the score. Quarterback Gary Key then hit Birchard for the two-point conversion.

Edison, Bolsa Collide Tonight

Edison High's Chargers begin their quest for a sixth straight winning football season tonight when they trek to Bolsa Grande High in a non league confrontation.

Kickoff is at 8 and the Chargers of coach Bill Workman are nine-point favorites to dispose of the Garden Grove League hosts.

The Chargers boast a potent forward wall for quarterback Nate Ching and tailback Don Cornell to operate behind.

Edison averages 203 pounds per player from tackle to tackle—but Bolsa Grande's Matadors appear to have the bulk to stay with them in the interior.

The Chargers like to run their tailback off tackle in a power series, but the major weapon is the forward pass.

Ching has a bevy of good receivers to throw at—and the primary receiver is Steve Hines, the starting slotback who also doubles in the secondary.

The Chargers also have an excellent backup quarterback in junior Rick Bashore. Bashore is a starter in the secondary and provides outstanding depth at the quarterback slot.

Critical, however, to the passing game is the establishment of an effective running game. And that puts much of the pressure on Cornell and fullback Don Bruyn, in addition to the Edison linemen.

Defensively the Chargers are potent and although Workman is somewhat reluctant to admit, he agrees that the defense is the backbone of the Chargers' arsenal.

Bolsa Grande coach George Aselson's crew counters with a wishbone attack, featuring quarterback Mike Richelieu and 6-0, 200-pound John Carroll.

Receiver Handsome Roundtree (6-3, 180 jr.) is an outstanding prospect and the line is anchored by 220-pound senior Mark Gorman, who doubles on defense at middle guard.

Edison has never lost to a Garden Grove League eleven, having tied La Quinta in its inaugural season (14-14), in addition to 27-0 and 8-7 wins over Santiago in 1970 and '71.

The La Quinta standoff was Edison's first ever game in 1969.

SC Opens Football Hostilities

San Clemente High, slowed by injuries in its practice sessions, hopes to get it together tonight when the Tritons battle Esperanza in the opening football game of the season at Valencia High. Game time is 7:30.

Coach Allie Schaff had three of his starting backfield starters sidelined in last week's scrimmage with Katella.

Fullback Tom Arons (tonsillitis), tailback Brian Wood (sprained ankle) and slotback Ron Wade (flu) have been ailing, but are improved enough to play.

Quarterback Tim Vleisides, who played on the sophomore team last season, will direct the Tritons. Wood and Arons, both of whom saw limited varsity action in 1973, carry the running load.

But the key in the game figures to be the San Clemente defense.

The Tritons have six players going both ways and this could pose a problem in the final quarter since Esperanza is a run-orientated team which runs out of the complex wishbone.

Esperanza's offense is geared by senior Paul Salcido, a 5-7, 145-pounder who is called quick and elusive by Aztecs coach Dave Stout.

The Anaheim school is rich in running backs with senior Steve Beckett, junior Mark Reinsvold and sophomore Don Stodola the workhorses.

And Esperanza has a nugget in middle guard Bob Bass, a 6-1, 205-pounder who is regarded by Stout as one of the best linemen in Orange County.

Suddleback, Cypress Lock Horns Tonight

Saddleback College embarks on what coach George Hartman hopes is another successful football season tonight at 7:30 when it hosts Cypress at Mission Viejo High.

In five seasons under Hartman, the Gauchos have compiled an impressive overall record of 42-9-2 and have won or shared conference championships in four of five of those years.

Last season Saddleback shared the Mission Conference title with San Diego City. The Gauchos finished with a 9-1 record, their only setback coming at the hands of the Knights.

While tonight's game opens the season for the Gauchos, Cypress already has one game under its belt. The Chargers dropped a 20-0 decision to Orange Coast last week, but gave the Pirates a tough battle for three periods.

Saddleback holds a 3-1 edge in games played between the two clubs. The Gauchos have posted wins of 15-8, 7-0, and a come-from-behind 24-10 triumph last season. Cypress' only win was a 24-13 verdict in 1971.

Hartman will be interested in how his inexperienced offensive line handles a rugged Cypress defense. Much of the success the offense has this year will depend on how the line develops.

Led by community college all-America candidate Paul Charlton, Cypress should give Hartman an indication how good his line is.

If given enough time to throw, quarterback Marty Mikkelsen should have a good season for the Gauchos. He'll be throwing to experienced receivers in flanker Jim Poettgen, split end Brian Hester and tight end Steve Trainer.

Sophomores Sam Peek and Bob McNamara will start in the Gauchos backfield.

Dana Hills Bid Falls Short, 14-9

By HARLAN MACK
Of the Daily Pilot Staff

ONTARIO—A belated scoring bid fell 10 yards short of success for Dana Hills Friday night as the Dolphins took a 14-9 setback from Ontario in a football duel at Chaffey High, here.

Coach Tony Leon's Dolphins had put together their punishing ground attack to drive to Ontario's five yard line with less than three minutes to play.

However, they were stymied til fourth down when workhorse Darryl Howe took a pitchout and was without aid of blockers. He was hurled for a four-yard loss and Ontario took over with 1:12 left in the game.

Howe had scored with 5:03 left in the half, going the final nine yards on an 80-yard march which devoured seven minutes. Howe gained 35 of those yards and ended up the game with 159 yards net in 36 carries. He had 85 yards for 15 carries in the first two quarters.

John Gill's conversion gave the Dolphins a 7-0 lead but that was lost when Ontario got all of its points in the third quarter.

The victors took the second half kickoff and drove 78 yards in six plays, staying exclusively on the ground. Five minutes later an Ontario player scooped up a blocked punt and dashed 40 yards for the other tally to make it 14-0.

Dana Hills' final points came early in the fourth quarter when Craig Fulladosa sacked Ontario's quarterback in the end zone for a safety.

Neither team completed a pass. And Dana Hills dominated statistics, racking up more than double Ontario's net yardage.

The Dolphins were further hampered by 75 yards in penalties.

What's Doing Outdoors

JIM NIEMIEC

Newport Harbor anglers are getting a good shot at marlin a few miles off the jetty. In the company of Orange countians Chuck Garrison and Harvey Solomon, this writer, aboard the sportfisher Majestic spent a day this week on the ocean in quest of a marlin.

Working the area 12 to 18 miles, 165 degrees from Newport, there were many feeders spotted during the outing, but our three strikes were not converted into tagged or released fish, even though one did not separate from the light mono leader until after doing battle for 40 minutes. The marlin were hitting jigs as well as live mackeral when a cooperative school of fish were located.

It appears that marlin sportfishermen will be able to enjoy a good spikebill bite for some time as lots of bait and 69-degree water exists presently. Only a few sportfishers were out in the area during midweek, but with a tournament in progress there is sure to be a lot of boats to contend with this weekend.

Keith and Doris Newman, at Newport Beach, aboard their El Pescador Jr. landed two marlin this past Sunday a few miles off Catalina. Richard Costello of Santa Ana weighed-in a 201-pound marlin taken off Dana Point while fishing on the Majestic skippered by Jim Donnelly.

Jigs trolled at 7- to 10-mph enable anglers to cover a lot of water on the lookout for feeders, tailers and jumpers. At the same time anglers have a very good chance of getting a blind strike. To date, more than 170 marlin have been weighed-in at the Balboa Angling Club with jigs accounting for more than 65 percent of the boated spikebills. Catches should be good through October and even broadbill are finally showing signs of being cooperative for rod and reelers.

Albacore, Yellows Move Up

Sportfishing, in general, has taken a turn for the worse as smaller game fish have disappeared from nearby waters. The only bright light is a fair bluefin tuna bite for a few anglers aboard party boats running out of Newport and Dana Harbors.

Albacore continue to reward anglers fishing northern ports between Avila Beach and Morro Bay. Two albies per rod has been the average and most longfins are running in the 26- to 33-pound class. Seas are relatively calm now, but will be getting rough as winter-like weather starts to set in.

Bass Hitting at Lakes

Some good bass fishing is on tap at a number of Southland lakes and prospects are good for a continued good showing through the fall months.

San Vicente in San Diego opened on a fair note and should improve for both bass and trout as water temperature drops. Look for Vail, Henshaw and Sherwood to improve.

Orange County's Irvine Lake will close Sept. 29. Big Bear Lake is good for a few anglers trolling for stocked rainbows and still fishermen soaking Zeke's off rocky shorelines. Look to Big Bear to produce a few big bass before winter sets in.

Dove Migrating South

Cold and damp mornings have triggered a migration of dove out of Southern California. Scattered birds are still in the Central Valley and parts of Orange County, but hunters are having to work to bag a handful of birds. Thundershowers over desert areas have also been responsible for chasing many birds south of the border.

One of Southern California's most popular public hunting clubs will open its fields up to unattached hunters the first of October. Linc Raahauge's Pheasant Hunting Club in Corona offers good facilities for Orange County hunters. Phone 735-2361 for more information.

Coastal Deer Season Ends

Hunters were successful in the field this past weekend as the coastal deer season came to an end. Hunting with Dr. Leland Chow in Kern County, this writer was fortunate to bag a nice three-pointer while counting no less than 40 other deer during the hunt. Other coastal areas reported light hunting, but those who worked heavy cover and got off roads, at least saw legal bucks — even though not much shooting was heard.

The inland deer season should be good this year as scouting reports indicate a good population of forkies and a fair number of three-pointers. Cooler weather will hopefully continue and be an asset to hunters.

There still exists a very high fire danger in all Southern California and outdoorsmen are warned to be careful with fires. Areas of the Cleveland National Forest will be closed for deer hunting unless we get substantial rainfall prior to Sept. 28.

Sophia, Brigitte On Facelifts

Q: Is it true that Sophia Loren has secretly had a facelift? — Mrs. Constance R., Denver.

A: No, but she's not against the idea. "If I ever feel the need for the patch-and-repair work of middle age," smiles the 40-year-old Sophia, "I will do it when the time comes, without shame. Face-lifts, hormones, youth clinics — I will try them all!" On the other hand her French contemporary, Brigitte Bardot, also 40, is not quite ready to throw in the towel. "For me," bristles Bardot, "there will be no facelift. It is against nature."

'Glad You Asked That'

by Marilyn and Hy Gardner

Q: What was the original cost of "Gone With the Wind"? And how long did it take to make? — Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Duncan, St. Louis.

A: Three years. At a cost of $4½ million.

Q: A question about Jeanette Nolan, star of the TV series, "Dirty Sally." Was she really a Shakespearean actress? — Mrs. Grace B., Pittsburgh.

A: Yes — "Dirty Sally" played Lady Macbeth on Broadway and on the screen (in 1948) with Orson Welles. Happily she won't have to live for long with the short-lived "Dirty Sally" image, having achieved other credits in half a dozen films and TV's "Richard Boone Show" and "Gunsmoke." Jeanette also has a memorable role in a current movie made for TV, "Hijack."

Q: Wasn't it Burt Reynolds who said: "A dress should be tight enough to show you're a woman, but loose enough to show you're a lady"? — Mrs. Malbaline Cicotte, Passaic, N.J.

A: No. It was Oscar winning Hollywood costume designer Edith Head.

Q: I read where the so-called "Movies' Greatest Latin Lover," Rossano Brazzi, romps naked with lovely young nudes in his newest movie. I wonder what goes through an actor's mind playing such scenes? — Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie M., San Antonio, Tex.

A: Shrugs 55-year-old brazen Brazzi: "I've never felt anything emotional while kissing a girl on the screen — or being in a bathtub with a naked actress." One of the bare beauties he shares a wooden tub with in "Master of Love" is Tina Aumont, daughter of Jean Pierre Aumont.

Send your questions to Hy Gardner, "Glad You Asked That," care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1560, Costa Mesa 92626. Marilyn and Hy Gardner will answer as many questions as they can in their column, but the volume of mail makes personal replies impossible.

STORY ON TV
Lt. William Calley

TV Drama Coming

Calley Story Told

By BOB THOMAS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "This isn't some animal or monster. This is a human being who committed a monstrous act."

Producer-director Stanley Kramer was giving his interpretation of the misdeeds of Lt. William L. Calley Jr., convicted in the deaths of at least 22 civilians in the My Lai massacre in Vietnam.

The Kramer version will be seen on ABC television this fall as the third in his series of notable trials.

"What happened?" Kramer mused on the day before starting the taping of the show. "How did William Calley go from Miami, Fla., to My Lai 4?

"I'M NOT GOING to supply any panacea, not even a middle-of-the-road panacea. But I will suggest his basic orientation, which was that the Red Chinese would be occupying San Francisco within two weeks.

"Those soldiers were indoctrinated. Anyone in a village could be the enemy — children, women, old people. The only answer was to 'waste' — kill everything that moved."

Kramer said he is no apologist for Calley, although the two men have become acquainted since the trial. The director has long been fascinated with trials, and he went to Calley's with the intention of staying one day. He remained for five weeks.

"I JUST SAW Calley again two weeks ago at Leavenworth Prison," Kramer remarked. "He said he'll be up for parole in January. Is he bitter? I don't think so. He has matured a lot through the whole experience."

Kramer has a history of dealing with seemingly unpopular issues. He treated bigotry in "Home of the Brave" and "The Defiant Ones," war crimes in "Judgment at Nuremburg," nuclear disaster in "On the Beach," thought control in "Inherit the Wind."

"I lost with 'Nuremburg,' 'On the Beach,' 'Inherit the Wind' and 'Ship of Fools,'" he remarked. "The Defiant Ones' (Sidney Poitier, Tony Curtis) made money and so did 'Home of the Brave,' but that was because it only cost $350,000.

"I've not won any popularity contests, and I don't expect to win with this particular scene."

AFTER WATCHING the trial, Kramer made a financial arrangement with Calley for the rights to dramatize the story. Originally, a film was planned.

"I felt the subject was more suitable for the 'nowness' of television, and it fit neatly into this series I was doing for ABC," Kramer said.

Playing Calley

'Toma' Star Picked

By JAY SHARBUTT

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Musante happened to be sitting in his agent's office in Los Angeles a few weeks ago when the phone rang. The caller asked if the star of the "Toma" series was available for a certain role.

The agent, Musante recalled, "turned to me and said, 'Do you have any political reservations about playing William Calley?' And I said no, none at all."

And that, he said, is how producer Stanley Kramer tapped him for the title role in "The Trial of Lt. Calley," which ABC says probably will be aired late this year. No definite date has been set.

THE DRAMA IS based on the court-martial that convicted the former Army officer of killing 22 Vietnamese civilians at My Lai in 1968. Calley now is in prison at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

"At this point, I can't say how I personally feel about him," Musante said. "But I do feel, regardless of what my opinions are by the time I finish the show, that it's a story that should be told."

Musante, whose knowledge of the Calley case is about that of the average newspaper and magazine reader, said he'll spend the next few weeks reading all he can about it to prepare for his role.

The actor, a Bridgeport, Conn., native whose only connection with the military was as an Army Reserve clerk-typist from the pre-Vietnam era, was asked how he felt when Calley, 31, was convicted in 1971.

"I PERSONALLY feel that justice was not done at the trial," Musante said. "By his own admission, I know the man did kill. Do I think this is right? No, of course not.

"On the other hand, I know other people killed at My Lai in a similar manner. I'm not going to say he's a scapegoat, but it didn't sit well with me that he was one man singled out, regardless of whatever he's like."

Musante, who portrayed a cop of many disguises in the since-canceled "Toma" series on ABC, said he has no qualms of any kind about portraying Calley.

?Trivia? By T.T.

Admittedly, it doesn't happen very often, but last week the triviarranger came up with a question that boggled the collective minds of 17 triviophiles. Eleven different answers — none of them right — came in for the detective novel query.

Which means that a score of 11 plus the tiebreaker ranks pretty high, and four of our triviaddicts hit that near-perfect mark — Max Fraley, Bobbi-Jean Alicat, Nancy Prior and the Rowes. Just a half point away, at 10½ and the tiebreaker, were Ed Schmerler and Trina Williams, while the Herb Perez-Bill Samuelson combo and Tracy Godfrey notched a straight 10½ and Betty Newcomb finished high with 10.

THE BALANCE of the field this week: Larry Kirschenbaum, 8½; Cheena Luse and John Russell, eight apiece; Shawn Layden and the Hyland Collective, 7½; Lynne Trujillo, seven; Lynn Perrin (in her first entry since Dec. 29), 6½, and a newcomer, Biology House, six.

Guessing on the mystery writer, three chose Ellery Queen, two each opted for Agatha Christie, Mickey Spillane and Ross Mc Donald, while other entries were Ian Fleming, Kingsley Amis, Raymond Chandler, Rex Stout, Victoria Holt, Helen MacInnes and Frances and Richard Lockridge. The correct answer: Ed McBain, otherwise known as Evan Hunter.

Our hottest player in recent weeks has been Bobbi-Jean, who's averaged .938 over the last four contests and .902 in the last 11. It's last chanceville for Jim Young, Chris Trela and Roger Odil who'll depart if they let a third straight week go by without submitting.

DON'T FORGET Ed's trivia party next Saturday, and warm up for it with these trivial tantilizers:

1. Eleven Oscar winning movies have begun with the word "The." What is the next most popular word, which opened three best pictures?

2. Name the Fifties rock group which made "Earth Angel" a hit.

3. Who played bandleader Red Nichols in his movie biography, and what was the picture called?

4. THE MOVIE, please, which introduced Bob Hope's theme song, "Thanks for the Memory."

5. Speaking of Bob Hope, can you remember the name he used during his brief and unsuccessful career as a boxer?

6. Janet Gaynor won the first best actress Oscar for "Seventh Heaven," but her citation included two other films. Name them.

7. Who was the voice of "My Mother, the Car" on TV?

8. WHAT WAS the first movie Jerry Lewis made without Dean Martin?

9. Peter Sellers, of course, was "Dr. Strangelove," but what baseball player was known as "Dr. StrangeGLOVE"?

10. When John Barrymore played "Svengali" in 1931, who was his Trilby?

11. Gregory Peck made his movie debut in a 1944 war epic. Can you identify it?

12. THE CORRECT name, please, of Stan Freberg's recorded satire on an interview show by a prominent newscaster of the Fifties.

Back to Sherwood Forest for today's tiebreaker. Name the four actors who played Robin Hood on the screen: Cornel Wilde, who played Robin's son, doesn't qualify.

CHOOSES ROLES
Deborah Raffin

Young Actress Has Class

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — There is an indefinable quality among young actresses which determines whether they are bound for stardom or a mediocre ride on the Hollywood merry go round.

The difference is class.

Deborah Raffin, 21, has it. She's talented, too. And beautiful. Like all really successful actresses she's a bit standoffish.

Deborah escaped being a starlet making her movie debut at age 19 in "Forty Carats." She has been given star billing in two unreleased films, "The Dove" and "Once is Not Enough."

THE PROUD young beauty took time out the other day to explain why she was playing the lead in the movie version of Jacqueline Susann's sex drenched novel, "Once Is Not Enough."

It is not exactly the vehicle for a girl who aspires to a Grace Kelly like career.

"There are certain roles I won't accept because of nudity or foul language," she said quietly. "Those things aren't necessary in a script.

"My part called for nude scenes which I refused to do. I wouldn't even allow a double to appear for me nude. So the studio talked to some other actresses. They cast me for the role anyhow."

IT WAS a courageous stand. There aren't that many parts for ingenues today. Paramount Pictures could have settled for any one of a dozen beautiful newcomers.

But producer Howard Koch realized that the touch of class needed for the leading lady was not a ready commodity.

"The first impression anybody makes is the most important," Deborah said. "That's why I've held back from appearing in roles that haven't any substance.

"I want more than exposure to the public. If it's necessary to have an image, then I want it to be as dignified as possible.

"The idea of being famous is great. But I want to look back on things I can be proud of. I was raised to believe that other people won't respect me unless I respect myself."

DEBORAH IS painfully aware her beauty is a disadvantage in today's market.

"Producers are convinced if you're pretty you can't act," she said, not in the least self conscious about her self assessment. "Demanding roles are given to well established actresses.

"It's better not to work at all than to appear in inferior movies."

State Land Use Advocate Loses Clout

By THOMAS D. ELIAS

Drowned in the cascade of bills either passed or turned down this month was one of the most avant garde ideas the Legislature saw in its just-completed two year session.

That was the plan of Republican Assemblyman Paul Priolo for a nine-member state land-use commission similar in many ways to the coastal zone commissions set up last year under Proposition 20.

LIKE MOST PROPOSALS for sweeping change, the Los Angeles assemblyman's land-use regulation idea will most likely require several years and several attempts at passage before it gains acceptance.

But the restructuring which new Speaker Leo McCarthy is imposing on the Assembly may spell death for Priolo's idea, even though many environmentalists favor it.

Although he is a Republican with a conservative voting record on most issues other than land-use and coastline conservation, Priolo had a close relationship with former Assembly Speaker Bob Moretti.

THAT RELATIONSHIP resulted last year in the chairmanship of the new Planning, Land Use and Energy Committee for Priolo.

It was a post with potentially high visibility for Priolo, whose new district includes most of the undeveloped portions of the Santa Monica Mountains in Los Angeles and Ventura counties and he seized on the land-use commission idea as a sure-fire publicity producer.

But McCarthy now plans to revamp the Assembly's committee structure and Priolo's group is one whose responsibilities will be split among three committees.

SINCE THERE will be fewer committees and, most likely, more Democrats in the Assembly when it reconvenes, Priolo probably will lose the chairmanship he has used to push the land-use commission idea.

Whether anyone else will pick it up or whether Priolo could push it effectively even if he weren't chairman of the committee hearing the idea is an open question.

All this comes as a relief to the home-rule advocates who have long opposed any form of regional or statewide land-use planning. The Priolo idea is anathema to them.

HIS PLAN WOULD give the state commission veto power over all local land-use decisions while it designates an as-yet unlimited number of areas within the state as being of "statewide critical concern" because they contain some unique resource or asset.

Presumably, little or no development would be allowed in such areas.

One staunch opponent of the plan is Republican state Sen. John Stull of Leucadia in San Diego County. He calls it a "deliberate, conscious attack upon our system of representative goveinment...which must be rejected forcefully, so that the non-elected social tinkerers, self righteous environmentalists and master planners...recognize that we will not tolerate such attacks on our individual freedoms."

PRIOLO, HOWEVER, believes he can eventually win the support, or at least the neutrality, of most concerned organizations other than the California Real Estate Association.

He missed doing this before the end of the last legislative session by a long shot and history seems to argue for continued failure.

Advocates of bills that would have created coastline commissions similar to those now working tried for almost five years to push their measures through the Legislature.

It was only after repeated failures in that effort that they turned to the initiative process and finally won.

THE NEED FOR coastal land-use controls, of course, was far more obvious than any purported need for state controls on use of all types of land, yet the needed votes could never be mustered in Sacramento.

It's very doubtful that the expected Democratic sweep this fall will produce enough of a pro-conservation, anti-developer climate to get passage of a land-use commission.

This, combined with Priolo's likely reduction in status, may well mean that his ideallistically-conceived, politically-advantageous scheme is doomed, at least for the near future.

'Not So Much'

He Knew Bonnie, Clyde

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Bonnie and Clyde roamed the Southwest in a fast Chevy or Ford roadster, robbing mostly small stores, shooting it out with lawmen, their escapes getting closer and closer each time.

As often as not, the man driving the car for Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker was J.C. Sullivan, who dodged bullets along with them. Sullivan also drove getaway cars for other glamorous bigtime gangsters, including "Pretty Boy" Floyd and "Machine Gun" Kelley.

SULLIVAN, NOW 67, remembers those days well. He ran from the law, chauffeured gangsters around in stolen cars and gambled away his wife's meager household funds.

'I don't think she ever shot at anyone and I don't think she ever smoked a cigar.'

And, Sullivan says, they weren't big-time gangsters at all, just petty thieves. Their glamor, he said, is a myth created by Hollywood.

"They didn't have the ingenuity to rob banks," Sullivan said in an interview.

"Clyde was a likeable fella and he had a real personality," Sullivan said. "If he could've turned his energies into the right way he could've been something."

SULLIVAN SAID HE drove for the Barrow gang only when he needed money badly because he didn't care for them.

"Clyde knew where I lived and he'd call me up and say: 'I'm in the old Ford and I'm bringing it through' and that would be my clue," Sullivan said.

"I could see the trap that Bonnie was in. She started with him and after they robbed a place or two, she couldn't turn back. She really cared for Clyde — she loved him," Sullivan said.

"AS FAR AS SHE is concerned, I don't think she ever shot at anyone and I don't think she ever smoked a cigar" as in the movies, Sullivan said. "She wrote poetry and she had a good mind."

Three times Sullivan went to prison. He escaped twice. But all the time, he said, "I was scared."

"I knew they would hunt me up and chase me down sooner or later," he said. "It was bound to happen. No one could evade the law as I had done for long and get by."

SO ABOUT 30 years ago, he quit. He said he was "finished with the dark side of living."

He became a Christian and started a program called "Nu-Way" to help paroled prisoners learn skills and get jobs. He became a leader in the Baptist church.

"My mother is a Christian and she read the Bible to me at home and this stayed with me whenever I laid down on an old, hard prison bed," Sullivan said.

"People who get into crime don't realize the awfulness of it and the fear and the dread and how you can bound into it. Every man out there who is wanted is Clyde — they walk in fear and dread."

PUBLIC NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 74-47
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COSTA MESA MAKING PROVISION FOR ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE UNIFORM PLUMBING CODE RELATING TO GAS METERS, AND SETTING FORTH REASONS THEREFOR.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COSTA MESA DOES HEREBY ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: The City Council of the City of Costa Mesa hereby finds and declares that public utility gas meters which are installed on residential housing are, by reason of their form and structure and the pressure regulator device unsightly to the human eye. The City Council further finds and declares that modern building practices can be followed which will obscure the meter equipment from the human eye in residential housing. The City Council further finds and declares that practical inexpensive methods of architectural design in the residential structure can provide for the obscurity of gas meter installations without unreasonable cost to the developer or purchaser. The City Council further finds and declares that the health, safety and welfare of the community require regulation of the installation of gas meters.

Accordingly, there is added to the Costa Mesa Municipal Code, Section 5-54 which shall read as follows:

SECTION 2: "Section 5-54 Gas Meter Installation

The installation of gas meters on all residential housing units shall be performed in a manner so as to obscure said installation from view from any place on or off the property. Said installation shall be in a manner acceptable to the Public Utility and shall be in the form of a vault, wall cabinet or wall box, and shall be installed in accordance with standard plans and specifications of the City of Costa Mesa."

SECTION 3: This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effect thirty (30) days from and after its passage, and before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage, shall be published once in the Orange Coast Daily Pilot, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Costa Mesa, together with the names of the members of the City Council voting for and against the same.

PASSED AND ADOPTED THIS 17th day of September, 1974.
ROBERT M. WILSON
Mayor of the City of Costa Mesa

ATTEST:
EILEEN P. PHINNEY
City Clerk of the City
Of Costa Mesa

CITY OF COSTA MESA )

I, EILEEN P. PHINNEY, City Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the City Council of the City of Costa Mesa, hereby certify that the above and foregoing Ordinance No. 74-47 was introduced and considered section by section at a regular meeting of said City Council held on the 3rd day of September, 1974 and thereafter passed and adopted as a whole at a regular meeting of said City Council held on the 17th day of September, 1974, by the following roll call vote:

AYES: COUNCILMEN: Wilson, Hammett, Pinkley, Raciti, Hertzog
NOES: COUNCILMEN: None
ABSENT: COUNCILMEN: None
(SEAL)

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have set my hand and affixed the Seal of the City of Costa Mesa this 18th day of September, 1974.

Extraordinarily first cabin. Newport Crest at Newport Beach.

Where else? And nothing south of Sea Ranch's boldness to compare it with. But then it does defy comparison. Deep courtyards, balconies and decks everywhere; spacious, accommodating residences for uncommoners. Wood sheathed, clipped eave, saltbox architecture. Defies description, must be walked about to be appreciated. Motor up Superior Avenue from the Pacific Coast Highway to eight smashing models. From $53,000 and worth every penny and then some. Don't sniff at Newport Beach, either. You might get a lungful of fresh sea-borne air!
